

The background image is a photograph of a traditional Yoruba shrine. It features a thatched roof made of dried palm fronds and a central arched opening. Inside the archway is a carved wooden figure, possibly a deity or ancestor. The shrine is surrounded by lush greenery, including banana leaves and other tropical plants. The overall scene is set in a natural, outdoor environment.

The Healing Power Of Sacrifice

Rachel Sandford

The Healing Power Of Sacrifice:

The Healing Power of Sacrifice Ifayemi Eleburuibon, 2000 The term sacrifice needs to be further explained in the Yoruba religion cultural perspectives Its connotation transcends the mere offer of gifts to the poor Sacrifice is propitiatory This is why it is otherwise known as Etutu that which propitiates In another vain sacrifice can be seen as an atonement a carrier of bad fortunes and mishaps Through the practice of sacrifice all forms of adversities are rubbed off the path of man and nation and thus usher in positive fortunes of various magnitudes and complexions The place of sacrifice therefore should not be undermined especially when one remembers that evil and good fortunes are like twin sisters almost always each other s concomitant

The Healing Power of Self Love Oscar Bamwebaze Bamuhigire, 2009-02 In the field of alcoholism and drug addiction treatment there have always been questions for which there were no satisfactory answers Is substance abuse is a problem of discipline or a disease Why is it that most alcoholics drug addicts do not seek for or receive treatment Why is it that only 5 10% of alcoholics drug addicts respond to treatment Why do untreated addicts have a better chance at breaking the bond of addiction than addicts who get treated Why has the incidence of recovery without the help of formal treatment continued to rise Are the successes of Alcoholics Anonymous A A nothing more than spontaneous remission Why are some people able to quit their addiction without treatment while others only get worse after treatment Why does treatment have a negative effect Why are some treatment programs more effective than others Why has the world continued to experience a steady increase in the rate of addiction and self destruction Why is it that 1 in 2 Americans has a diagnosable mental disorder each year and 81 Americans commit suicide every day Why do non Hispanic blacks bear a disproportionate burden of disease injury death and disability Why do the most successful treatment programs for addicts have a spiritual component Why do non white people suffer from a high rate of substance abuse and self destruction Why does Africa have the highest rate of suicide poverty and disease in the world Why are some treatment programs more effective than others Etc In a unique blend of psychology psychiatry metaphysics medicine orient and western religions The Healing Power Of Self Love provides answers to these and many more questions In making its revolutionary contribution to the scientific world it also explains how addicts can enhance their chances of recovery from addiction through the treatment programs of their choice by utilizing the ancient tools of discipline lateral thinking and insight from the life experiences of the world s greatest leaders Even though this book was initially designed to meet the needs of alcoholics and drug addicts in treatment it may be of great value to people who are struggling with other types of addiction and those who are faced with major obstacles to their self realization or self actualization

The Healing Power of Affirmation Ralph A. DiOrio, 1986

Take The Hard Path To Heal: Easy Never Built Anything Worth It Sybex Books, 2025-06-24 Healing isn t always soft Sometimes it s the hardest thing you ll ever do Take The Hard Path To Heal is a raw unfiltered look at the deep inner work that doesn t always feel good but leads to real freedom It s about choosing discomfort now so you don t stay stuck forever There s a version of healing that sells well bubble baths journaling and quiet mornings And while those moments matter this book is about the part most people avoid the confronting conversations the habits you have to break the grief you finally sit with instead of numbing it You ll walk the path of truth The one that asks more from you than you think you can give but rewards you with clarity strength and wholeness on the other side It s not easy But easy never built anything worth keeping This book isn t about glamorizing pain It s about honoring the process Because the hardest thing isn t feeling the wound it s deciding not to keep reopening it every time life presses on it You re capable of walking through what you once avoided You re capable of healing fully not halfway And when you take the hard path you discover that the version of you who comes out on the other side is not just healed but unshakable

