Storyteller The Many Lives Of Laurens Van Der Post:

Storyteller J. D. F. Jones, 2002 When he died in 1996 Laurens van der Post was a celebrated polymath war hero writer explorer mystic Jungian behind the scenes diplomat and sage to Mrs Thatcher and Prince Charles He was a secular saint After J D F Jones s authorised biography he will be most famous for one skill storytelling His books and stories of the bushmen of the Kalahari of his friendship with Jung of his diplomatic importance may be inspiring They are also largely fabricated San Spirituality J. David Lewis-Williams, David G. Pearce, 2004 At the intersection between western culture and Africa we find the San people of the Kalahari desert Once called Bushmen the San have survived many characterizations from pre human animals by the early European colonials to aboriginal conservationists in perfect harmony with nature by recent New Age adherents Neither caricature does justice to the complex world view of the San Eminent anthropologists David Lewis Williams and David Pearce present a instead balanced view of the spiritual life of this much studied people examining the interplay of their cosmology myth ritual and art Leonard Woolf Victoria Glendinning, 2008-04-28 This meticulously researched and compassionately rendered portrait of Leonard Woolf the dark star of Bloomsbury is the first to capture his troubled relationship with his wife his own intellect and the tumultuous world of artists and eccentrics around him A man of extremes Woolf was by turns ferocious and tender violent and repressed opinionated and nonjudgmental always an outsider of sorts within the exceptionally intimate fractious and sometimes vicious society of brilliant but troubled friends and lovers In telling Woolf s story Victoria Glendinning traces the development of the Bloomsbury circle bringing to life the group s literary and personal discussions She also provides an unprecedented account of Woolf s marriage to the legendary Virginia revealing his undying creative and emotional support for her amid her numerous breakdowns Leonard Woolf is a perceptive and lively biography of a man whose far reaching influence is long overdue the full appreciation Glendinning provides Latin American Peasants Tom Brass, 2004-08-02 The essays in this collection examine agrarian transformation in Latin America and the role in this of peasants with particular reference to Bolivia Peru Chile Brazil and Central America Among the issues covered are the impact of globalization and neo liberal economic policies Class, Culture and the Agrarian Myth Tom Brass, 2014-05-15 Using examples from different historical contexts this book examines the relationship between class nationalism modernity and the agrarian myth Essentializing rural identity traditional culture and quotidian resistance both aristocratic plebeian and pastoral Darwinian forms of agrarian myth discourse inform struggles waged from above and from below surfacing in peasant movements film and travel writing Film depictions of royalty landowner and colonizer as disempowered ordinary or well disposed towards those below whose interests they share underwrite populism and nationalism Although these ideologies replaced the cosmopolitanism of the Grand Tour twentieth century travel literature continued to reflect a fear of vanishing rural otherness abroad combined with the arrival there of the mass tourist the plebeian from home World Heritage Sites and Tourism Laurent Bourdeau, Maria Gravari-Barbas, Mike

Robinson,2016-11-10 Not all World Heritage Sites have people living within or close by their boundaries but many do The designation of World Heritage status brings a new dimension to the functioning of local communities and particularly through tourism Too many tourists accentuated by the World Heritage label or in some cases not enough tourists despite anticipation of increased numbers can act to disrupt and disturb relations within a community and between communities Either way tourism can be seen as a form of activity that can generate interest and concern as it is played out within World Heritage Sites But the relationships that World Heritage Sites and their consequent tourism share with communities are not just a function of the number of tourists The relationships are complex and ever changing as the communities themselves change and are built upon long standing and wider contextual factors that stretch beyond tourism This volume drawing upon a wide range of international cases relating to some 33 World Heritage Sites reveals the multiple dimensions of the relations that exist between the sites and local communities The designation of the sites can create obscure and heighten the power relations between different parts of a community between different communities and between the tourism and the heritage sector Increasingly the management of World Heritage is not only about the management of buildings and landscapes but about managing the communities that live and work in or near them

Buthelezi Ben Temkin,2013-10-31 Ben Temkin Buthelezi s biographer had the full co operation of Chief Buthelezi in the writing of this book There were interviews and discussions in KwaZulu and in Johannesburg in offices at the airport in hotels in private homes and even while they travelled between centres in KwaZulu

