Copyright Office,1948 The Dao of Being Jewish and Other Stories Irene Shaland,2023-01-16 This book is a collection of Jewish survival stories and fascinating tales This is not a conventional travel guide this book will shine a light on the history of 10 Jewish communities in Europe Asia and Africa Together with the author you will visit incredible places and meet the Jews of today GTA Books Two and a half millennia ago a small party of Jews explored new trading routes for King Solomon settled in the south of India and lived there peacefully until today Similarly during the ancient Roman period many Jewish merchants traveled to China over the Silk Route and some made it their permanent home Also before the Edict of Expulsion in 1492 Sicily was home to over 50 Jewish communities possibly numbering 50 000 people So how did the Diaspora bring these wandering Jews to so many places around the globe And why did Jews live happily in India and China for centuries and not experience antisemitism while the story of the Jews in Europe went from persecution and massacres to unspeakable horrors of the Holocaust Finally why do we see the rise of antisemitism and violence again in the 21st century You will find answers to these questions and much more in the current edition of Irene Shaland s artfully illustrated book The Dao of Being Jewish and Other Stories She collected these fascinating stories while visiting ten countries in Europe Asia and Africa and interviewing the locals in their homes synagogues and even cemeteries Now Irene Shaland s book replete with her husband s photos takes you on your own exciting journey of discovery from Austria and the Czech Republic to Scandinavia from India and China to Sicily and Sardinia and from East Africa to Stalinist Russia Horror Culture in the New Millennium Daniel W. Powell,2018-11-23 Horror Culture in the New Millennium Digital Dissonance and Technohorror explores the myriad ways in which technology is altering the human experience as articulated in horrific storytelling The text surveys a variety of emerging trends and story forms in the field through both a series of critical essays and personal interviews with scholars editors authors and artists now creating and refining horror stories in the new millennium The project posits a rationale for the presence of technohorror as a defining concern in contemporary horror literature marking a departure from the monstrous and spectral traditions of the twentieth century in its depictions of frightful narratives marked by the qualities of plausibility mundanity and surprise as we tell stories about what it means to be human As our culture explores the dichotomies of the born made natural artificial and human computer all while subsumed within a paradigm shift predicated on the transition from the traditions of print to emerging digital communications practices these changes form the basis for horrific speculations in our texts and technologies Ultimately Digital Dissonance Horror Culture in the New Millennium explores that paradoxical human attraction for peering into the darkness as translated through our lived experiences in an era of rapidly evolving technologies
