The Gilded Age and Dawn of the Modern Jeffrey H. Hacker, 2014-11-20. The Gilded Age and Dawn of the Modern, 1877-1919, a new title in the six-title series History Through Literature: American Voices, American Themes, provides insights and analysis regarding the history, literature, and cultural climate of the Gilded Age and early twentieth century. It brings together informational text and primary documents that cover notable historic events and trends, authors' literary works, social movements, and cultural and artistic themes. The Gilded Age and Dawn of the Modern begins with an interdisciplinary chronology that identifies, defines, and places in context the notable historical events, literary works, authors' lives, and cultural landmarks of the period. This is followed by a comprehensive overview essay that summarizes the era's major historical trends, social movements, cultural and artistic themes, literary voices, and enduring works as reflections of each other and the spirit of the times. The core content comprises 20-30 articles on representative writers of the period, along with excerpts from essential literary works that highlight a historical theme, sociocultural movement, or the confluence of the two. These excerpts serve the Common Core emphasis on informational texts from a broad range of cultures and periods, including stories, drama, poetry, and literary nonfiction.

Odysseys of a Ghost Hunter Ronald Skora, 2020-08-04. Ghosts are everywhere. You merely need to know where to look. During the first odyssey, the ghost hunter finds a supposed haunted house in Grove Valley. A strange entity is discovered in the living room. Is the entity a ghost, spook, apparition, or spirit? In an inhabited ghost town, Fern Wood, the ghost hunter enters a curio shop, touches the top of a purple devil, and is sent to a planet named Wardrand, inhabited by intelligent rabbitlike creatures. What happens to the ghost hunter? The ghost hunter returns to Fern Wood with the method and instruments to detect and photograph a real ghost. The ghost hunter seeks places where past residents of Fern Wood have a high level of haunting. Is the ghost hunter successful? In a small mountain city, the ghost hunter meets priests from cathedrals of devil worship. An attempt is made to photograph the devilists' most holy and sacred red eight-pointed star. What happens to the ghost hunter?
