The Magazine of History , 1905 The Christian Century , 1918 Something in Common Ann Brewster Dobie, 1991-03-01 The nineteen stories that this memorable collection comprises are a powerful testament to the continuing vitality of the literary tradition in Louisiana Something in Common includes work by such well known Louisiana writers as Walker Percy Ernest Gaines Shirley Ann Grau and Andr Dubus as well as stories by younger writers whose reputations are still being established Together the stories provide a remarkable record of the vigor of fiction in Louisiana as the twentieth century draws to a close Though contemporary these stories are a result of the habit of telling tales that goes back to the earliest days of the state's history. They come from writers who may now live in Maine or California but who remember that our stories become a mirror in which we can see ourselves and know who we are and where we have come from. The stories have in common a fundamental belief in the power of the written word to define a particular place and time. They testify to the rich culture of the past when Louisiana's ways set it apart and to present that is pulling the state to be part of social forces once foreign to its ways. They reveal a society of several races and many histories with fading definitions of traditional roles and changing family patterns. Additionally, these stories depict the changes brought on by merging the old with the new. They rehearse the familiar themes of good, evil, freedom, and reality with a voice not heard in the Louisiana of the past. To establish tradition, they bring a fresh point of view. Something in Common remembers the past, shows us the present, and points the way to the future.

The Strange M. Proust Andre Benhaim, 2017-07-05. The strange M. Proust, the narrator, the author, and the embodiment of A la Recherche du Temps perdu is now so canonical a writer that his very strangeness is easily overlooked. His book, made of other books, his epic composed of extraordinary miniatures his orderly structure where every law is subverted his chronology where time can be undone and his geography where places can superimpose in these and many other ways Proust continues to astonish even readers who have engaged with him for their entire careers In this book arising from the Princeton symposium of 2006 major critics come together to offer provocative readings of a work which is at the same time classical and unusual French and foreign familiar and strange The book is dedicated to the memory of Malcolm Bowie 1943 2007 whose keynote address was one of his last major lectures Other contributors include David Ellison Anne Simon Eugene Nicole Joseph Brami Raymonde Coudert Christie McDonald Michael Wood and Antoine Compagnon      Children's Catalog of Thirty-five Hundred Books H.W. Wilson Company, Corinne Bacon, 1917      In the Bedroom Andre Dubus, 2002-01-29 The seven stories collected here including Killings the basis for Todd Field's award winning film In the Bedroom showcase legendary writer Andre Dubus's sheer narrative mastery in a book of quietly staggering emotional power A father in mourning contemplates the unthinkable as the only way to allay his grief A boy must learn to care for his younger brother when their mother leaves the family A young woman who has never lacked lovers despairs of ever finding love itself and then makes an accidental discovery that brings her real joy Culled from Dubus's treasured collections Selected Stories and Dancing After Hours these beautiful stories of people at pivotal moments in their lives are some of the most bewitching and profound in American fiction
