Nationalism and the Formation of Caribbean Literature L. Rosenberg, 2016-04-30 This book tells the story of how intellectuals in the English speaking Caribbean first created a distinctly Caribbean and national literature As traditionally told this story begins in the 1950s with the arrival and triumph of V S Naipaul George Lamming and their peers in the London literary scene However Afro Caribbeans were writing literature already in the 1840s as part of larger movements for political rights economic opportunity and social status Rosenberg offers a history of this first one hundred years of anglophone Caribbean literature and a critique of Caribbean literary studies that explains its neglect A historically contextualized study of both canonical and noncanonical writers this book makes the case that the few well known Caribbean writers from this earlier period Claude McKay Jean Rhys and C L R James participated in a larger Caribbean literary movement that directly contributed to the rise of nationalism in the region This movement reveals the prominence of Indian and other immigrant groups of feminism and of homosexuality in the formation of national literatures

A tale of two dialect regions: Sranan's 17th-century English input André Sherriah, 2019 This book traces the precise origin of the early English lexical and lexico phonetic influences in Sranan an English based creole spoken in Suriname Sranan contains fossilised linguistic remnants of an early English colonial period

The book discusses whether Sranan's English influence's originated from a single dialect from the general London area as proposed by Norval Smith in 1987 or whether we are dealing with a composite of dialectal features from all over England. The book introduces a novel replicable methodology for linguistic reconstructions which combines statistics in the form of binomial probability, English dialect geography via use of Orton's et al 1962-1971 Survey of English Dialects which focuses on traditional regional English dialects across England and Wales and 17th century English migration history compiled from The Complete Book of Emigrants 1607-1660, The Bristol Registers of Servants Sent to Foreign Plantations 1654-1686, Virtual Jamestown, Virginia Center for Digital History and Colonial State Papers secured from the British History Online databases among other relevant historical sources.
