Lovell, 2011-05-09 The New York Times bestseller Every page is filled with revelations gossip and fascinating details about Markham Diane Ackerman The New York Times Book Review Born in England and raised in Kenya Beryl Markham was a notorious beauty She trained race horses and had scandalous affairs but she is most remembered for being a pioneering aviatrix She became the first woman to cross the Atlantic Ocean and the first person to make it from London to New York nonstop In Mary S Lovell s definitive biography Beryl takes on new life vividly portrayed by a master biographer whose knowledge of her subject is unparalleled Seductress Betsy Prioleau, 2004-10-26 In this road map to restoring feminine sexual power Betsy Prioleau introduces and analyzes the stories and stratagems of history s greatest seductresses These are the women who ravished the world from such classic figures as Cleopatra and Mae West to such lesser known women as the infamous Violet Gordon Woodhouse who lived in a ménage with four men Smarts imagination courage and killer charm helped these love maestras claim the men of their choice and keep them fascinated for life Through an expos of their secrets Seductress provides an authoritative empowering guide to erotic sovereignty

Memoir Ethics Mike W. Martin, 2016-02-10 Memoir Ethics Good Lives and the Virtues is a philosophical study of moral themes in memoirs exploring how memoirists present and defend perspectives on good lives It pays particular attention to the interplay of the virtues including their interplay with additional non moral types of values in good lives More generally it explores the relevance of memoir to moral philosophy and in turn how moral philosophy enters into elucidating and critiquing memoirs Memoirs are understood as non fiction narratives written by oneself and significantly about oneself including full life autobiographies Mike W Martin explores perspectives on good lives as they are expressed in memoirs written by both philosophers and non philosophers Most of the chapters focus on one of the generic aspects of good lives moral goodness authenticity meaningfulness happiness health and self fulfillment The book clarifies how memoirists often employ life based arguments in defending value perspectives and it includes a discussion of whether philosophers memoirs are distinctive compared to memoirs by non philosophers and also compared to other forums for doing philosophy Martin highlights some parallels between features of good lives and features of memoirs for example both can be said to be meaningful authentic and having virtues such as wisdom and courage Demonstrating how memoirs are rich resources in exploring the good lives and exploring ways in which philosophical ethics provide tools for interpreting memoirs Memoir Ethics will be of interest to a broad audience of students scholars and general readers including anyone interested in ethics or the connections between literature and philosophy Uncredited Allison Tyra,2025-05-06 Containing the histories of over 600 overlooked or disregarded women Uncredited is a testament to women s perseverance and the recognition they deserve for their accomplishments Women s accomplishments across history are showcased as aberrations or surprising facts Little thought is often given to the reasons why most of our lauded scientists reporters sports stars politicians and businesspeople all seem to be men Uncredited proves that not only have there been hundreds of ground breaking women in all professions but that their accomplishments have been overlooked denigrated or downright repressed by their male colleagues or historians Uncredited explores why women have not been properly acknowledged for their accomplishments both historically and today This book combines research and statistics with the stories of more than 600 women and is both an academic source and a fascinating read Prepare to be frustrated with the history you ve been denied but also inspired by these hidden trailblazers Developing an Outstanding Core Collection Carol Alabaster,2010-02-26 Carol Alabaster focuses on developing a collection with high quality materials while saving time and money Hutch Charlotte Breese,2012-01-16 The vivid true story of one of the biggest stars in Britain during the 1920s and 30s and the inspiration for Downton Abbey s Jack Ross Born in Grenada in 1900 Leslie Hutch Hutchinson went to America in 1916 to study medicine but soon escaped to Harlem where he witnessed the birth of stride jazz piano and began playing and singing in bars himself Moving to France in 1923 he became the protege and lover of Cole Porter before coming to London where he was soon topping the bills in variety and on radio Immaculate in white tie and tails Hutch had enormous sex appeal his velvet voice and superb piano improvisation attracting legions of fans including the then Prince of Wales and most famously Edwina Mountbatten Despite his success Hutch was a profoundly insecure man with insatiable appetites for sex drink gambling and social status which precipitated his fall from fame to a squalid existence by the late 1960s The souls of white folk Brett Shadle,2015-05-01 Kenya s white settlers have been alternately celebrated and condemned painted as romantic pioneers or hedonistic bed hoppers or crude racists The souls of white folk examines settlers not as caricatures but as people inhabiting a unique historical moment It takes seriously though not uncritically what settlers said how they viewed themselves and their world It argues that the settler soul was composed of a series of interlaced ideas settlers equated civilisation with a hard to define whiteness they were emotionally enriched through claims to paternalism and trusteeship over Africans they felt themselves constantly threatened by Africans by the state and by the moral failures of other settlers and they daily enacted their claims to supremacy through rituals of prestige deference humiliation and violence The souls of white folk will appeal to those interested in the histories of Africa colonialism and race and can be appreciated by scholars and students alike

