Liberty Means Freedom for All Steven H. Propp, 2012-11 Thomas Anderson has just graduated from CSU Stentoria with his degree in Political Science. It's an election year, and as a young progressive in California who has been raised by equally progressive parents, he is very much concerned with the political issues currently being discussed in the mass media. A chance encounter with a fellow graduate named Kelly Kelso, however, shakes up his settled view of the world. He is challenged to examine the rising number of alternatives to the two-party system presented by third-party movements such as the Libertarian Party and the Green Party, and is forced to acknowledge that there is far more to politics than simply Democrat versus Republican and liberal versus conservative. Thomas delves energetically into not only the growing Libertarian movement but the free market perspective of the Austrian School of economics, as well as the rigid yet compelling view of Ayn Rand's philosophy of Objectivism. His explorations grow wider, now encompassing the Tea Party movement, the Christian Right, tax resisters, and gun rights advocates, survivalists, and militia members, anarchists, communists, and Democratic Socialists, as well as the Occupy Wall Street movement. He debates the radical environmental views of animal welfare and animal rights advocates and challenges opponents of corporate globalism, as well as deniers of global warming, as he struggles to reformulate and articulate his own developing beliefs while coping with a sea of conflicting ideas and opposition. But this abstract political theory is brought into sharp encounter with concrete political reality when Thomas hears a news report of an armed conflict with authorities taking place just outside of town involving someone with whom he has become emotionally involved.

The Destructionists Dana Milbank, 2023-10-31 NEW YORK TIMES BEST SELLER A scalding history of twenty-five years of Republican attempts to hold on to political power by any means necessary, by a hugely popular Washington Post political columnist. In 1994, more than 300 Republicans, under the command of obstructionist and rabble rouser Congressman Newt Gingrich, stood outside the U.S. Capitol to sign the Contract with America and put bipartisanship on notice. Twenty-five years later, on January 6, 2021, a bloodthirsty mob incited by President Trump invaded the Capitol. Dana Milbank sees a clear line from the Contract with America to the coup attempt. In the quarter century in between Americans have witnessed the crackup of the party of Lincoln and Reagan to its current iteration as a haven for white supremacists political violence conspiracy theories and authoritarianism Following the questionable careers of party heavyweights Newt Gingrich Karl Rove Mitch McConnell and Rudy Giuliani and those of many lesser known lowlights Millbank recounts the shocking lengths the Republican Party has gone to to maintain its grip on the American people
