Strange Attraction:

The Strange Attraction Jane Mander, 1922 Baffling Tourist Attractions Marcus Blackwell, AI, 2025-02-12 Baffling Tourist Attractions explores the world of unusual tourism diving into why people are drawn to bizarre and quirky destinations The book investigates attractions that defy traditional expectations examining the cultural historical and psychological factors that make them so captivating From giant balls of twine to museums of broken relationships it seeks to understand our fascination with the odd and unexpected The book is structured to explore the historical origins of bizarre tourism tracing how travelers have long sought out unusual sights It delves into the psychology behind these attractions examining how they fulfill our desire for novelty and authentic experiences It also considers the economic and social impact of these attractions on local communities highlighting their role in revitalizing economies and promoting cultural preservation Ultimately the book argues that these baffling attractions serve a vital function by reminding us that history includes the strange and unexpected It adopts a narrative non fiction style balancing scholarly research with engaging storytelling

Val Strange. A Story of the Primrose Way David Christie Murray, 1883 The Strange Attraction Jane Mander, 194? The Long Journey to the Fair Radka Yakimov, 2018-03-01 The Long Journey to the Fair is a book about the consequences of wars oppressive totalitarian regimes intolerance and prejudice The stories told are of people whose lives had been impacted by these historical events and attitudes and their search for a place of safety peace and security It describes the meandering journey of generations of Armenian and Jewish families the travails of Eastern Europeans and the Italian family after WWII and the bonds created by their common destinies Forbidden Friendship Mike Groft, 2022-08-05 Groft_Mike_907437 The close camaraderie of two boysaEURof different racesaEURis rudely interrupted by the Civil War Family circumstances beyond their control interfere and separate them from their boyhood homes in North Carolina Their shared memories are the only connection to whichA they can clingaEURmemories of a much happier time and a much simpler life for both families and friendships Forbidden Friendship shows how a series of miracles disguised as actual events guide both boys who are now young men to an unexpected rendezvous A Speculations of War Annette M.

Magid, 2021-03-01 Late 19th century science fiction stories and utopian treatises related to morals and attitudes often focused on economic sociological and at times Marxist ideas More than a century later science fiction commonly depicts the inherent dangers of capitalism and imperialism Examining a variety of conflicts from the Civil War through the post 9 11 era this collection of new essays explores philosophical introspection and futuristic forecasting in science fiction fantasy utopian literature and film with a focus on the warlike nature of humanity Punishing the Mentally Ill Bruce A.