Life Writing Meg Jensen,Jane Jordan,2009-03-26 In our age self publishing self broadcasting and telling stories about our own lives and the lives of others are all pervasive This is also the age of the witness the age of testimony in which first hand accounts personal experience life change and evolution are valued for good or ill over distanced reflection What are we to make of all this telling of lives The essays collected in Life Writing The Spirit of the Age and the State of the Art from writers and academics associated with the Centre for Life Narrative Studies at Kingston University in London begin to address this very question and in doing so demonstrate the fluidity and diversity of life writing itself The remit of the Centre for Life Narratives is to rise to the challenge poised to writers teachers and researchers alike by this very fluidity and diversity in our discipline and is exemplified here with contributions from academics curators editors and biographers including Neal Ascherson Victoria Glendinning Professor Kathryn Hughes Hanif Kureishi Blake Morrison and Lawrence Goldman editor of the Oxford Dictionary of National Biography This collection of essays from CLN offers the reader our founding contribution to the debates that surround this era defining genre and as such presents both the state of the art and the spirit of our age

Tourism and Postcolonialism Colin Michael Hall,Hazel Tucker,2004 Due to its centrality to the processes of transnational mobilities migration and globalization tourism studies has the potential to make a significant contribution to understanding the postcolonial experience Drawing together theoretical and applied research this fascinating book illuminates the links between tourism colonialism and postcolonialism

Significantly it creates a space for the voices of authors from postcolonial countries Chapters are integrated and examined through concepts taken from the wider postcolonial literature which identify tourism not only as an international industry but also as a postcolonial cultural form which by its very nature is based on past and present day colonial structural relationships The first book to explicitly explore the contribution tourism can make to the postcolonial experience this book is an essential read for students of tourism cultural studies and geography Celebrity and the Environment Dan Brockington, 2013-07-04 The battle to save the world is being joined by a powerful new group of warriors Celebrities are lending their name to conservation causes and conservation itself is growing its own stars to fight and speak for nature In this timely and essential book Dan Brockington argues that this alliance grows from the mutually supportive publicity celebrity and conservation causes provide for each other and more fundamentally that the flourishing of celebrity and charismatic conservation is part of an ever closer intertwining of conservation and corporate capitalism Celebrity promotions the investments of rich executives and the wealthy social networks of charismatic conservationists are producing more commodified and commercial conservation strategies conservation becomes an ever more important means of generating profit Celebrity and the Environment provides vital critical analysis of this new phenomena and argues that ironically there may be a hidden cost to celebrity power to individual s relationships with the wild The author argues that whilst wildlife television documentaries flourish there is a significant decline in visits to national parks in many countries around the world and this is evidence that t a time when conservationists are calling for us to restore our relationships with the wild many people are doing so simply by following the exploits of celebrity conservationists Violence: 'Mercurial Gestalt' , 2008-01-01 One afternoon a patient who had been in three times weekly psychotherapy left my office after her session drove down to the train tracks half a mile from my office and sat down facing an oncoming train This tragic event opens the essay by psychoanalyst Susanne Chassay who explores the relationship between private and political terrorism Her viewpoint complements analyses of violence that mercurial gestalt by other contributors to this collection derived from a 2003 Cultures of Violence conference held at St Catherine s College Oxford organized by the Inter disciplinary Net From fields as diverse as philosophy sociology psychology history political science literary criticism and forensics authors consider for instance hostility to European minorities military training and torture the endemic violence aesthetically recorded by Haitian novelists child abuse in film female genital mutilation in fiction or the massacre of Koreans during the 1923 Japanese earthquake Violence in contact zones in Northern Ireland or in the memory of South African museum directors trying to comply with Truth and Reconciliation Commission mandates is also an object of scrutiny here Finally that vexed primordial issue of violence nature or nurture is probed

Born to Be King Catherine Mayer, 2015-02-17 A provocative surprising and utterly fresh portrait of Charles Prince of Wales He is one of the world s most fascinating and least understood figures now sixty six Prince Charles has spent his entire life preparing to be king while insisting on being his own man In this brilliant portrait he emerges as a complex character driven by a painful past a questing intellect and a powerful impulse not only to reshape the monarchy but to use the long wait for the throne to work toward high ideals Based on exclusive interviews with members of Charles s inner circle and on rare access to the Prince himself this revelatory biography takes us deep into the royal sphere a world of its own that Catherine Mayer calls Planet Windsor and shows us the skullduggery and unintentional comedy of court life At the same time it provides a clear eyed view of Charles s struggles and his achievements as a philanthropist and activist The book also offers a fundamental reappraisal of one of the most documented episodes in modern history his marriage to Diana The reality as with many aspects of the Prince s story is more gripping and more poignant than we knew Now closer than ever to achieving happiness the Prince is still far from settled He remains committed to bringing about social and political change but in aiming to be a king of hearts he often creates heartache for himself and others Born to Be King explains how and why Charles may redefine the role of the sovereign even as it reveals the astonishing extent to which the Prince has already left his mark on the world

