Transforming Preschool Storytime Betsy

Diamant-Cohen, Melanie A. Hetrick, 2013-06-18 According to recent research the best way to make new connections in a child's brain is by building on something already known. A child who loves a book will listen to it repeatedly maintaining interest. Using a selected book in a number of consecutive preschool storytimes but presenting it differently each time can help children learn new skill sets. This book presents a new approach to storytime one that employs repetition with variety to create an experience which helps children connect and engage with the story on a higher level. Diamant-Cohen recently awarded the 2013 ASCLA Leadership and Professional Achievement Award and Hetrick offers a year's worth of activities specifically designed to address multiple intelligences through a repetition-based process. Incorporating recent theories on developmental learning this book includes Scripts for 8 different books with enough activities to repeat each one for six weeks along with lists of optional alternative books. Planning aids such as outlines of storytime sessions a fill in the blanks planning sheet questions for evaluation and tips for enhanced storytimes using props and crafts. Detailed but straightforward explanations of theory and research that will help readers communicate effectively with parents caregivers and other stakeholders. From setup to execution here's everything you need to create and implement a successful elevated storytime.

Whisper in the Woods, 2002 Let Nature Be Your Teacher Helen M. Corveleyn, Louise Ammentorp, 2024-08-13 Let Nature Be Your Teacher Integrating Nature Based Learning in the Elementary Classroom advocates for a transformative shift in elementary education through incorporating nature based learning into the curriculum. In an era dominated by indoor education and heightened screen time Louise Ammentorp and Helen M Corveleyn respond to the urgent need to reconnect children with nature. This book aims to gray the boundary between indoor and outdoor learning bringing students outdoors as well as bringing nature inside. Supported by a growing body of research in a flourishing movement for nature based learning this book highlights ways to incorporate authentic experiences across content areas. Each chapter offers vetted lesson and activity ideas that can be adapted to any classroom. Let Nature Be Your Teacher aims to inspire educators parents and administrators and equip them with the tools and knowledge to prioritize nature based learning fostering a generation that values and protects our natural world.

Mentor Texts Rose Cappelli, 2023-10-10 In their first edition of Mentor Texts authors Lynne Dorfman and Rose Cappelli helped teachers across the country make the most of high quality children's literature in their writing instruction. Mentor Texts Teaching Writing Through Children's Literature K-6 2nd Edition the authors continue to show teachers how to help students become confident accomplished writers by using literature as their foundation. The second edition includes brand new Your Turn Lessons built around the gradual release of responsibility model offering suggestions for demonstrations and shared or guided writing. Reflection is emphasized as a necessary component to understanding why mentor authors chose certain strategies literary devices sentence structures and words. Dorfman and Cappelli offer new children's book titles in each chapter and in a carefully curated and annotated Treasure Chest. At the end of each chapter a Think About It sTalk About It sWrite About It section invites reflection and conversation with colleagues.

The book is organized around the characteristics of good writing focus content organization style and conventions The authors write in a friendly and conversational style employing numerous anecdotes to help teachers visualize the process and offer strategies that can be immediately implemented in the classroom This practical resource demonstrates the power of learning to read like writers The Everything Book for Child Care & Preschool, Ages 3 - 5 Gunzenhauser,2010-05-18
