Taking A Line For A Walk:

Take a Line for a Walk Marion Deuchars, 2025-09-23 Inspired by artist Paul Klee's quote "A drawing is simply a line going for a walk" this artful activity book is packed with playful ways to start a drawing Taking a Line for a Walk Nina Paim, Corinne Gisel, Emilia Bergmark, 2016 Deriving its title from the Paul Klee's pedagogical sketchbook of the same name

Taking a Line for a Walk Martin Wiener, 1985 Martin Wiener's drawings make one aware at all times of that tension between what a line is doing and what it is describing He plays with this idea constantly but it is especially clear in his series of autographs where the line teases the viewer by its many functions One moment it is a line in its role as a written language next it is a line as line but it is also a portrait of the person whose signature it is Still further it is not a portrait as likeness only but refers to characteristic attributes of the subject An artist whose work is often witty and delightful he sometimes also provokes strong reactions Agitators threw a bomb into a gallery hosting an exhibition of his works in 1984 Ways of

Walking Jo Lee Vergunst, Tim Ingold, 2016-12-05 Despite its importance to how humans inhabit their environments walking has rarely received the attention of ethnographers Ways of Walking combines discussions of embodiment place and materiality to address this significant and largely ignored technique of the body This book presents studies of walking in a range of regional and cultural contexts exploring the diversity of walking behaviours and the variety of meanings these can embody As an original collection of ethnographic work that is both coherent in design and imaginative in scope this primarily anthropological book includes contributions from geographers sociologists and specialists in education and architecture offering insights into human movement landscape and social life With its interdisciplinary nature and truly international appeal Ways of Walking will be of interest to scholars across a range of social sciences as well as to policy makers on both local and national levels Signergy C. Jac Conradie, Ronél Johl, Marthinus Beukes, Olga Fischer, Christina

Ljungberg, 2010-05-26 The title of this volume strives to capture the dynamic scope and range of the essays it contains applying insights into the workings of iconicity to texts as far removed from each other in time as the Medieval tale of a bishop fish and the war poems of 20th century Italian Futurist F T Marinetti and as thematically diverse as the Pilgrim's Progress and the poetry of e e cummings Applications reference both language and linguistics as well as literature and literary theory and related fields such as sign language and translation the former approached from the point of view of Japan Sign Language the latter with reference to translations of the Koran and the Sesotho Bible as well as modern German and English Bible translations On the language side the intricate relationships between sound symbolism and etymology and between analogy and grammaticalization are examined in depth On the literary side the iconic effects of techniques such as enjambment and metrical inversion are considered but also the ways in which an understanding of iconicity can open up meanings in complex poetry like that of the Afrikaans poet T T Cloete in this particular instance three poems inspired by figures as diverse as Dante Paul Klee and the pop icon Marilyn Monroe In view of the fact that form is able to mime meaning and meaning itself can be mimed by meaning the theoretical question is asked on the basis of a wide range of examples from literature language music and other sign systems whether meaning can also mime form An introduction to the work of H C T Mller an early scholar in the field of iconicity highlights a regrettably little known South African contribution to the development of iconicity theory Foundations of Creative Work G.
