

The background is a 3x3 grid. The top-left cell shows a man sitting under a tree next to a thatched hut. The top-right cell shows a man herding goats in a field. The middle-left cell is solid yellow. The middle-right cell is solid green. The bottom-left cell shows a man running with a cow. The bottom-right cell shows a woman carrying a basket on her head. The center cell, where the title is located, is a collage of a blue sky, a sunset over water, and a savanna landscape.

Storytime in Africa Carolyn Stuyvesant, 1986 Storytime in Africa Carolyn Stuyvesant, 1987 Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1972 Libraries, Literacy, and African American Youth Sandra Hughes-Hassell, Pauletta Brown Bracy, Casey H. Rawson, 2016-10-31 This important book is a call to action for the library community to address the literacy and life outcome gaps impacting African American youth. It provides strategies that enable school and public librarians to transform their services programs and collections to be more responsive to the literacy strengths, experiences, and needs of African American youth. According to National Assessment of Educational Progress (NEAP), only 18 percent of African American fourth graders and 17 percent of African American eighth graders performed at or above proficiency in reading in 2013. This book draws on research from various academic fields to explore the issues surrounding African American literacy and to aid in developing culturally responsive school and library programs with the goal of helping to close the achievement gap and improve the quality of life for African American youth. The book merges the work of its three authors along with the findings of other researchers and practitioners, highlighting exemplary programs such as the award-winning Pearl Bailey Library Program, the Maker Jawn initiative at the Free Library of Philadelphia, and the Blue Ribbon Mentor Advocate writing institute in the Chapel Hill-Carrboro City Schools, among others. Readers will understand how these culturally responsive programs put theory and research-based best practices into local action and see how to adapt them to meet the needs of their communities.

Catalog of the Melville J. Herskovits Library of African Studies, Northwestern University Library (Evanston, Illinois) and Africana in Selected Libraries Melville J. Herskovits Library of African Studies, 1972 A Companion to African Literatures Olakunle George, 2021-03-22 Rediscover the diversity of modern African literatures with this authoritative resource edited by a leader in the field. How have African literatures unfolded in their rich diversity in our modern era of decolonization, nationalisms, and extensive transnational movement of peoples? How have African writers engaged urgent questions regarding race, nation, ethnicity, gender, and sexuality? And how do African literary genres interrelate with traditional oral forms or audio-visual and digital media? A Companion to African Literatures addresses these issues and many more. Consisting of essays by distinguished scholars and emerging leaders in the field, this book offers rigorous, deeply engaging discussions of African literatures on the continent and in diaspora. It covers the four main geographical regions: East and Central Africa, North Africa, Southern Africa, and West Africa, presenting ample material to learn from and think with. A Companion To African Literatures is divided into five parts. The first four cover different regions of the continent, while the fifth part considers conceptual issues and newer directions of inquiry. Chapters focus on literatures in European languages officially used in Africa: English, French, and Portuguese, as well as homegrown African languages: Afrikaans, Amharic, Arabic, Swahili, and Yoruba. With its lineup of lucid and authoritative analyses, readers will find in A Companion to African Literatures a distinctive, rewarding academic resource Perfect for undergraduate and graduate students in literary studies programs with an African focus A Companion to African Literatures will also earn a place in the libraries of teachers researchers and professors who wish to strengthen their background in the study of African literatures

Using Cooperative Efforts Between the African American Church and Local Public Libraries to Expand the Use of Library Services by African Americans Urbana Free Library. Urban School Improvement Project,1992 The intent of this project was to explore the following ideas through a group of experimental programs to determine their impact on the usage of local public libraries by African American patrons Is the African American church a viable liaison through which to increase local library usage by the African American community How can local libraries improve their services to better meet the needs and interests of the African American community What cost effective programs and services can libraries develop on an on going basis using existing funding to continue to serve the African American community after the project has concluded

Eastern African Literatures Russell West-Pavlov,2018-06-04 The Oxford Studies in Postcolonial Literatures series offers stimulating and accessible introductions to definitive topics and key genres and regions within the rapidly diversifying field of postcolonial literary studies in English This volume offers an overview of contemporary Eastern African writing in English since the mid twentieth century It takes a fresh look at what has been an under represented regional literary tradition within what continues to be an under represented continental literary tradition In particular it broadens the scope of such an overview complementing the extant monographs on well known Eastern African writers such as Ng g to include a host of more recent less publicized novelists dramatists and poets It extends the geographical range of existing studies from the familiar triad of Kenyan Ugandan and Tanzanian traditions of writing in English to include the lesser known Somali Ethiopian or Sudanese or Mauritian or Madagascan traditions Rather than simply addressing national traditions or broad thematic bundles the volume treats works as literatures of a region that is as literatures of place and space Eastern African Literatures stresses the formative role of space place and geography in fashioning the fabric of social interaction whether individual or collective in generating history in moulding identities and as a consequence in defining the shape of the future The spatial perspectives allow the proximate rather than the distant influence of literary art to come into view Proximate modes of literary communication arising out of residual but vibrant traditions of oral communication blend with contemporary media to produce hybrid genres of proximity specific to Eastern African literary production In this way the book also makes a contribution to the ongoing theorization of literary and cultural innovation in the cultures of the Global South
