Tale Of Boiarynia Morozova A Seventeenth Century Religious Life:

Tale of Boiarynia Morozova Margaret Ziolkowski, 2000-01-01 Margaret Ziolkowski's book comprises a thorough introduction to skillful translation of and erudite commentary on the four hundred year old Tale of Boiarynia Morozova. The story of Feodosia Morozova, a member of the Russian aristocratic elite and a major participant in the Russian Orthodox Schism, describes one of the most violent ruptures in religious history: the complete destabilization of the bastions of church and society in seventeenth century Russia. In her explication of this famous text, Ziolkowski examines the hagiography of the Tale, the spiritual asceticism of Morozova in the context of Christian women's struggles for independence, and the role this prominent female dissident has played as a symbol of resistance to corrupt authority. This work makes a significant contribution to the history of the Orthodox Church, pre-Petrine Russia, women in religion, and the study of medieval Russian literature.

Old Believers Irina Paert, 2003 Since the late 1960s, American literature has been revitalised by the work of writers such as Toni Morrison, Sherman Alexie, Sandra Cisneros, and Maxine Hong Kingston. An introduction to the study of ethnic American fictions, organised into four sections, each written by a specialist in the fields of African American, Asian American, Chicano, and native American literature. Writers are discussed in their cultural, political contexts and literary traditions, rather than as exceptions or as individuals, or on a generic basis. The book highlights common themes in ethnic writing, as well as specificities, and has extensive suggestions for further reading, as well as a critical introduction regarding the concept of ethnic writing. No competing titles: there are no textbooks, no beginners' books, nor any systematised combination of ethnic fictions such as this only edited collection on each area.

From Peasant to Patriarch Ioann Shusherin, 2007-04-26 Nikon 1605-1681, patriarch of Moscow and all Russia, is best known for imposing the religious reforms that ultimately led to the schism of the Russian Orthodox Church. Yet only the Account of Birth, Life, and Upbringing of His Holiness Nikon, Patriarch of Moscow and All Russia, 1680s, comes close to immortalizing the vicissitudes of Nikon's entire life. Written by Ioann Shusherin's d. 1693, the patriarch's protégé and confidant, the Account presents Nikon as he appeared to his contemporary supporters. The biography chronicles Nikon's steady rise through the ecclesiastical ranks, dramatic downfall, and extraordinary rehabilitation. While discussing Nikonian religious reforms, the Account focuses on Nikon's relationship with the Romanov royal family and his monastery building program, especially the early history of the New Jerusalem Monastery and its main sanctuary, the Church of the Resurrection. This unique narrative features rare eyewitness accounts of momentous and daily life during a period of unprecedented political, religious, and social change in Russia. From Peasant to Patriarch is the first English language translation of the Account. Dr. Kevin Kain and Dr. Katia Levintova offer extensive commentary, parallel texts, and a glossary of Russian terms that contribute to the depth of this text. From Peasant to Patriarch opens new doors to the study of Russian history, religion, and culture.

Alien Visions Margaret Ziolkowski,2005 There are many parallels and some revealing differences in the encounter between on the one hand the Americans and various Indian tribes and on the other the Russians and some of the peoples of the Caucasus and Siberia The enduring cultural consequences of these encounters provide a fruitful area of inquiry for the comparative examination of national images in literatures The major focus on this study is the perceptions and literary portrayal of the Chechens by the Russians and the Navajos by the Americans Both the Chechen in Russian literature and the Navajo in American literature are often constructs images derived from a potent combination of prejudices and received assumptions In each case a relatively sizable corpus of writings produced over a century or longer exemplifies or attempts to counter persistent and influential modes of cultural stereotyping The diachronic analysis of the portrayal of either the Chechens or the Navajos illuminates patterns of prejudice that have immense implications for both popular and high culture The juxtaposition of the discussion of the two groups as they have been treated in Russian and American literature can deepen our understanding of the commonalities present in attempted cultural domination or ethnic idealization Margaret Ziolkowski is Professor of Russian at Miami University Ohio

Soviet Heroic Poetry in Context Margaret Ziolkowski,2013-08-15 Soviet Heroic Poetry in Context discusses key issues surrounding the composition and recording of folklore as well as its often intensely political aspect and its preoccupation with chimerical cultural authority These issues are dramatically displayed in Soviet epic compositions of the 1930s and 1940s the so called noviny new songs which took their formal inspiration largely from traditional Russian epic songs byliny songs of the past and their narrative content from contemporary political and other events in Stalinist Russia

The story of the noviny is at once complex and comprehensible. While it may be tempting to interpret the excrescences of Stalinism as unique aberrations, the reality was often more complicated. The noviny were not simply the result of political fiat; an episode in an ideological vacuum. Their emergence occurred in part because of specific trends and controversies that marked European folklore collection and publication from at least the late eighteenth century on, as well as developments in Russian folkloristics from the mid nineteenth century on that assumed exaggerated proportions. The demise of the noviny was equally mediated by a host of political and theoretical considerations. This study tells the story of the rise and fall of the noviny in all its cultural richness and pathos, an instructive tale of the interaction of aesthetics and ideology.
