Story Of People:

Love Is a Story Robert J. Sternberg, 1999-06-03 In this groundbreaking work Robert Sternberg opens the book of love and shows you how to discover your own story and how to read your relationships in a whole new light What draws us so strongly to some people and repels us from others What makes some relationships work so smoothly and others burst into flames Sternberg gives us new answers to these questions by showing that the kind of relationship we create depends on the kind of love stories we carry inside us Drawing on extensive research and fascinating examples of real couples Sternberg identifies 26 types of love story including the fantasy story the business story the collector story the horror story and many others each with its distinctive advantages and pitfalls and many of which are clashingly incompatible These are the largely unconscious preconceptions that guide our romantic choices and it is only by becoming aware of the kind of story we have about love that we gain the freedom to create more fulfilling and lasting relationships As long as we remain oblivious to the role our stories play we are likely to repeat the same mistakes again and again But the enlivening good news this book brings us is that though our stories drive us we can revise them and learn to choose partners whose stories are more compatible with our own Quizzes in each chapter help you to see which stories you identify with most strongly and which apply to your partner Are you a traveler a gardener a teacher or something else entirely Love is a Story shows you how to find out

Learning Disability Gordon Grant, Paul Ramcharan, Margaret Flynn, Malcolm Richardson, 2010-05-16 With its spread of chapters covering key issues across the life cycle this text has established itself as the foundational primer for those studying the lived experiences of people with learning disabilities and their families and outcomes achieved through services and support systems Recognising learning disability as a lifelong disability this accessible book is structured around the life cycle The second edition is refreshed and expanded to include seven new chapters covering Aetiology Breaking news about disability and early intervention Transition to adulthood The sexual lives of women Employment Personalisation People with hidden identities With contributions from respected figures from a range of disciplines the book draws heavily upon multidisciplinary perspectives and is based on the latest research and evidence for practice The text is informed by medical social and legal models of learning disability exploring how learning disability is produced reproduced and understood Extensive use is made of real life case studies designed to bring theory values policy and practice to life Narrative chapters describe in the words of people with learning disabilities themselves their lives and aspirations They helpfully show readers the kinds of roles played by families advocates and services in supporting people with learning disabilities New exercises and questions have been added to encourage discussion and reflection on practice Learning Disability is core reading for students entering health and social care professions to work with people with learning disabilities It is a compelling reference text for practitioners as it squarely addresses the challenges facing people with learning disability their loved ones and the people supporting them Contributors Dawn Adams Kathryn Almack Dorothy Atkinson Nigel Beail Christine Bigby

Thinking in Story Richard A. Jensen, 1993 We are living on the boundary between the print and electronic era Richard A Jensen says that as we move into the electronic world we must seriously rethink most of what we do This book calls us to reinvestigate preaching in our time Well grounded in an understanding of communication cultures this book is a rare gift In theory and practice Jensen helps preachers rethink what they are doing and offers a strategy for effective communication in an electronic era Richard L Thulin Th D Dean and Professor of Preaching Lutheran Theological Seminary at Gettysburg Gettysburg Pennsylvania Jensen s thinking in story thesis provides a scholarly logical rationale for why it both feels and is so right Jensen applies his thinking in story concept to biblical material as well His approach helps us to see individual texts stories in light of the larger biblical story which opens up many new avenues for preaching Thomas Rogers Assistant Professor of Homiletics Pacific Lutheran Theological Seminary Berkeley California These are solid prescriptions for our media saturated times calling for a shift in our very approach to proclamation Jensen is quite right in this goal that preaching needs to compel participation in the narratives of scripture not merely an understanding of them James Nieman Assistant Professor of Homiletics Wartburg Theological Seminary Dubuque Iowa Richard A Jensen is a trained systematic theologian having taught these subjects at Wartburg Theological Seminary Dubuque Iowa from 1971 1981 He is author of Telling The Story Since 1982 he has served in the communication department of the American Lutheran Church and the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America He produces the weekly radio program Lutheran Vespers and several series of television

Generosity Rising Scott McKenzie,2016-03-01 With all of the books written on stewardship and all of the workshops offered why do churches continue to struggle with questions and issues of financial giving The answer is in the church s leadership A revolution of generosity will only occur as pastors financial chairs and stewardship chairs live and give witness to the importance of generosity in their personal lives and then intentionally recruit and train others to join the revolution Leading a revolution in generosity is not about simply using the right program or reading the right book or preaching the right sermon a revolution of generosity is about embracing living and leading others on a journey of gratitude prayer and faith Generosity Rising instructs pastors on whom to recruit and how to recruit them offering practical guidelines for training a dedicated team of generosity revolutionaries This book also provides daily devotionals for leaders to inspire motivate and encourage their personal journey of gratitude prayer and faith

The Moral Psychology of Love Arina Pismenny,Berit Brogaard,2022-03-28 Under what circumstances can love generate moral reasons for action Are there morally appropriate ways to love Can an occurrence of love or a failure to love constitute a moral failure Is it better to love morally good people This volume explores the moral dimensions of love through the lenses of political philosophy psychology and neuroscience It attempts to discern how various social norms affect our experience and understanding of love how love relates to other affective states such as emotions and desires and how love influences and is influenced by reason What love is affects what love ought to be Conversely our ideas of what love ought to be partly determined by our conception of what love is

Stand Up! Gordon Whitman,2018-01-16 Stand Up How to Get Involved Speak Out and Win in a World on Fire A society that actively combats racism treats climate change as a serious threat and ensures that all people have a living wage and a decent life for themselves and their families is not a progressive pipe dream Victories are being won every day all over the country But they didn t happen just by clicking donate on a website Gordon Whitman says that fundamental change demands forming the kind of face to face relationships that have sustained every social movement in history For two decades Whitman has been working with PICO National Network to equip tens of thousands to fight racial discrimination and economic injustice He brings that experience to this book describing five kinds of conversations that enable people to create organizations that can successfully overcome the forces of oppression and reaction The first conversation to have is with ourselves to make sure we re clear about our purpose and in it for the long haul Then we need to share the personal story of how we came to this point with others there is no more powerful way to connect They in turn will share their stories and then we can have the third conversation about becoming a team This team reaches out to people they know to talk about their concerns and priorities building a broad base of supporters Then with our base at our back we can have that final conversation directly confronting the powers that be Of course this isn't as simple as it sounds Appropriately enough Whitman uses stories his own and others to illustrate how best to handle these conversations and to show how they work together to build a movement We can't just sit on the sidelines sharing angry social media posts or signing online petitions We need to get directly involved reach out knock on doors and bring our whole selves to the table if the changes our country so desperately need are ever going to come