European Women and the Second British Empire Margaret Strobel,1991-05-22 It enhances our understanding of intracultural and cross cultural relationships and raises significant questions about the complexities of the colonial phenomenon in the modern era Journal of World History Provides a powerful and important analysis foregrounding the ideological construction of whiteness in understandings of gender and sexuality Margaret Strobel manages to provide a convincing analysis of the contradictory and often challenging space occupied by European women in the project of empire Signs Strobel is to be highly commended for an historical analysis that brings critical light to bear on the complex interactions of gender race and class that have shadowed both European men's and women's participation in colonialism Women and Politics a clear exposition and synthesis In this useful introduction to a new field Strobel lays out clearly the arguments on which it is built Her book makes it possible to acquaint students with the initial array of scholarship that is already growing She also demonstrates that rewriting an imperial history that is sensitive to gender culture race sexuality and power is an exhilarating enterprise American Historical Review Based on the published accounts of travelers and officials wives biographies and other materials this is a lively fast paced account of the roles of white women in the British empire from about 1880 to the recent past The European women of the second British empire carved out a space for themselves amid the options made available to them by British expansion but they too were treated as inferiors the inferior sex within the superior race

Heart Shots Mary Zeiss Stange, 2003 This anthology brings to light writing by women hunters past and present

Gardening Without Gloves Roger Ladd Memmott, 2011-10-08 A Gemstone Book Trade Paperback 194 pages What comes of Gardening without Gloves Read each of the twelve stories in this volume to find answers that you wouldn't expect On one level Memmott's book is an excursion into the psychology of love while on another level it voices the despair of love and relationships misunderstood One story shows this weathered visage and another one that The characters in their own dangerous and diametrical ways are overcome by the elusive and sometimes disillusioning expectations of love Flawed by misapprehension they are often left bereaved puzzling only the ambiguities of love or what they thought was love and how it slipped away Excellent storytelling executed with taste and style Writer's Digest

A Rage to Live: A Biography of Richard and Isabel Burton Mary S. Lovell, 2000-07-17 An extraordinary biography New York Times Book Review of a brilliant pair of adventurers Their marriage was both improbable and inevitable Isabel Arundell was a schoolgirl the scion of England's most distinguished Catholic family When she first saw him while walking at a seaside resort Richard Burton had already made his mark as a linguist he was fluent in twenty nine languages scholar soldier and explorer at once a symbol of Victorian England's vision of empire and an avowed rebel against its mores When she turned and saw him staring after her she decided that she would marry him By their next meeting Burton had become the first infidel to infiltrate Mecca as one of the faithful and in an expedition to discover the source of the Nile would soon be the first white man to see Lake Tanganyika After being married the Burtons traveled and experienced the world from diplomatic postings in Brazil and Africa to hair raising adventures in the Syrian desert In later life Richard courted further controversy as a self proclaimed erotologist and the translator of The Kama Sutra Based on previously unavailable archives Mary Lovell has written a compelling joint biography that sets Isabel in her proper place as Burton s equal in daring and endurance a fascinating figure in her own right A Rage to Live Mary S. Lovell,2000 Describes the accomplishments of the British explorer and scholar and the relationship between him and his unconventional wife Contemporary Authors Donna Olendorf,1993-08 Your students and users will find biographical information on approximately 300 modern writers in this volume of Contemporary Authors R Aviation in the Literature and Culture of Interwar Britain Michael McCluskey,Luke Seaber,2020-12-01 Aviation in the Literature and Culture of Interwar Britain looks at the impact of aviation in Britain and beyond through the 1920s and 1930s This book considers how in this period flying went from a weapon of war to an extensive industry that included civilian air travel air mail delivery flying shows and campaigns to create air-mindedness Essays look at these developments through the work of writers filmmakers and flyers and examines the air-minded modernism that marked this radical period Its fourteen chapters include studies of texts by Virginia Woolf George Orwell Elizabeth Bowen W H Auden T H White and John Masefield accounts of the annual RAF Display at Hendon and the Schneider Trophy and the achievements of celebrity flyers such as Amy Johnson This collection provides a fresh perspective on the interwar period by bringing analysis of aviation and air-mindedness to the study of British literature history modernism mobilities and the history of technology and transportation They Came from Away David,2010-05-11 Though only a small island on the edge of a vast continent Cape Breton has impressed its distinctive identity on the Canadian scene This story is of some of the Yanks and Brits who like the authors came from away They include adventurers and disbanded soldiers entrepreneurs and hucksters worthies and criminals who have in their own diverse ways added to Cape Breton s colourful history

Confessions of a Serial Biographer Carl Rollyson,2016-03-09 Some critics rank biographers just above serial murderers The author of this book a self-described member of the Samuel Johnson school doesn t share this view An account of a life he believes should adhere to the truth as the biographer sees it not to the sentiments of others This memoir of a professional biographer s life tells the inside story of how he became interested in his subjects and reveals the mechanics of the trade how to assemble proposals for publishers conduct interviews and archival research and joust with editors subjects and their literary estates Other biographers have described their process but remained discrete not wishing to offend their sources and supporters This author has forgone such caution From Selma to Sorrow Mary Stanton,2000-09-01 Extensive and meticulous research marks the first full length look at the life murder and legacy of Viola Liuzzo a civil rights worker murdered by the Klan in 1965 whose memory was defamed by J Edgar Hoover and the FBI UP Elsbeth Huxley C.S. Nicholls,2003-07-28 A portrait of the conservationist and chronicler of colonial Kenya describes her childhood in east Africa and wartime Britain marriage to Thomas Huxley roles as a farmer writer and government advisor
