The six stories in this book are either fruits of imagination or facts narrated to the author It challenges the capability of the reader to judge which is true and which one is a tale Issues to ponder below Are you a ghost believer Have you ever seen or felt any supernatural incident around you or any occurrence in your life which you can consider unusual Life has several stages From newborn to toddlers from teenage to adults from parents to elders who tag themselves as happy seniors in this story What is the secret of their happiness A lie is like a winding road that has a beginning but has no end It s so hard to tell a lie but at times someone has to to protect a loved one Writers and songwriters look up on publishers as their dream provider only to end up disgusted when they end up getting rob in broad daylight Love not only provides peace and contentment True love can also save a life through a miracle Beauty is not based on the how a person looks like but more on how the person glows inside and out People clearly view the dawn and the sunset every day they see everyone to anywhere and everywhere they go This is the way of life We call them humanity who are the major character places where the characters move incidents that create the story and the suspense The major part of our story telling the focal point of the fairy tale or the true story filled with suspense and adventure Short stories and fairy tales are partly based on true experience but quite a few are mostly created by the incredible and theatrical imagination of individuals who are born dreamers writers composers or story tellers For every thousand babies born every second there are several different stories that can be written Story Tellers can write a story about a person they just met or of someone whom they have been with for few weeks months or several years Their imagination work for every beautiful place they see their hands can t help but write once their imagination start wondering Remember we writers are story tellers Diary Poems and Story Teller's Rhymes Sonjoy Dutta-Roy,2012-08-03 Diary Poems and Story Tellers Rhymes continues two traditions of poetry into contemporary times a the oral tradition where fables parables and myths are narrated in rhymed verse both for instruction and entertainment by the introspective and reflective written tradition where deep personal concerns emerge in heightened rhythm and rhyme through images metaphors and symbols This book blends these two traditions maintaining a distinction all the time Some of the fables are originally created out of contemporary issues Poach Tantra takes up the problem of poaching through an animal fable in the Panchtantra tradition Others like The Snake Story The Comet Avatar and the Katha Serial Saga a contemporary retake on the frame story of Kathasaritasagar are remakes of ancient myths to suit the contemporary times The Diary Poems are actually diary poems preserved through a period of intense personal crisis and transition Together with the Story Tellers Rhymes they try to juxtapose the complex and intricate relationship between the objective and the subjective worlds in which we simultaneously exist For example Curtain Calls is a meditation after the death of the poet's parents in quick succession in 2010 Poach Tantra that follows is a grandfather's tale to a granddaughter from an earlier date At the same time one sincerely hopes that they are able to continue into these troubled contemporary times and in an age dominated by prose and reason the wonder and beauty and possibilities of poetry as narrative and poetry as introspection

The Art of Story-Telling Marie L. Shedlock, 2020-07-24 Excerpt Some day we shall have a science of education comparable to the science of medicine but even when that day arrives the art of education will still remain the inspiration and the guide of all wise teachers The laws that regulate our physical and mental development will be reduced to order but the impulses which lead each new generation to play its way into possession of all that is best in life will still have to be interpreted for us by the artists who with the wisdom of years have not lost the direct vision of children Some years ago I heard Miss Shedlock tell stories in England Her fine sense of literary and dramatic values her power in sympathetic interpretation always restrained within the limits of the art she was using and her understanding of educational values based on a wide experience of teaching all marked her as an artist in story telling She was equally at home in interpreting the subtle blending of wit and wisdom in Daudet the folk lore philosophy of Grimm or the deeper world philosophy and poignant human appeal of Hans Christian Andersen
