Christmas Carol: A Ghost Story of Christmas Charles Dickens, 2020-09-28 Marley was dead to begin with There is no doubt whatever about that The register of his burial was signed by the clergyman the clerk the undertaker and the chief mourner Scrooge signed it and Scrooge's name was good upon Change for anything he chose to put his hand to Old Marley was as dead as a door nail Mind I don't mean to say that I know of my own knowledge what there is particularly dead about a door nail I might have been inclined myself to regard a coffin nail as the deadest piece of ironmongery in the trade But the wisdom of our ancestors is in the simile and my unhallowed hands shall not disturb it or the Country's done for You will therefore permit me to repeat emphatically that Marley was as dead as a door nail Scrooge knew he was dead Of course he did How could it be otherwise Scrooge and he were partners for I don't know how many years Scrooge was his sole executor his sole administrator his sole assign his sole residuary legatee his sole friend and sole mourner And even Scrooge was not so dreadfully cut up by the sad event but that he was an excellent man of business on the very day of the funeral and solemnised it with an undoubted bargain A Story of Christmas (Musaicum Christmas Specials) Zona Gale, 2020-12-17 A small town falls on hard times and through much persuasion decides to skip Christmas A lone woman finds that her small nephew now orphaned is coming to live with her on Christmas Eve The town decides to do things to welcome him that are not really for Christmas But of course the spirit of love and brotherhood shines through as Christmas softens hearts and is reborn in this tiny village CHRISTMAS TALES OF FLANDERS - 23 Illustrated Children's Christmas Stories from Belgium André de Ridder, 2020-12-30 Christmas Tales of Flanders is a profusely illustrated volume containing 23 illustrated Fables and legends from Flanders and Brabant Even today these tales are still loved by children of all ages throughout Belgium Many of the tales are found in different guises in the folklore of many nations but here they are presented with a Flemish twist taking the place of the more commonly told nursery stories familiar in the UK and in other Western nations The first relates the tale of a rich woman who turns a beggar away from her door at Christmas who is then welcomed by her poor neighbour who provides food and shelter freely given She is of course rewarded for her actions whilst the rich neighbour pays a price for her meanness of spirit a tale retold with variations in most cultures Then the tale of Seppy presents a man who complains that he works hard in the fields while his wife idles her time away at home so they decide to swap jobs for a day After his catastrophic day looking after the house and the ensuing chaos Seppy learns not to complain about others and realises he is not the only one who works hard There are tales to make you take care for what you wish for Tintelentyn and The Wonderful Fish and others showing how bad acts can rebound and repay with interest All the tales use humour to demonstrate life's lessons to the young and young at heart The tales themselves are delightfully enhanced by the illustrations by Jean de Bosschere a Belgian artist and writer 1878-1953 associated with the Golden Age of Illustration This volume contains 12 lovely colour illustrations and more than 120 monotone and two colour images ranging in size from full page to vignettes De Bosschere's work is considered to be in same league as Harry Clarke or Willy Pogany Whomever his work is compared to the work of Jean de Bosschere like that of other great illustrators is unique so much so that many of his illustrated books were published as limited editions 10% of the profit from the sale of this book will be donated to charity Child-garden of Story, Song and Play, 1900 Children's Catalog of Thirty-five Hundred Books H.W.
