Devine, 2024-02-22 Will Alexander is on a journey of the heart and soul searching for something elusive something missing from his life something obscured by the chaotic circumstances of his life and the mists of uncertainty Blind to obvious truths he is unable to see clearly what that elusive something is or where it may be found He is on a perilous odyssey cast toward an unknown destiny at the mercy of fate and chance Having dropped out of university he is an unlikely member of the Dark Angels an outlaw motorcycle club in Halifax Nova Scotia Contending with violence in the streets and at home and in conflict with the law he is driven ultimately to a decision an inflection point that will define the remainder of his life Twenty years later the nature and direction of his journey begin to come into sharper resolution He comes to see what he must do to find what has been missing over most of his lifetime to fill the void in his life and finally give it a completeness he did not fully comprehend it lacked This takes him from Nova Scotia to the other side of the world An expansive spellbinding tale of generational mythology the mysterious dance of fate and chance and the circumstances and decisions that shape us The Eyes of Bats concludes the multi generational family saga begun by the author in his novel All the Stars in the Sky These two novels give voice to themes of tragedy struggle hope redemption and triumph Cities, Words and Images P. De Armas,2004 Although the very notion of writing for the eyes was not new to the Spanish Golden Age its ubiquitous presence during this period calls for rethinking of the traditional separation between the visual and the verbal in studies of Iberian culture This collection of essays seeks to open up this complex interdisciplinary field of study by including essays on many aspects of visual writing in sixteenth and seventeenth century Spain Jacket The Eye of the Storm Jonathan A. Draper,2003-02-01 One hundred years ago Bishop Colenso was excommunicated because of his liberal critical views on the inspiration and authority of the Bible But while in South Africa he worked strenuously for social and political reform 2003 will mark the revocation of his excommunication in a ceremony in South Africa and this book commemorates that event It is divided into sections on African Culture Bible Theology and Social History and contains contribution from English Dutch and South African scholars It will appeal not only to the biblical scholar and Christian theologian but also to anyone interested in the 19th century conflict of theology and reason and the struggle against colonial exploitation Through the Eye of a Needle Peter Brown,2013-09-02 A sweeping intellectual history of the role of wealth in the church in the last days of the Roman Empire Jesus taught his followers that it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter heaven Yet by the fall of Rome the church was becoming rich beyond measure Through the Eye of a Needle is a sweeping intellectual and social history of the vexing problem of wealth in Christianity in the waning days of the Roman Empire written by the world's foremost scholar of late antiquity Peter Brown examines the rise of the church through the lens of money and the challenges it posed to an institution that espoused the virtue of poverty and called avarice the root of all evil Drawing on the writings of major Christian thinkers such as Augustine Ambrose and Jerome Brown examines the controversies and changing attitudes toward money caused by the influx of new wealth into church coffers and describes the spectacular acts of divestment by rich donors and their growing influence in an empire beset with crisis He shows how the use of wealth for the care of the poor competed with older forms of philanthropy deeply rooted in the Roman world and sheds light on the ordinary people who gave away their money in hopes of treasure in heaven Through the Eye of a Needle challenges the widely held notion that Christianity's growing wealth sapped Rome of its ability to resist the barbarian invasions and offers a fresh perspective on the social history of the church in late antiquity

Eroticism in Georges Bataille and Henry Miller Gilles Mayné,1993

Downcast Eyes Martin Jay,1993 Long considered the noblest of the senses vision has increasingly come under critical scrutiny by a wide range of thinkers who question its dominance in Western culture These critics of vision especially prominent in twentieth century France have challenged its allegedly superior capacity to provide access to the world They have also criticized its supposed complicity with political and social oppression through the promulgation of spectacle and surveillance Martin Jay turns to this discourse surrounding vision and explores its often contradictory implications in the work of such influential figures as Jean Paul Sartre Maurice Merleau Ponty Michel Foucault Jacques Lacan Louis Althusser Guy Debord Luce Irigaray Emmanuel Levinas and Jacques Derrida Jay begins with a discussion of the theory of vision from Plato to Descartes then considers its role in the French Enlightenment before turning to its status in the culture of modernity From consideration of French Impressionism to analysis of Georges Bataille and the Surrealists Roland Barthes's writings on photography and the film theory of Christian Metz Jay provides lucid and fair minded accounts of thinkers and ideas widely known for their difficulty His book examines the myriad links between the interrogation of vision and the pervasive antihumanist antimodernist and counter enlightenment tenor of much recent French thought Refusing however to defend the dominant visual order he calls instead for a plurality of scopic regimes Certain to generate controversy and discussion throughout the humanities and social sciences Downcast Eyes will consolidate Jay's reputation as one of today's premier cultural and intellectual historians

The Thirst for Annihilation Nick Land,1992 An impassionate and fearless study of Georges Bataille which goes beyond analysis and criticism to actually engage with him In the Eye of the Hurricane Philip Hallie,2001-07-10 Eleven accessible tales explore the ethical motives of three real life heroes In the Eye of the Storm V. Gene Robinson,2008 In 2003 Gene Robinson was elected as the Bishop of New Hampshire the first openly gay man to be called to serve in such a position Clearly beloved in his diocese and chosen from a wide selection of candidates the election was entirely proper and the result clear cut yet it sparked a hurricane storm of controversy that has polarised religious opinion on five continents and still rages five years on Here Gene Robinson reflects on his journey of faith his life experiences the concerns that matter most to him as a bishop and the controversy that has rocked the church he loves and to which he is committed Upright Practices ; The Light of the Eyes Nahum (of Chernobyl),1982 Menahem Nahum of Chernobyl 1730 1797 was rabbi of Chernobyl near Kiev in Ukraine He was part of the Hasidic movement that played a key role in the history of eastern European Jewry Upright Practices is a devotional manual of personal practices The Light of the Eyes is a collection of homilies based on the Book of Genesis
