In recent years economic activity has become increasingly globalized. One of the main instruments behind this process is the multinational enterprise. In The Globalization of Business first published in 1993 John Dunning explores the latest issues in the world of international business and looks ahead at the remaining years of this century identifying the likely challenges of the future. What are the challenges posed by the technological, political and economic developments of the 1990s for international business? What are the implications of the opening up of new territories such as in Central and Eastern Europe and parts of China? To what extent are the competitive advantages of nation states increasingly coming to depend on the presence of multinational activity? What are the implications of the globalization of markets and production for the domestic economic policies of governments? This collection of essays will be vital reading to students of international business.

Foreign Investment and Privatization in Eastern Europe Patrick Artisien, Matija Rojec, Marjan Svetlicic, 2016-01-03. Written in a clear and straightforward style and well grounded in succinct and pertinent analysis. It will prove a boon to students and practitioners alike as moves proceed towards European integration. British Book News. This volume identifies and analyses the extent to which the countries of Central and Eastern Europe are likely to attract inward foreign direct investment (FDI) to the turn of the century. Although these countries have been growing recipients of FDI, Western multinationals remain cautious and are slow to commit large investment sums. The book covers the contextual and thematic aspects of FDI as well as empirical country studies including the Commonwealth of Independent States, Hungary, Poland and Slovenia which address the legal environment for FDI, its magnitude and motives and industrial breakdown. The final section discusses the potential for closer economic and political integration in Europe. Foreign Direct Investment in Central and Eastern Europe Svetla Trifonova Marinova, 2024-11-01. This title was first published in 2003. Covering a diverse range of countries such as Bulgaria, the Czech Republic, Hungary, Poland, Slovakia, Slovenia and Russia as well as referring to the characteristics of the region as a whole, this book examines the inflow and outflow of foreign direct investment from both home and host company and country perspectives. By analyzing foreign direct investment in terms of process, content and context, the book provides a holistic approach towards direct foreign investment in the transitional context of Central and Eastern Europe, embracing both macro and micro economic perspectives of the process.
