Boots on the Ground Richard Dannatt, 2016-10-03 On 14 June 1945 the German High Command surrendered to Field Marshall Montgomery in 2015 seventy years after this historic triumph the last units of the British Army finally left their garrisons next to L neberg Heath Boots on the Ground is the story of those years following the British Army against the backdrop of Britain's shifting security and defence policies From the decolonisation of India to the two invasions of Iraq and of course Ireland the book tracks the key historical conflicts both big and small of Britain's transformation from a leading nation with some 2 million troops in 1945 to a significantly reduced place on the world stage and fewer than 82 000 troops in 2015 Despite this apparent de escalation at no point since WWII has Britain not had boots on the ground and with the current tensions in the Middle East and the rise of terrorism this situation is unlikely to change Sir Richard Dannatt brings forty years of military service including as Chief of Staff to tell the fascinating story of how the British Army has shaped and been shaped by world events from the Cold War to the Good Friday Agreement Whether examining the fallout of empire in the insurgencies of Kenya and Indonesia the politically fraught battle for the Falklands the long standing conflict in Ireland or Britain s relationship with NATO and experience of fighting with or for America Dannatt examines the complexity of perhaps the greatest British institution

Imperialism and the natural world John M. MacKenzie,2017-03-01 Imperial power both formal and informal and research in the natural sciences were closely dependent in the nineteenth century This book examines a portion of the mass produced juvenile literature focusing on the cluster of ideas connected with Britain s role in the maintenance of order and the spread of civilization It discusses the political economy of Western ecological systems and the consequences of their extension to the colonial periphery particularly in forms of forest conservation Progress and consumerism were major constituents of the consensus that helped stabilise the late Victorian society but consumerism only works if it can deliver the goods From 1842 onwards almost all major episodes of coordinated popular resistance to colonial rule in India were preceded by phases of vigorous resistance to colonial forest control By the late 1840s a limited number of professional positions were available for geologists in British imperial service but imperial geology had a longer pedigree Modern imperialism or municipal imperialism offers a broader framework for understanding the origins long duration and persistent support for overseas expansion which transcended the rise and fall of cabinets or international realignments in the 1800s Although medical scientists began to discern and control the microbiological causes of tropical ills after the mid nineteenth century the claims for climatic causation did not undergo a corresponding decline Arthur Pearson s Pearson s Magazine was patriotic militaristic and devoted to royalty The book explores how science emerged as an important feature of the development policies of the Colonial Office CO of the colonial empire And Now on Radio 4 Simon Elmes, 2009-11-10 And Now on Radio 4 offers an enthusiast's guide to the shows that have made Radio 4 what it is and also explores some of the wonderful corners of the network's history that are long forgotten by all but a few. Who for instance now recalls Ronnie Barker's starring role on Radio 4 in a sophisticated cabaret cum sketch show called Lines from My Grandfather's Forehead? What about Spike Milligan's intimate soul-bearing account of his upbringing in colonial India Plain Tales from the Raj? And who now remembers that Start the Week was once hosted by Russell Harty a bit of programming compared by one insider to letting Graham Norton run Newsnight? In order to reflect the way devotees listen to Radio 4 the book is organised not on simple chronological lines but in the form of a typical day. Chapter by chapter the day evolves from Farming Today through the daily feast that is Today through the morning menu of conversation Woman's Hour documentary and comedy Lunchtime brings The World at One. The early evening of course yields The Archers. And finally there's Book at Bedtime and Sailing By. An addictive mix of history biography anecdote and occasional useless fact this is the perfect book for Radio 4 aficionados.