Choi,2000 Based on a close reading of New Testament passages Choi counters the theses on repentance and restitution proposed by New Testament scholar E P Sanders Stories of Sacred Love: Tales of Compassion, Courage, and Community Silas Mary,2025-01-21 Stories of Sacred Love brings together powerful narratives that illustrate the transformative power of love in its many forms compassion courage and community Through these inspiring tales you ll learn how divine love manifests in everyday life and how it can bring healing connection and transformation Whether it s a story of sacrifice a moment of unexpected kindness or an act of courage these stories highlight the profound impact of love in the world This book serves as a reminder that love in all its forms is sacred and that through love we connect with the divine Stories of Sacred Love is for anyone looking to be inspired by the power of love to heal build community and strengthen their faith Contemporary Review ,1887

Bushnell Centenary General Association of Connecticut,1902 Minutes of the General Association of Connecticut at the One Hundred and Ninety-third Annual Meeting Held in Hartford, June 17, 18, 1902 General Association of Connecticut,1902 Boundless Grace Chris N van der Merwe,2024-05-01 The message of the New Testament is that Jesus took the punishment of sin meant for men upon Himself to redeem those who believe in Him This belief in the transference of suffering from men to Jesus creates a myriad of questions for many people Was Jesus s brutal death truly necessary Why do God require a sacrifice instead of just forgiving unconditionally Is God the Father restricted in His willingness to forgive The idea of heaven and hell stirs up doubt and fear in many fear for the eternal damnation of hell and doubt if they will ever be able to make it to heaven How could a loving God the God of love who is preached by the Christian faith allow for people to go to hell The author gives no pretence that he has the definitive answers to all these difficult questions or that he could fully uncover the extensive meaning of what the life death and resurrection of Jesus truly entails But he sincerely hopes the new thoughts that these writings might evoke will cast some light on these darker questions for those who struggle with them

Enchanted Calvinism Adam Mohr,2013 Enchanted Calvinism s surprising central proposition is that Ghanaian Presbyterian communities have become more enchanted i e attuned to spiritual explanations of and remedies for suffering as they have become more integrated into capitalist modes of production Enchanted Calvinism s central proposition is that Ghanaian Presbyterian communities both past and present have become more enchanted more attuned to spiritual explanations of and remedies for suffering as they have become integrated into capitalist modes of production The author draws on a Weberian concept of religious enchantment to analyze the phenomena of spiritual affliction and spiritual healing within the Presbyterian Church of Ghana particularly under the conditions of labor migration first in the early twentieth century during the cocoa boom in Ghana and second at the turn of the twenty first century in their migration from Ghana to North America Relying on extensive archival research oral interviews and participant observation conducted in North America Europe and West Africa this study demonstrates that the more these Ghanaian Calvinists became dependent on capitalist modes of production the more enchanted their lives and subsequently their church became although in different ways within these two migrations One striking pattern that has emerged among Ghanaian Presbyterian labor migrants in North America for example is a radical shift in gendered healing practices where women have become prominent healers while a significant number of men have become spirit possessed Adam Mohr is Senior Writing Fellow in Anthropology in the Critical Writing Program at the University of Pennsylvania Find Your Peace Rodica Malos,2020 Your best prescription goes beyond science This book will help transform your way of thinking and give you tools to change your life and even your eternity It will help you cope with stress and others and change the world around you Despite health care professionals constant efforts to educate entice advise convince indoctrinate and persuade patients with smooth talk bribes guilt and manipulation to make people understand and follow medical advice the results are often minimal People continue to suffer from various diseases and chronic conditions Many still die prematurely from high levels of stress caused by fear worry anxiety and depression Even with so much knowledge the gaps in the way people manage stressors in their daily lives needs to be addressed In Find Your Peace Dr Rodica Malos tackles this universal topic head on Brimming with medical research basic brain chemistry and scriptural wisdom this powerful encouraging book reveals how the divine design of the human body functions most perfectly when a person s thought life aligns with God s instructions prescriptions beyond science God s divine prescriptions and timeless truths will transform comfort sustain and heal Readers will learn to confront their fear anxiety and depression with supernatural resources and develop a healthier lifestyle full of blessings and peace