Arrigo, 2012-02-01 A powerful sophisticated and original critique on how the disciplines of law and psychiatry behave and on how the mental health and justice systems operate Punishing the Mentally Ill reveals where how and why the identity and humanity of persons with psychiatric disorders are consciously and unconsciously denied Author Bruce A Arrigo contends that despite periodic and well intentioned efforts at reform the current law psychiatry system functions to punish the mentally ill for being different The book synthesizes a wide range of mainstream and critical literature in sociology law philosophy history psychology and psychoanalysis to establish a new theory of punishment at the law psychiatry divide To situate the analysis enduring psycholegal issues are explored including the meaning of mental illness definitions and predictions of dangerousness the ethics of advocacy the right to community based treatment the logic of forensic courtroom verdicts transcarceration and the execution of mentally disordered offenders among others Punishing the Mentally Ill shows that current mental disability law research programming and policy are seriously flawed and that wholesale reform is necessary if the goals of citizen justice social well being and humanism are to be realized The Souvenir Isaac Wescott, 1848 Contains historical tales historical and biographical sketches antiquarian researches poetry and general miscellany Chambers's Journal of Popular Literature, Science and Arts, 1882 Chamber's Journal of Popular Literature, Science and Arts, 1882 Steven Sockeye Salmon Chuck Fair, 2005-09 Life's greatest odyssey to the sea and back Divine Action, Determinism, and the Laws of Nature Jeffrey Koperski, 2019-11-28 A longstanding question at the intersection of science philosophy and theology is how God might act or not when governing the universe Many believe that determinism would prevent God from acting at all since to do so would require violating the laws of nature However when a robust view of these laws is coupled with the kind of determinism now used in dynamics a new model of divine action emerges This book presents a new approach to divine action beyond the current focus on quantum mechanics and esoteric gaps in the causal order It bases this approach on two general points First that there are laws of nature is not merely a metaphor Second laws and physical determinism are now understood in mathematically precise ways that have important implications for metaphysics The explication of these two claims shows not only that nonviolationist divine action is possible but there is considerably more freedom available for God to act than current models allow By bringing a philosophical perspective to an issue often dominated by theologians and scientists this text redresses an imbalance in the discussion around divine action It will therefore be of keen interest to scholars of Philosophy and Religion the Philosophy of Science and Theology Climate Dennis Kloeck, 2010-12 13 lectures various cities and reports 1907 1923 CW 284 Rosicrucianism was central in Steiner's life any close reading of which makes it clear that the spiritual school radiating from the being and personality of Christian Rosenkreutz provided the substance and guiding principles of his teaching and mission Furthermore between the lines evidence suggests that Rudolf Steiner was actually initiated into this school and given the task of revealing it publicly by Christian Rosenkreutz himself Christopher Bamford Unnoticed by most people at the time a significant moment in spiritual history took place at Whitsun Pentecost in Munich in 1907 Known as the Congress of the Federation of European Sections of the Theosophical Society this event witnessed Rudolf Steiner's emergence onto the public stage as an independent esoteric Christian spiritual teacher with a world mission to transform planetary culture through what would come to be called Anthroposophy The event and hence Anthroposophy itself was placed under the sign of Christian Rosenkreutz and the cultural impulse of Rosicrucianism which since its initial appearance in the early seventeenth century had gone underground to be transmitted through the centuries by small more or less hidden esoteric groups In the Congress however the original aim of the movement a general reform of human society through the unity of art science and religion was proclaimed anew and with the firm intent to put it into practice This volume thus marks not only the birth of Anthroposophy as a spiritual movement of cultural renewal from which would flow new initiatives in art science religion education agriculture medicine architecture and drama but also the articulation of this activity as the evolutionary tip of human consciousness reaching back to the primordial mystery centers Collected here with Steiner's lectures and descriptions are essays and reports on the Theosophical Congress of Whitsun 1907 as well as documents relating to some of the direct consequences of the Congress especially those leading to the design and construction of the first Goetheanum An extensive color section of facsimiles photographs and plates includes the esoteric and symbolic artistic work the seals and columns created for the congress hall This Collected Works edition contains an introduction illustrations a chronology of Rudolf Steiner's life editorial notes and an index Rosicrucianism Renewed is a translation of Bilder okkultes Siegel und S ulen Der M nchner Kongress Pfingsten 1907 und seine Auswirkungen GA 284 Associationism and the Literary Imagination Craig Cairns Craig, 2020-03-31 Associationism and the Literary Imagination traces the influence of empirical philosophy and associationist psychology on theories of literary creativity and on the experience of reading literature It runs from David Hume's Treatise of Human Nature in 1739 to the works of major literary critics of the twentieth century such as I A Richards W K Wimsatt and Northrop Frye Cairns Craig explores the ways in which associationist conceptions of literature gave rise to some of the key transformations in British writing between the romantic and modernist periods In particular he analyses the ways in which authors' conceptions of the form of their readers' aesthetic experience led to radical developments in literary style from the fragmentary narrative of Sterne's Tristram Shandy in 1760 to Virginia Woolf's experiments in the rendering of characters' consciousness in the 1920s and from Wordsworth's poetic use of autobiography to J G Frazer's exploration of a mythic unconscious in The Golden Bough Detailed analyses are offered of the ways in which a wide variety of major British writers including Scott Lady Morgan Dickens Tennyson Hardy Yeats Joyce and Woolf developed their literary techniques on the basis of associationist conceptions of the mind and of how modern literary criticism from Arthur Symonds to Roland Barthes is founded on associationist principles Associationism and the Literary Imagination relocates the traditions of British writing since the eighteenth century within the neglected context of its native empirical philosophy and reveals how many of the issues assumed to be products of postmodern or deconstructive theory have long been foregrounded and debated within the traditions of British empiricism This is a work which provides a radical new perspective on the history of literature in Britain and Ireland and challenges many of the assumptions of contemporary theoretical debate about the The

