Talking About Death A Dialogue Between Parent And Child:

Talking about Death Earl A. Grollman, 2011-09-06 Why do people die How do you explain the loss of a loved one to a child This book is a compassionate guide for adults and children to read together featuring a read along story and answers to questions children ask about death Talking about Death is a classic guide for parents helping their children through the death of a loved one With a helpful list of dos and don ts an illustrated read along dialogue and a guide to explaining death Grollman provides sensitive and timely advice for families coping with loss This redesigned and updated edition explains what children at different developmental stages can and can t understand about death reveals why it s crucial to be honest about death helps you understand the way children express emotions like denial grief crying anger and guilt and discusses children s reactions to different kinds of death from the death of a parent to the death of a pet Beyond the Innocence of Childhood David Adams, Eleanor Deveau, 2020-11-25 Death is not a mere possibility but a certainty for all of us Yet today s society unrealistically portrays childhood as a time of unremittant joy and freedom Unfortunately the reality of life may suddenly bring children face to face with tragic circumstances such as the death of their pet the terminal illness of their parent their own struggle with life threatening disease the accidental death of their sibling or the suicide of a friend The gravity of any of these situations takes children beyond the innocence of childhood and plunges them into a world that is frightening and full of uncertainty Unfortunately our perceptions and attitudes toward death do not equip children with the tools to help them cope adequately with such overwhelming experiences Beyond the Innocence of Childhood is a collection of forty chapters which are divided into three separate volumes The overall purpose of this series is to answer the question How do we as educators clinicians other professionals and parents help children and adolescents deal with threat to their lives dying death and bereavement In this three volume set the editors have brought together a number of well known educators researchers and practitioners who share their knowledge and expertise concerning the care and well being of children and adolescents SPECIFIC TO VOLUME 1 Children explore the world around them through spontaneous and later structured learning acquire knowledge learn to understand themselves establish their role in the family develop peer and adult relationships and find their place in the world However today s society does not include death as part of this developmental process Unfortunately such avoidance may negatively influence children s ability to acquire an understanding of the concepts of death and to develop positive attitudes toward death Highlights of this section include Answering children s questions Children and death past present and future Gender differences Teachable moments Perceptions of death cognitive development and children s artwork The second part of volume 1 examines influences in today s society that potentially impact on children and adolescents perceptions and attitudes toward life threatening illness and death This volume offers readers valuable insights into the various factors which ultimately affect children s ability to achieve a mature understanding of death Features include the following Violent death in a popular culture and the media Political conflict and war The epidemic of AIDS Cultural differences in the management of life threatening illness Death rituals and funeral ceremonies

Bereavement Donna Infeld, Nadine R Penner, 2014-02-25 Helping a mother transcend the death of her only child helping a young child understand and cope with the death of a loved one and helping survivors of the AIDS epidemic cope with the loss of numerous loved ones and the loss of community are among the greatest challenges facing today's bereavement counselors Bereavement explores these sensitive issues and ways bereavement counselors can help these individuals construct new identities and new worldviews that are self affirming Using this book as a guide you can improve your understanding of the various resources and options that can be employed to achieve the healthy resolution of grief with individuals families and communities Recognizing that the experience of grieving is unique for all individuals Bereavement addresses a wide range of issues facing bereavement professionals Its authors offer a multitude of effective therapeutic interventions and techniques You will learn to encourage grievers to incorporate important aspects of their lost relationship into their present lives to gain greater personal integration and wholeness see how to use music dance art and play therapy with clients to help them explore their grief and move through the various stages of grieving acquire helpful hints and practical advice for offering extended bereavement care to both hospice and non hospice families and see how a highly successful interdisciplinary bereavement team approach has been employed in one of the largest bereavement programs in the U S You will also learn about other crucial topics and issues faced by bereavement counselors including uniting survivors of different types of death in a support group teaching your community about death dying developing rural hospice bereavement services emotional behavioral physical social and cognitive symptoms of grief healthy coping mechanisms pre death bereavement interventions Post Traumatic Stress Disorder multiple trauma survivor guilt bereavement counseling as a supplement to normal support networks Bereavement will help you enhance your knowledge and skills in the delivery of effective bereavement services Whether you are a beginner or a counselor with several years of experience you will find this book an invaluable guide as it walks you through the different stages of mourning through different human reactions to death and dying and through different therapeutic approaches

