Islamic Political Thought Antony Black,2001 The History of Islamic Political Thought offers a full description and an interpretation of political philosophy from early Islam to the current age of Fundamentalism 622 AD to 2000 AD Antony Black takes the same approach as scholars usually do for the history of Western political thought examining the mentality cultural milieu and political background of thinkers and statesmen He covers the relationship of politics to religion law ethics philosophy and statecraft as expressed through treatises occasional writings official rhetoric popular slogans and other evidence of how people thought about authority and order      Jews, Visigoths and Muslims in Medieval Spain Norman Roth,2024-04-02 Jews settled in medieval Spain at least by the third century and under the Christian Visigoths sixth to eighth centuries suffered increasing hostility and persecution from which they were saved by the Muslim invasion 711 This book details the relations between Jews and the Visigoths and then with the Muslims both in Muslim Spain proper al Andalus and in later Christian Spain to the fifteenth century It examines both the positive and negative aspects of those relations drawing on a variety of sources many of which are here utilized for the first time Political socio economic scientific cultural literary and even sexual aspects of the history of the interaction between Jews and Visigoths and Jews and Muslims provide hopefully a new insight into a period of great importance in history      Islam and the Blackamerican Sherman A. Jackson,2005-04-14 Dismissing the idea that an African connection explains the spread of Islam amongst African Americans Sherman Jackson explores the complex factors that have given rise to the Black Muslim movement finds answers in both African American religious traditions the doctrines of the faith      The Mediaeval Islamic Underworld, Volume 2 Arabic Jargon Texts: the Qasīda Sāsāniyyas of Abū Dulaf and safi d- Dīn Clifford Edmund Bosworth,2023-09-29      Islamic Humanism Lenn E. Goodman,2005-11-24 This book is an attempt to explain how in the face of increasing religious authoritarianism in medieval Islamic civilization some Muslim thinkers continued to pursue essentially humanistic rational and scientific discourses in the quest for knowledge meaning and values Drawing on a wide range of Islamic writings from love poetry to history to philosophical theology Goodman shows that medieval Islam was open to individualism occasional secularism skepticism even liberalism      The General History of Drugs, Volume Two, Part One Antonio Escobedo,2018-10-30 The first English translation of La historia de las drogas by Antonio Escobedo      Prohibitions and Psychoactive Substances in History, Culture and Theory Susannah Wilson,2019-05-16 This volume is a new contribution to the dynamic scholarly discussion of the control and regulation of psychoactive substances in culture and society Offering new critical reflections on the reasons prohibitions have historically arisen the book analyses prohibitions as ambivalent and tenuous interactions between the users of psychoactive substances and regulators of their use This original collection of essays engages with contemporary debates concerning addiction intoxication and drug regulation and will be of interest to scholars in the arts humanities and social sciences interested in narratives of prohibition and their social and cultural meanings The Chobanids of Kastamonu

Bruno De Nicola, 2024-02-06 This book provides a novel approach to the history of medieval Anatolia by analysing political religious and cultural developments in the region of Kastamonu during the reign of the Chobanid dynasty c 1211 1309 During the 13th century the Chobanids consolidated a local dynasty in western Anatolia a borderland between Islam and Christianity becoming cultural actors patronising the production of religious scientific and administrative works in the Persian language These works though surviving today in manuscript form have received little attention in modern historiography The book therefore attends to this gap in the research incorporating a detailed study of texts by little known authors from the time The book explores the relationship between Islam and the Chobanid dynasty in the context of the wider process of Islamisation in medieval Anatolia hypothesising that Turkmen dynasties played a fundamental role in this process of Islamisation and acculturation The Chobanids of Kastamonu then offers an in depth study of a Turkmen local dynasty that achieved political autonomy financial independence and cultural patronage in medieval Anatolia vis vis the main political powers of the time Attentive to religious diversity state formation and processes of transculturation in medieval Anatolia the book is key reading for scholars of Middle Eastern history and Islamic studies The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons CC BY 4.0 license Cannabis Martin

1990 The Encyclopedia of Homosexuality brings together a collection of outstanding articles that were at the time of this book's original publication classic pioneering and recent Together the two volumes provide scholarship on male and female homosexuality and bisexuality and reaching beyond questions of physical sexuality they examine the effects of homophilia and homophobia on literature art religion science law philosophy society and history Many of the writings were considered to be controversial and often contradictory at that time and refer to issues and difficulties that still exist today This volume contains entries from A L

Taming Cannabis David Alan Guba Jr, 2020-09-23 Despite having the highest rates of cannabis use in the continent France enforces the most repressive laws against the drug in all of Europe Perhaps surprisingly France was once the epicentre of a global movement to medicalize cannabis specifically hashish in the treatment of disease In Taming Cannabis David Guba examines how nineteenth century French authorities routinely blamed hashish consumption especially among Muslim North Africans for behaviour deemed violent and threatening to the social order This association of hashish with violence became the primary impetus for French pharmacists and physicians to tame the drug and deploy it in the homeopathic treatment of mental illness and epidemic disease during the 1830s and 1840s Initially heralded as a wonder drug capable of curing insanity cholera and the plague hashish was deemed ineffective against these diseases and fell out of repute by the middle 1850s The association between hashish and Muslim violence however remained and became codified in French colonial medicine and law by the 1860s authorities framed hashish as a significant cause of mental illness violence and anti state resistance among indigenous Algerians As the French government looks to reform the nation's drug laws to address the rise in drug related incarceration and the growing popular demand for cannabis legalization Taming Cannabis provides a timely and fascinating exploration of the largely untold and living history of cannabis in colonial France

"Off the Straight Path" Elyse Semerdjian, 2008-12-08 The legal treatment of sexual behavior is a subject that receives little scholarly attention in the field of Middle East women's studies Important questions about the relationship between sexuality and the law and about the societies enforcing that relationship are rarely addressed in the current literature Elyse Semerdjian's Off the Straight Path takes a bold step toward filling that gap by offering a fascinating look at the historical progression of the treatment of illicit sex under Islamic law Semerdjian provides a comprehensive review of the concept of zina i.e sexual indiscretion by exploring the diverse interpretation of zina crime as presented in a variety of sources from the Qur'an and hadith to legal literature She then delves into the history of legal responses to zina within the specific community of Aleppo Syria Drawing on a wealth of shari'a court records Semerdjian provides a realistic view of Syrian society during the Ottoman period With vivid detail she describes specific women's lives and experiences as their cases are presented before the court Semerdjian argues that the actual treatment of zina crimes in the courts differs substantially from sentences prescribed by codified Islamic jurisprudence In contrast to the violent corporal punishments dictated in the Islamic legal code the courts often punished crimes of sexual indiscretion with nonviolent sentences such as removal from the community

Employing exceptional insight Off the Straight Path presents a powerful challenge to the traditional view of Islamic law enabling a richer understanding of Islamic society      The Occult World Christopher Partridge, 2014-12-05 This volume presents students and scholars with a comprehensive overview of the fascinating world of the occult It explores the history of Western occultism from ancient and medieval sources via the Renaissance right up to the nineteenth and twentieth centuries and contemporary occultism Written by a distinguished team of contributors the essays consider key figures beliefs and practices as well as popular culture      Consuming Habits Jordan Goodman, Andrew Sherratt, Paul E. Lovejoy, 2014-04-08 Covering a wide range of substances this new edition has been extensively updated with an updated bibliography and two new chapters on cannabis and khat Consuming Habits is the perfect companion for all those interested in how different cultures have defined drugs across the ages