Contemporary Review ,1868 Theology that Matters Darby Kathleen Ray, What difference does theological thinking make Does Christianity have any relevance for our secular globalized environmentally threatened world Specifically formulated for undergraduate and seminary courses in theology this volume answers a resounding yes Gathering many respected and original Christian thinkers who have been inspired by the example and work of theologian Sallie McFague this book engages such topics as God Christ revelation eschatology and church in three intertwined and pressing areas 1 our religious life and language in a secularized pluralistic society 2 our newly globalized economic life and 3 our threatened environmental life The Face of the Deep Catherine Keller,2003-12-16 This is a groundbreaking highly original work of postmodern feminist theology from one of the most important authors in the field The Face of the Deep deconstructs the Christian doctrine of creation which claims that a transcendent Lord unilaterally created the universe out of nothing Catherine Keller s impassioned graceful meditation develops an alternative representation of the cosmic creative process drawing upon Hebrew myths of creation from chaos and engaging with the political and the mystical the literary and the scientific the sexual and the racial As a landmark work of immense significance for Jewish and Christian theology gender studies literature philosophy and ecology The Face of the Deep takes our originary story to a new horizon rewriting the starting point for Western spiritual discourse Poetry and Animals Onno Oerlemans,2018-03-06 Why do poets write about animals What can poetry do for animals and what can animals do for poetry In some cases poetry inscribes meaning on animals turning them into symbols or caricatures and bringing them into the confines of human culture It also reveals and revels in the complexity of animals Poetry through its great variety and its inherently experimental nature has embraced the multifaceted nature of animals to cross blur and reimagine the boundaries between human and animal In Poetry and Animals Onno Oerlemans explores a broad range of English language poetry about animals from the Middle Ages to the contemporary world He presents a taxonomy of kinds of animal poems breaking down the categories and binary oppositions at the root of human thinking about animals The book considers several different types of poetry allegorical poems poems about the animal broadly conceived poems about species of animal poems about individual animals or the animal as individual and poems about hybrids and hybridity Through careful readings of dozens of poems that reveal generous and often sympathetic approaches to recognizing and valuing animals difference and similarity Oerlemans demonstrates how the forms and modes of poetry can sensitize us to the moral standing of animals and give us new ways to think through the problems of the human animal divide An Epilogue for Eleanor Prudence Thayer,2013 A faceless man often appears in Eleanor s dreams He passionately engages her carrying her into worlds unknown speaking softly and making her feel beautiful inside and out In her dreams she is loved But in everyday life Eleanor has been wounded by date rape and the pitfalls of teenage love In everyday life the free spirited Eleanor is also trapped by the perfect ideals of the church trapped by what is right and proper and who is higher While trying to find solace and peace through doing all the right things Eleanor lost herself She married

Mr Wrong twice She gave her life to the church only to be cast away and labeled unworthy Throughout it all the faceless man gives comfort and solace But Eleanor longs for more than a faceless dream She longs for more than a church that tosses away people like trash She longs for more than rolling over in the morning to find the dream gone and the pain of everyday laughing at the end of the bed And deep down inside Eleanor wonders what happened to the carefree Eleanor of days gone by Join Eleanor as she searches for something more than the dream something more than the emptiness as she searches for happiness
