Stranglehold on Africa René Dumont, Marie France Mottin, 1983 Monograph on obstacles to economic development in Africa South of Sahara examines responsibilities of developed countries increasing rural areas and urban areas poverty Zambia's copper based development policy leading to degraded environment formation of elites and bureaucracy Tanzania's socialism and Ujamaa village policy desertification in the Sahel and Cape Verde rural development neocolonialism etc outlines alternative economic and social development policies Bibliography Stranglehold on Africa René Dumont, 1983

Africa Catherine Coquery-Vidrovitch, 1988 Coquery Vidrovitch's book is not merely good it's marvellous It represents the finest product of the Annales tradition of structural history Immanuel Wallerstein Millennial Africa John S. Saul, 2001 Following his two widely read volumes of essays Saul projects his analysis of the economic and social structure of southern Africa in relation to the rest of the world forward into the new millennium Painstakingly confronting central questions related to the practice of war and peace and to the prospects for democracy and development throughout the continent Saul emphasises that the problems of Africa are continually shaped by its insertion in the global capitalist system and suggests that the struggle for socialism must be a part of the solution for contemporary Africa Neo-Africanism Papa Yalae, 2008 Neo Africanism The New Ideology for a New Africa is a vision of an African renaissance grounded in traditional African philosophies of social harmony and mutual interdependence The author calls for Africans to deconstruct the multiplicity of divisive and antagonistic political ideologies that have dominated Africa since the demise of colonialism and replace them with one harmonious and co-operative political ideology Neo Africanism a unified ideology grounded in the social harmony and interdependence that characterized traditional African life He shows how this ideology can be applied successfully to the politics economics education and health care of Africa and how it can help create a New Africa a reawakened peaceful and prosperous Africa highly regarded by all the nations of the world The book is aimed at students of African studies political science philosophy macroeconomics and international relations as well as the general population of Africans and the African political elite Both undergraduate and graduate students will find the book helpful because of the comprehensive analysis and solutions to problems in the important areas of a nation Unlike existing books Neo Africanism provides philosophical guidance that will empower the people of Africa to solve Africa's problems and to acquire the capability to create sustainable peace and prosperity Chinese Investment in Africa David N. Abdulai, 2016-11-03 China leads the world when it comes to investment and influence on the African continent The extent of Chinese investment in Africa is well known and much has been written about China's foray into Africa However most of the available material has approached this issue by looking at China as the New Colonialist more interested in Africa's vast natural resources than working in partnership for sustained development Whilst China's interest in Africa's resources is evident it is just half of the story China's foray into Africa goes beyond its appetite for natural resources and into the realm of geo-politics and international political economics For example

China is all too aware of how it can cultivate Africa's support on global issues at the United Nations and at other international fora. Breaking free from the binary arguments and analysis which characterize this topic, Professor Abdulai presents a refreshing perspective that China's foray into Africa can produce win-win outcomes for China and Africa if Africans really know what they want from China. Hitherto, each African country has tended to engage China with an individual bucket list acting in isolation and not as part of a wider continent. Indeed, Africa and the African Union does not yet have a coordinated policy towards China. For Africa to be able to do that, it needs to know where China is coming from, the factors that contributed to its awakening and success, and the benefits and possible pitfalls of this foray in order to better position itself for a win-win engagement with China. This book will be a valuable read for policy makers, think tanks, and students of Africa studies programmes alike.

The Fortunes of Africa Martin Meredith, 2014-10-14. A sweeping history of the fortune seekers, adventurers, despots, and thieves who have ruthlessly endeavored to extract gold, diamonds, and other treasures from Africa and its people. Africa has been coveted for its rich natural resources ever since the era of the Pharaohs. In past centuries, it was the lure of gold, ivory, and slaves that drew merchant adventurers and conquerors from afar. In modern times, the focus of attention is on oil, diamonds, and other rare earth minerals. In this vast and vivid panorama of history, Martin Meredith follows the fortunes of Africa over a period of 5,000 years. With compelling narrative, he traces the rise and fall of ancient kingdoms and empires, the spread of Christianity and Islam, the enduring quest for gold and other riches, the exploits of explorers and missionaries, and the impact of European colonization. He examines too the fate of modern African states and concludes with a glimpse of their future. His cast of characters includes religious leaders, mining magnates, warlords, dictators, and many other legendary figures among them Mansa Musa, ruler of the medieval Mali empire, said to be the richest man the world has ever known.

