Strategic Deception Rhetoric Science And Politics In Missile Defense Advocacy:

Strategic Deception Gordon R. Mitchell, 2000 Ballistic Missile Defence and US National Security Policy Andrew Futter, 2013-04-12 This book examines the transformation in US thinking about the role of Ballistic Missile Defence BMD in national security policy since the end of the Cold War The evolution of the BMD debate after the Cold War has been complex complicated and punctuated As this book shows the debate and subsequent policy choices would often appear to reflect neither the particular requirements of the international system for US security at any given time nor indeed the current capabilities of BMD technology Ballistic Missile Defence and US National Security Policy traces the evolution of policy from the zero sum debates that surrounded the Strategic Defense Initiative as Ronald Reagan left office up to the relative political consensus that exists around a limited BMD deployment in 2012 The book shows how and why policy evolved in such a complex manner during this period and explains the strategic reasoning and political pressures shaping BMD policy under each of the presidents who have held office since 1989 Ultimately this volume demonstrates how relative advancements in technology combined with growth in the perceived missile threat gradually shifted the contours and rhythm of the domestic missile defence debate in the US towards acceptance and normalisation This book will be of much interest to students of missile defence and arms control US national security policy strategic studies and international relations in general

Justifying Ballistic Missile Defence Columba Peoples, 2010 Examines the ways in which views of technology have been used in debates over ballistic missile defence The State of Rhetoric of Science and Technology Alan G. Gross, Laura J. Gurak, 2020-08-26 The ubiquity of the Internet and digital technology has changed the sites of rhetorical discourse and inquiry as well as the methods by which such analyses are performed This special issue discusses the state of rhetoric of science and technology at the beginning of the twenty first century While many books connecting rhetorical theory to the Internet have paved the way for more refined and insightful studies of online communication the articles here serve as a reflective moment an opportunity to consider thoughtful statements from those who have published and been influential in the field The Role of Generative AI in the Communication Classroom Elmoudden, Sanae, Wrench, Jason

S., 2024-02-12 In an era marked by the rapid integration of Artificial Intelligence AI into our lives the discourse surrounding its implications has intensified The Role of Generative AI in the Communication Classroom is a pioneering book that delves into the multifaceted dimensions of AI specifically focusing on OpenAI s revolutionary Chat Generative Pre Trained Transformer Chat GPT and its profound influence on the landscape of communication education This book navigates the intersection of technology education and ethics shedding light on the imperative need for a collaborative approach to shape AI s evolution AI s potential to reshape industries and human roles is undeniable Rooted in the intricate workings of AI and its hallmark Chat GPT this book meticulously dissects the dynamic relationship between humans and machines The discourse extends beyond technology and into the realm of education asserting that the power to mold AI s trajectory cannot rest solely in the hands of developers While revealing AI s transformative potential in the communication classroom the book conscientiously explores ethical concerns and biases fostering a balanced approach to its integration This book is instrumental to the ongoing discourse on AI s role in education The call for ethical considerations inclusivity and regulation serves as a guiding compass for educators students developers and policymakers alike The book ensures a holistic perspective on AI s integration by addressing privacy citation voice ownership and overall digital ethics Defining Reality Edward Schiappa,2003 Smoke and Mirrors Frank P. Harvey,2004-01-01 Frank P Harvey mounts a powerful case for American unilateralism He addresses the relationship between globalization terrorism and unilateralism and provides a systematic explanation for and defense of Washington s response to threats of terrorism and proliferation of weapons of mass destruction Christianity and the Mass Media in America Quentin J. Schultze,2005-11-09 The mass media and religious groups in America regularly argue about news bias sex and violence on television movie censorship advertiser boycotts broadcast and film content rating systems government regulation of the media the role of mass evangelism in a democracy and many other issues In the United States the major disputes between religion and the media usually have involved Christian churches or parachurch ministries on the one hand and the so called secular media on the other Often the Christian Right locks horns with supposedly liberal Eastern media elite and Hollywood entertainment companies When a major Protestant denomination calls for an economic boycott of Disney the resulting news reports suggest business as usual in the tensions between faith groups and media empires Schultze demonstrates how religion and the media in America have borrowed each other s rhetoric In the process they have also helped to keep each other honest pointing out respective foibles and pretensions Christian media have offered the public as well as religious tribes some of the best media criticism better than most of the media criticism produced by mainstream media themselves Meanwhile mainstream media have rightly taken particular churches to task for misdeeds as well as offered some surprisingly good depictions of religious life The tension between Christian groups and the media in America ultimately is a good thing that can serve the interest of democratic life As Alexis de Tocqueville discovered in the 1830s American Christianity can foster the habits of the heart that ward off the antisocial acids of radical individualism And as John Dewey argued a century later the media offer some of our best hopes for maintaining a public life in the face of the religious tribalism that can erode democracy from within Mainstream media and Christianity will always be at odds in a democracy That is exactly the way it should be for the good of each one Shared Land/Conflicting Identity Robert C. Rowland,David A. Frank,2002-12-31 Shared Land Conflicting Identity Trajectories of Israeli and Palestinian Symbol Use argues that rhetoric ideology and myth have played key roles in influencing the development of the 100 year conflict between first the Zionist settlers and the current Israeli people and the Palestinian residents in what is now Israel The Israeli Palestinian conflict is usually treated as an issue of land and water While these elements are the core of the conflict they are heavily influenced by the symbols used by both peoples to describe understand and persuade each other The authors argue that symbolic practices deeply influenced the Oslo Accords and that the breakthrough in the peace process that led to Oslo could not have occurred without a breakthrough in communication styles Rowland and Frank develop four crucial ideas on social development the roles of rhetoric ideology and myth the influence of symbolic factors specific symbolic factors that played a key role in peace negotiations and the identification and value of criteria for evaluating symbolic practices in any society The Securitization of Memorial Space Nicholas S.