Afterlife Encounters Dianne Arcangel, 2005-09-02 Never before released research proves the dead communicate with us As a former hospice worker and director of the Elisabeth Kbler Ross Center Dianne Arcangel was certain that visitations from beyond death provided comfort and hope for loved ones still grappling with their loss As a researcher however she was unable to find specific data to measure that comfort and hope To remedy this lack of information she created the Afterlife Encounters Survey a five year international survival study Afterlife Encounters reveals the results of this landmark study and for the first time offers a systematic categorization of such encounters explaining when these encounters are most likely to occur and what type of apparition is likely to appear Afterlife Encounters presents not only the data but also the stories beyond the numbers as friends and family members relate their visitation experiences in their own words Included are amazing stories of the dead returning to tell loved ones that they had been murdered and who it was that killed them apparitions revealing where family treasure was buried even one spirit who provided a remarkable account of the tragedies of 9 11 weeks before those events occurred The stats and stories that Arcangel shares are certain to stay with you for a long time as will her eye opening conclusion afterlife encounters provide real lasting comfort and hope to an astounding 97 percent of those loved ones who experience them Hospice Care for Children Ann Armstrong-Dailey, Sarah F. Zarbock, 2001 Children with life threatening and terminal illnesses and their families require a unique kind of care to meet a wide variety of needs This book the first edition of which won the 1993 Pediatric Nursing Book of the Year Award provides an authoritative source for the many people involved in caring for dying children It draws together contributions from leading authorities in a comprehensive fully up to date resource with an emphasis on practical topics that can be put to immediate use The book covers the entire range of issues related to the hospice environment and is intended for all those who participate in the hospice care process physicians nurses social workers teachers clergy family therapists parents and community service volunteers Supporting Young Children Experiencing Loss and Grief Deborah Price, Clair Barnard, 2020-11-24 Supporting Young Children Experiencing Loss and Grief provides early years practitioners and Key Stage 1 teachers with practical advice to support children experiencing feelings related to change and loss Using key case studies and interviews with children and adults this important text uncovers best practice techniques to help children talk about their feelings Covering more than bereavement it considers the loss children feel when they move home undergo a change in routine experience their parents or carers separation move settings or lose contact with a close friend nursery practitioner or teacher Providing answers to the key question of how to support children who have feelings of loss and grief Supporting Young Children Experiencing Loss and Grief is a must read text for all those working with young children in caring environments who are looking to provide children with the tools they need to talk about their emotions Parenting Through Illness Leigh Collins, Courtney Nathan, 2016-09-27 Parents get sick Their lives change radically and quickly This book offers immediate practical and experienced advice for adult family members and others responsible for the wellbeing of children when one parent has a serious illness The authors are both clinical social workers with years of training and time spent with children and families in crisis They establish a clear and authoritative voice while keeping a tone of encouragement throughout With its matter of fact language the book is organized to make it easy for parents to turn to the sections they most need when they need them Collins and Nathan keep their readers focused on the child in every situation while always supporting reasonable boundaries in positive self care for the adults who serve them The authors remind us that the task of parenting is hard enough even when Mom and Dad are healthy energetic and emotionally strong Add a diagnosis of cancer heart disease or a debilitating accident to the mix and parenting can quickly become overwhelming They acknowledge that anyone faced with a serious health crisis will be challenged daily to decide on treatment options to reorient priorities and to deal with the many stages of grief that humans suffer when confronted with survival issues They help us remember that one member s illness will affect the entire family system and explain how The book is unique It deals with any kind of serious illness not just cancer It explains how children of different age ranges commonly react to a parent s illness or other family crisis It suggests specific language in talking to children of different ages A full chapter is devoted to advantages and disadvantages of using information technology rarely covered in other books on this topic Based on extensive qualitative research Includes excerpts from interviews with parents and children coping with illness in the family Both authors rely on their training but also on early life experience in which they encountered traumatic family events As a teenager Courtney Nathan lost her mother to breast cancer Leigh Collins suffered a terrible accident as a young child and was confined in hospital for many weeks Their book reflects a dedication to other families who face such life altering circumstances The book has received wide endorsement from medical doctors and social service personnel who know the urgent need for this information for their patients and

Pet Loss and Human Emotion, Second Edition Cheri Barton Ross,2013-05-13 This updated edition of Pet Loss and Human Emotion is a step by step guide to leading clients through this special kind of grief Includes resources and a section on pet loss and natural disasters As society accepts that grieving over the death of a loved one is not only normal but healthy and necessary grieving over the loss of a pet is often seen differently Expressed feelings often go unvalidated when in truth pet loss is a unique form of grief that can be quite intense and debilitating increasing an individual s vulnerability to subsequent stress and leaving them feeling isolated and misunderstood Pet loss needs to be addressed by therapists and others in the helping professions to better enable them to help their clients through the loss of their companion animals This unique guide is written for all professionals helping clients deal with the loss of a pet and serves as a practical introduction to the field of human animal bonding Citing several case studies it describes various techniques for helping clients when the bond with a pet is broken