Contemporary Issues in Africa's Development Ehimika A. Ifidon, Richard A. Olaniyan, 2018-04-18. This volume reports on the state of crisis in Africa in the early twenty-first century. Africa, on the eve of the independence revolution, was the continent of hope and high expectations. By the third decade of independence, optimism had been replaced by dismay. African states had been beset by ethnic political squabbles, military rule, civil wars, Islamic and insurgent movements, extreme poverty, and disease. With the ascent of redemocratization in the 1990s and of new pan-Africanism derived from the formation of the African Union, Africa appeared set to claim its vaunted destiny. This book asks with hindsight to the first decade of the twenty-first century, how real was the renaissance in African life? If the dismal African condition is a phase in the historical development of Africa, this volume does not see any golden age in the past to which Africa aspires to return. There is clearly a continuation and persistence of crisis with an absence of good governance, personalisation of state power, widespread disease, and policy failure in education, economy, and infrastructural development. Although endowed with abundant human and natural resources, Africa remains the least developed and most indebted continent. Whither then the African Renaissance? The methodologies that underpin the contributions in this book are as diverse as the specialisations of the contributors The collection questions ideologically protected assumptions and presumptions presenting Africa as it is because it is only by knowing where Africa truly stands that a proper direction can be charted for it Re-centering Cultural Performance and Orange Economy in Post-colonial Africa Taiwo Afolabi,Olusola Ogunnubi,Shadrach Teryila Ukuma,2022-09-29 This book explores the role of national theatres national cultural centres cultural policy festivals and the film industry as creative and cultural performances hubs for exercising soft power and cultural diplomacy It shows how can existing cultural and non cultural infrastructures sometimes referred to as the Orange Economy open opportunities for diplomacy and soft power ways by which cultural performance and creative practice can be re centered in post colonial Africa and in post global pandemic era and existing structures that cultural performers diplomats administrators cultural entrepreneurs and managers can leverage to re enact cultural performance and creative practice on the continent This volume is positioned within postcolonial discourse to amplify narratives experiences and realities that are anti oppressive especially within critical discourse Towards Africa's Renewal Jeggan C. Senghor,2017-11-22 Africa still finds itself in the clutches of poverty and underdevelopment The expected benefits from economic restructuring have not been realized and the debt burden continues to weigh heavily on African economies constraining the possibilities of growth Problems that have existed since the 1960s remain and links with the global economy continue to increase but fall short of requirements Against this background it is not surprising that the vast majority of African states will not meet the Millennium Development Goals The search for political systems that can deliver development have been categorized by cynics as old wine in old bottles with new stickers As the dividends from globalization elude Africa in the 21st century it becomes clear that it is a series of failed states rogue states and even stateless states This volume brings together leading researchers and analysts to examine issues and identify policy options which can lead to renewal in Africa It provides an opportunity to reflect and offers a critical multidisciplinary appraisal of the future challenges facing Africa Africa and the New World Era J. Mangala,2010-12-12 Over the last decade there has been a shift toward a strategic view of Africa China and the US import much of their oil from Africa which is clearly emerging on the world stage as a strategic player Africa and the New World Era probes the importance and significance of this shift and its implications for Africa s international relations South Africa's Destabilisation of Zimbabwe, 1980-89 J. Dzimba,1998-01-01 South Africa s Apartheid regime saw Zimbabwean independence and black majority rule in 1980 as a major threat to its interests security and regional hegemony John Dzimba explains how and why Pretoria sought to destabilise Zimbabwe and other front line states examining the successes and failures of destabilisation against Zimbabwe s economic and political vulnerabilities and attempted responses He shows why P W Botha s crisis ridden regime had to drop the policy in 1989 Agricultural Commercialization And Government Policy In Africa J.J. Hinderink,2016-04-29 First published in 1987 This book is based on an analysis of relevant literature and on the results of field studies carried out over a number of years in Sub Saharan Africa These studies were part of a research programme on agricultural commercialization and rural development in Sub Saharan Africa and Southeast Asia undertaken by the Department of Geography of Developing Countries University of Utrecht The Precarious Balance Donald Rothchild, Naomi Chazan, 2019-06-26 Since independence the political institutions of many African states have undergone a process of consolidation and subsequent deterioration Constrained by external economic dependency and an acute scarcity of economic and technical resources state officials have demonstrated a diminished capacity to regulate their societies Public policies are agreed upon but ineffectively implemented by the weak institutions of the state Although scholars have analyzed the various facets of state building in detail little systematic attention has been given to the issue of the decline of the state and mechanisms to cope with state ineffectiveness in Africa This book focuses especially on the character of the postcolonial state in Africa the nature of and reasons for state deterioration and the mechanisms and policies for coping with state malfunction Scholars from Africa the United States Europe and the Middle East combine a broad understanding of African political processes with expertise on specific regions Their analytic and comparative perspective provides a comprehensive and timely treatment of this vital and heretofore neglected theme in African politics THE CONSPIRACY AGAINST AFRICA Charles Akujieze, 2023-09-23 The Conspiracy Against Africa unveils a resonating truth that echoes across borders With insightful precision the book navigates the intricate reasons behind Africa s ongoing economic challenges and subjugation Tracing the pages of history the narrative illuminates the complex interplay between the West and Africa Here Africa s path to prosperity is shackled by the West s unquenchable appetite for its resources This chokehold on Africa s raw materials keeps the global equilibrium but at what expense Unraveling layers of inefficiency ethical cracks and integrity gaps the book dissects Africa s relationship with the Western world It exposes vested interests that hold back progress with unyielding tenacity Yet within this stark analysis a call to arms resounds a rallying cry brimming with urgency and optimism inviting every African to reclaim their essence and dreams This stands as a pivotal turning point urging Africans to cast aside shadows that bind them seizing the reins of fate and forging a destiny that defies exploitation The Conspiracy Against Africa is more than a book it s an awakening an assertion of empowerment amidst suppression It lays bare truths long obscured inviting you on this narrative journey to reclaim Africa s story and usher in an era of empowerment justice and self determination Sorting Africa's Developmental Puzzle Almaz Zewde, 2010-06-02 Sorting Africa s Development Puzzle The Participatory Social Learning Theory as an Alternative Approach is a comprehensive exploration of why Africa has not managed to achieve a sustainable and self regenerating development over the past half century of effort The work situates the problems of Africa s persistent underdevelopment in the practices employed by national political elites donors and lenders to African development that played roles in determinant policy and planning Unlike many newly developed countries and regions and contrary to the historical experiences of developed countries where ordinary people were full stakeholders and drivers of development Africa s development has been top down expert and capital driven mechanical and typically externally designed Ordinary Africans were made marginal to development This approach to Africa s development was devoid of building the people and their institutions as the legitimate means of development The entrusting of Africa s development to local and international elites to the exclusion of the people from decision making and full participation has led to grievous deficits in the formation of human and social capital and legitimate economic social and political institutions for development The book offers a studied alternative that can positively change Africa s development direction The Participatory Social Learning Approach The philosophical theoretical historical and heuristic origins of this alternative are offered in detail within this book      State Building and Democratization in Africa Kidane