Paliewicz, Marouf Hasian, 2019-11-01 The Securitization of Memorial Space argues that the National September 11 Memorial and Memorial Museum is a securitized site of memory what Foucault called a dispositif that polices visitors and publics to remember trauma darkness and victimage in ways that perpetuate the necessity of the Global War on Terrorism Contributing to studies in public memory rhetoric and argumentation and critical security studies Nicholas S Paliewicz and Marouf Hasian Jr show how various human and nonhuman actors participated in complicated argumentative formations that have mobilized political performative and militaristic practices of anti terroristic violence in other parts of the world While there were times that certain argumentative stakeholders such as local New Yorkers questioned the necessity of securitizing this site of memory agentic factions including the families of those who died on 9 11 public supporters security agents and politicians created an ideologically oriented security assemblage that remembers 9 11 through counter terroristic performances at Ground Zero In chronological order from the 2001 dustbowl to the present popularization of 9 11 memories the authors present seven chapters of rich rhetorical analysis that show how the National September 11 Memorial and Memorial Museum perpetuates grief uncertainty and angst that affects public memory in multidirectional ways Spirits of the Cold War Ned O'Gorman, 2011-11-01 In spring of 1953 newly elected President Eisenhower sat down with his staff to discuss the state of American strategy in the cold war America he insisted needed a new approach to an urgent situation From this meeting emerged Eisenhower's teams of bright young fellows charged with developing competing policies each of which would come to shape global politics In Spirits of the Cold War Ned O Gorman argues that the early Cold War was a crucible not only for contesting political strategies but also for competing conceptions of America and its place in the world Drawing on extensive archival research and wide reading in intellectual and rhetorical histories this comprehensive account shows cold warriors debating worldviews in addition to more strictly instrumental tactical aims Spirits of the Cold War is a rigorous scholarly account of the strategic debate of the early Cold War a cultural diagnostic of American security discourse and an examination of its origins Religious Expression and the American Constitution Franklyn S. Haiman, 2003-10-31 First Amendment rights have been among the most fiercely debated topics in the aftermath of 9 11 In the current environment and fervor for homeland security personal freedoms in exchange for security are coming under more scrutiny Among these guaranteed freedoms are the protection of religious expression given by the U S Constitution and the constitutional prohibitions against behaviors that violate the separation of church and state The mandate that the government shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion or prohibiting the free exercise thereof is a general principle that has guided American courts in interpreting the original intent of the First Amendment In Religious Expression and the American Constitution Haiman focuses on the current state of American law with respect to a broad range of controversial issues affecting religious expression both verbal and nonverbal along with a review of the recent history of each issue to provide a full understanding

