The Last Cavalryman Harvey Ferguson, 2015-03-16 Truscott was one of the really tough generals soldier cartoonist Bill Mauldin of the 45th Infantry Division once wrote He could have eaten a ham like Patton for breakfast any morning and picked his teeth with the man's pearl handled pistols Not one merely to act the part of commander Mauldin remembered Truscott spent half his time at the front the real front with nobody in attendance but a nervous Jeep driver and a worried aide In this biography of Lucian K Truscott Jr author Harvey Ferguson tells the story of how Truscott despite his hardscrabble beginnings patchy education and questionable luck not only made the rank of army lieutenant general earning a reputation as one of World War II's most effective officers along the way but was also given an honorary promotion to four star general seven years after his retirement For all his accomplishments and celebrated heroic action Truscott was not one for self aggrandizement which may explain in part why historians have neglected him until now The Last Cavalryman drawing on personal papers only recently made available gives the first full picture of this singular man's extraordinary life and career Ferguson describes Truscott's near accidental entry into the U S Cavalry propelled by Pancho Villa's 1916 raids and his somewhat halting rise through the ranks aided by fellow cavalryman George S Patton Jr who steered him into the nascent armored force at the right time The author takes us through Truscott s service in the Second World War from creating the U S Army Rangers to engineering the breakout from Anzio and leading the masterpiece invasion of southern France Ferguson finishes his narrative by detailing the general s postwar work with the CIA where he acted as President Dwight Eisenhower s eyes and ears within the agency A compelling story in itself this biography of Lucian K Truscott Jr a cavalryman to the last fills out an important chapter in American military history Army History ,1989 War on Film: Military History Education, Video Tapes, Motion Pictures, and Related Audiovisual Aids ,1987 This bibliography is a listing of selected unclassified government and commercially produced motion picture films videotapes and related audiovisual materials that support the teaching of American military history It is designed to serve as a resource tool to assist instructors within the TRADOC Military History Education Program Partial contents General Military history Military technology Military Commanders and personalities Unit histories Colonial America to 1861 Civil War and Spanish American War World War I and between the wars World War II Korean War and the Cold war Vietnam War to the Present Hollywood Films United States Army Combat Forces Journal ,1953 The Legacy of Custer's 7th U.S. Cavalry in Korea Edward L.
