

THE STORY OF THE IRISH CITIZEN ARMY

By P. O CATHASAIGH

The first account that has been given of the formation of the Irish Citizen Army during the Dublin strike of 1913-14, and the part played by it in the subsequent history of Ireland. The author, who was himself a leading figure in the movement, writes with vigour and conviction upon the role of labour in Ireland, and expressing a very definite opinion as to the relations of the workers to the National movement. The book contains original character sketches of Larkin, Connolly, Captain White, and Madame Markiewicz, and some facts bearing on the relations between the Citizen Army and the Volunteers now emerge for the first time.

The Story of the Irish Citizen Army Sean O'Casey,1919 The History of the Irish Citizen Army R. M. Fox,1943
Story of the Irish Citizen Army Sean O'Casey,1981 The 'Labour Hercules': The Irish Citizen Army and Irish Republicanism, 1913-23 Jeffrey Leddin,2019-03-20 The Irish Citizen Army ICA was born from the Dublin Lockout of 1913 when industrialist William Martin Murphy locked out workers who refused to resign from the Irish Transport and General Workers Union sparking one of the most dramatic industrial disputes in Irish history Faced with threats of police brutality in response to the strike James Connolly James Larkin and Jack White established the ICA in the winter of 1913 By the end of March 1914 the ICA espoused republican ideology and that the ownership of Ireland was vested of right in the people of Ireland The ICA was in the process of being totally transformed going on to provide significant support to the IRA during the 1916 Rising Despite Connolly s execution and the internment of many ICA members the ICA reorganised in 1917 subsequently developing networks for arms importation and intelligence and later providing operative support for the War of Independence in Dublin The most extensive survey of the movement to date The Labour Hercules explores the ICA s evolution into a republican army and its legacy to the present day The Irish Citizen Army Ann Matthews,2014-09-05 The Irish Citizen Army was originally established as a defence corps during the 1913 Lockout but under the leadership of James Connolly its aims became more Republican and the IRB fearing Connolly would pre empt their plans for the Easter Rising convinced him to join his force with the Irish Volunteers During the Rising the ICA was active in three garrisons and the book describes for the first time in depth its involvement at St Stephen s Green and the Royal College of Surgeons at City Hall and its environs and using the first hand account of journalist J J O Leary who was on the scene in the battle around the GPO The author questions the much vaunted myth of the equality of men and women in the ICA and scrutinises the credentials of Larkin and Connolly as champions of both sexes She also asserts that the Proclamation was not read by Patrick Pearse from the steps of the GPO but by Tom Clarke from Nelson s Pillar She provides sources to suggest that the Proclamation was not as has always been believed printed in Liberty Hall and that the final headquarters of the rebels was not at number 16 Moore Street but somewhere between numbers 21 and 26 The Story of the Irish Citizen Army Sean O'Casey,1970 The Story of the Irish Citizen Army P. Dublin in 1913 its effects internationally and its paramount example in shaping political activism within Ireland to this day The narrative of the beleaguered yet dignified workers who stood up to the greed of their Irish masters is examined revealing the truths that were too fraught with trauma shame and political tension to remain within popular memory Beyond the animosity and immediate impact of the industrial dispute are its enduring lessons through the First World War the Easter Rising and the birth of the Irish Free State its legacy real and adopted instructs the surge of activism currently witnessed but to what effect The Dublin Lockout 1913 illuminates this pivotal class war in Irish history inspiring shocking and the nearest thing Ireland had to a debate on the type of society that was wanted by its citizens A History of Irish Working-Class Writing Michael Pierse,2018 Michael Pierse is Lecturer in Irish literature at Queen s University Belfast His research mainly explores the writing and cultural production of Irish working class life Over recent years this work has expanded into new multidisciplinary themes and international contexts including the study of festivals digital methodologies in public humanities and theatre as research practices Michael has contributed to a range of national and international publications is the author of Writing Ireland s Working Class Dublin after O Casey 2011 and has been awarded several Arts and Humanities Research Council awards and the Vice Chancellor s Award at Queen s The Irish Citizen Army Daithí Mac an Mháistir,2017