Slipping the Surly Bonds Mary E. Stuckey, 2006 Millions of Americans including hundreds of thousands of schoolchildren watched in horror as the Challenger shuttle capsule exploded on live television on January 28 1986 Coupled with that awful image in Americans memory is the face of President Ronald Reagan addressing the public hours later with words that spoke to the nation s shock and mourning Focusing on the text of Reagan s speech author Mary Stuckey shows how President Reagan s reputation as the Great Communicator adds significance to our understanding of his rhetoric on one of the most momentous occasions of his administration

The Architecture of Security in the Asia-Pacific Ronald Huisken, 2009-10-01 We cannot expect in East Asia over the foreseeable future to see the sort of conflation of sovereign states that has occurred in Europe We must anticipate that for the foreseeable future the requirement will be for the sensible management and containment of competitive instincts The establishment of a multilateral security body in East Asia that includes all the key players and which the major powers invest with the authority to tackle the shaping of the regional security order remains a critical piece of unfinished business

World War II and the Cold War Martin J. Medhurst, 2018-09-01 This volume examines crucial moments in the rhetoric of the Cold War beginning with an exploration of American neutrality and the debate over entering World War II Other topics include the long distance debate carried on over international radio between Hitler and Franklin D Roosevelt understanding and interpreting World War II propaganda domestic radio following the war and the use of Abraham Lincoln narratives as vehicles for American propaganda the influence of foreign policy agents Dean Acheson Paul Nitze and George Kennan and the rhetoric of former presidents John F Kennedy and Ronald Reagan Ultimately this volume offers a broad based look at the rhetoric framing the Cold War and in doing so offers insight into the political climate of today

Foreign Policy Rhetorics in a Global Era Allison M. Prasch, Sara L. McKinnon, 2024-11-01 This volume takes concepts familiar to foreign policy scholars and reimagines their usefulness in a global era The essays in this collection feature unique methodological and theoretical contributions to rhetorical scholarship The field of rhetorical studies often assumes a US centric approach that elevates American chief executives as the sole doers and makers of foreign policy discourse This work points to a more comprehensive global perspective of foreign policy discourse and offers key concepts case studies and approaches It also examines who enacts discourse where it happens and how it influences relationships in between local national transnational and global spheres Among the cases researched in this collection are foreign policy rhetoric from Cold War foreign policy in Latin America the rhetoric of Vladimir Putin s Ukraine war messages and the development challenges of the Ford Foundation and the Kenya

Women Finance Trust among many others Power and Restraint Richard N Rosecrance, Gu Guoliang, 2009-03-03 Over several years some of the most distinguished Chinese and American scholars have engaged in a major research project sponsored by the China U S Exchange Foundation USEF to address the big bilateral and global issues the two countries face Historically the ascension of a great power has resulted in armed conflict This group of scholars experts in politics economics international security and environmental studies set out to establish consensus on potentially contentious issues and elaborate areas where the two nations can work together to achieve common goals Featuring essays on global warming trade relations Taiwan democratization WMDs and bilateral humanitarian intervention Power and Restraint finds that China and the United States can exist side by side and establish mutual understanding to better cope with the common challenges they face Securing the Prize Randall Fowler, 2024-11-14 How presidential metaphors have shaped US discourse on the Persian Gulf From the 1970s to the 1990s American presidents and their advisers introduced four metaphors into foreign policy discourse that taught Americans to view the Persian Gulf as a vulnerable region and site of US responsibility on the world stage In Securing the Prize Presidential Metaphor and US Intervention in the Persian Gulf Randall Fowler argues that for half a century metaphor has been central to defining America's role in the Middle East Metaphors served as shorthand for presidents to promote their policies filtering through the judgments of officials journalists experts and critics to mediate American perceptions of the Gulf War Tracing the use of security metaphors from President Richard Nixon to President George W Bush Fowler revises mainstream understandings regarding the origins of the War on Terror and explains the disconnect between skeptical public attitudes toward US involvement in the Gulf War and the heavy American military footprint in the region Weapons Satellites Philip Wolny, 2002-12-15 Examines the development of weapons satellites which are not yet in use but which when deployed can use laser beams to attack large targets disrupt the weather or eliminate nuclear missiles in flight Earth Into Property Tony Hall, 2010 A broad exploration of the colonial roots of global capitalism and the worldwide quest of Indigenous people for liberation through decolonization