Where on Earth is Heaven? Jonathan Stedall,2014-08-25 Jonathan Stedall explores challenging questions about living and dying looking and seeing heaven and earth and our human potential He draws on forty years film making experience largely at the BBC working with inspired artists scientists and writers like John Betjeman Laurens van der Post Fritz Schumacher Bernard Lovell Malcolm Muggeridge Alan Bennett Fritjof Capra Cecil Collins Ben Okri and Mark Tully

Anthropology and the Bushman Alan Barnard,2007-04-01 The Bushman is a perennial but changing image The transformation of that image is important It symbolizes the perception of Bushman or San society of the ideas and values of ethnographers who have worked with Bushman peoples and those of other anthropologists who use this work Anthropology and the Bushman covers early travellers and settlers classic nineteenth and twentieth century ethnographers North American and Japanese ecological traditions the approaches of African ethnographers and recent work on advocacy and social development It reveals the impact of Bushman studies on anthropology and on the public The book highlights how Bushman or San ethnography has contributed to anthropological controversy for example in the debates on the degree of incorporation of San society within the wider political economy and on the validity of the case for indigenous rights as a special kind of human rights Examining the changing image of the Bushman Barnard provides a new contribution to an established anthropology debate A PDF version of this book is available for free in open access via the OAPEN Library platform www.oapen.org

Beyond Hostile Islands Daniel McKay,2024-04-02 WINNER JAVIER COY BIENNIAL RESEARCH AWARD BEST MONOGRAPH Offers a fascinating window into how the fraught politics of apology in the East Asian region have been figured in anglophone literary fiction The Pacific War 1941 1945 was fought across the world s largest ocean and left a lasting imprint on anglophone literary history However studies of that imprint or of individual authors have focused on American literature without drawing connections to parallel traditions elsewhere Beyond Hostile Islands contributes to ongoing efforts by Australasian scholars to place their national cultures in conversation with those of the United States particularly regarding studies of the ideologies that legitimize warfare Consecutively the book examines five of the most significant historical and thematic areas associated with the war island combat economic competition internment imprisonment and the atomic bombing of Hiroshima and Nagasaki Throughout the central issue pivots around the question of how or whether at all New Zealand fiction writing differs from that of the United States Can a sense of islandness the tyranny of distance Mori cultural heritage or the political legacies of the nuclear free movement provide grounds for distinctive authorial insights As an opening gambit Beyond Hostile Islands puts forward the term ideological coproduction to describe how a territorially and demographically more minor national culture may accede to the essentials of a given ideology while differing in aspects that reflect historical and provincial dimensions that are important to it Appropriately the literary texts under examination are set in various locales including Japan the Solomon Islands New Zealand New Mexico Ontario and the Marshall Islands The book concludes in a deliberately open ended pose with the full expectation that literary writing on the Pacific War will grow in range and richness aided by the growth of Pacific Studies as a research area

Deciphering Ancient Minds: The Mystery of San Bushmen Rock Art David Lewis-Williams, Sam Challis, 2011-06-01 Goes to the heart of contemporary arguments about the primitive and the modern minds and draws new social anthropological and ethnographic conclusions about the nature of ancient societies How did ancient peoples those living before written records think Were their thinking patterns fundamentally different from ours today Researchers over the years have certainly believed so Along with the Aborigines of Australia the indigenous San people of southern Africa among the last hunter gatherer societies on Earth became iconic representatives of all our distant ancestors and were viewed as either irrational fantasists or childlike highly spiritual conservationists Since the 1960s a new wave of research among the San and their world famous rock art has overturned these misconceived ideas Here the great authority David Lewis Williams and his colleague Sam Challis reveal how analysis of the rock paintings and engravings can be made to yield vital insights into San beliefs and ways of thought This is possible because we possess comprehensive transcriptions made in the nineteenth century of interviews with San informants who were shown copies of the art and gave their interpretations of it Using the analogy of the Rosetta Stone the authors move back and forth between these San texts and the rock art teasing out the subtle meanings behind both The picture that emerges is very different from past analysis this art is not a naive narrative of daily life but rather is imbued with power and religious depth
