

The book cover features a detailed, sepia-toned illustration of a busy bazaar. In the foreground, a man in a turban and long robe stands on the left, while others are seated or standing on the ground. A large, ornate building with a high, vaulted ceiling dominates the background, with a large arched opening revealing a glimpse of the sky. The scene is filled with various goods, including what appears to be a large pile of fabric or goods in the center. The overall atmosphere is one of a vibrant, historical marketplace.