Mengisteab, Cyril K. Daddieh, 1999-01-30 State building and democratization in Africa rarely attract the attention they deserve Few have grappled with the relationship between state building nation building and democratic experiments in Africa This collection consciously corrects this shortcoming in African political studies Among the issues raised Does democracy facilitate state building or does it exacerbate ethnic conflicts Are certain modalities of democratization more likely to facilitate state building than others Has the era of democracy created the need for new state building strategies Does the objective of state building require significant modifications in the essence and form of democracy This collection combines theoretical explorations with empirical case studies It looks at both anglophone and francophone countries of sub Saharan Africa While the contributors have written extensively on African issues there is no consensus among the authors most argue that integrating ethnic groups that already face discrimination and often are engaged in conflict requires compromise political settlements and new terms of incorporation into the state These compromises in turn involve new arrangements in how democracy is perceived and instituted An important collection for scholars students and other researchers involved with African political social and economic development      South Asia and Africa After Independence

Bernard Waites, 2012-01-17 Post colonial South Asia and Africa invite comparison along with their political boundaries they inherited from colonial regimes administrative languages a cluster of sovereign state institutions and modern economic nuclei When they became independent South Asian and African states were for all their diversity thrust into a common position in the international system and embarked on a common history as emergent non aligned developing nations This is the first book to offer a single volume comparative history of postcolonial South Asia and sub Saharan Africa in the first generation since independence South Asia and Africa After Independence draws together the political and economic history of these two regions assessing the colonial impact establishing breaks and continuities and highlighting their diversity and interplay Waites sets out a framework for analysing the first generation of post colonial history offering an interpretation of post colonialism as a historical phenomenon and provocatively challenging us to re think this term in relation to South Asian and African history This book is an important reference for the study of global world African and South Asian history

Africa South of the Sahara: The Challenge to Western Security Lewis H. Gann, 1981      Africa in the Global Economy

Gorden Moyo, 2024-03-22 This book discusses the role played by powerful global institutions such as the IMF the World Bank the World Trade Organisation multinational corporations and the international credit rating agencies in keeping Africa marginalised in the world economy The book focuses on the intrusive roles of these institutions as enablers and beneficiaries of capital outflows and financial subordination in Africa Diverging from the official narrative that touts China and the other emerging economies as global reformers that are poised to partner Africa in its fight against financial subjugation the book instead argues that like the Western powers the emerging economies are benefiting prodigiously from a rigged global financial system that keeps Africa as a net creditor to the rest of the world The book draws its theoretical framework from the repressed heterodox theories including dependency core periphery world systems and Marxist theories as well as the decolonial approach It concludes with a call for a decolonial African agency that should champion an epistemic rebellion against the neo liberal and neo classic economic traditions that have been historically deployed to justify Africa's subordinated position in the global economic governance This book comes at a moment in time when Africa is ready to become a Rule Maker not a Rule Taker The analysis Dr Moyo presents having been in the front line of public policy and international negotiations demonstrates the need for Africa to re write the rules to foster our own Transformation Jason Rosario Braganza Executive Director African Forum and Network on Debt and Development AFRODAD
