Social Context Of Economic Change In Britain Between Policy And Performance:

The Social Context of Economic Change in Britain Terrence Casey, 2002 This book examines a period of dramatic economic change in Britain during the Thatcher era

The Effects of Political Institutions on Varieties of Capitalism Matthew P. Arsenault, 2017-02-10 This book identifies and explores the mechanisms linking political institutions and variation in capitalist systems A strong correlation exists between varieties of political regimes and varieties of capitalism majoritarian political regimes are correlated with liberal market economies LMEs and consensus political regimes are correlated with coordinated market economies CMEs Still correlation is not causation Empirical findings illustrate that partisanship and policy legacies the number of political parties electoral rules and constitutional constraints are significant indicators of LMEs and CMEs Arsenault finds that majoritarian institutions create an environment of adversarial politics and strong competition between actors which makes credible commitment to nonmarket coordination mechanisms unlikely Consensus institutions on the other hand promote an atmosphere of cooperation and coordination between actors thus encouraging credible commitment to nonmarket coordination mechanisms Qualitative case studies of Germany Britain and New Zealand confirm the quantitative findings and suggest that political regimes were instrumental in shaping the economic adjustment paths of these countries during the era of liberalization in the 1980s

Windows Upon Planning History Karl Friedhelm Fischer, Uwe Altrock, 2018-05-15 Windows Upon Planning History delves into a wide range of perspectives on urbanism from Europe Australia and the USA to investigate the effects of changing perceptions and different ways of seeing cities and urban regions Fischer Altrock and a team of 13 distinguished authors examine how and why the ideologies and the processes of city making changed in modern and post modern times Illustrated with over 45 images the themes addressed in the book range from the changing outlook on Berlin's historic apartment districts and their demolition salvation and gentrification to how planning was deployed to support dictatorship from the shattering of myths like democracies totally departing from preceding dictatorships to the model of the post war modern city and its fate towards the end of the twentieth century The volume combines case studies of cities on three continents with reflections on the historiography and the state of planning history With a foreword by Stephen V Ward this book will appeal to a wide readership interested in the histories of planning architecture and cities

Encyclopedia of Modern Ethnic Conflicts Joseph R. Rudolph Jr., 2015-12-07 An indispensable reference that will help students understand the major ethnic conflicts that dominate the headlines and shape the modern world Since World War II significant conflicts have most often taken the form of acts of violence between ethnic or national communities inside individual states This two volume work uses case studies to explore some four dozen of those conflicts making it an ideal first stop reference for students and others who wish to quickly gain an understanding of ethnic struggles Content from the first edition is updated and new entries on recent conflicts have been added The set's geographical range which encompasses nearly every continent is matched by the diversity of the conflicts explored These include internal conflicts such as those experienced by African Americans in the United States and Muslims in France as well as separatist movements of groups like the Chechens in Russia and Bosnians in Yugoslavia. Headline making conflicts for example those in Mali and Syria are covered as well. The book is organized alphabetically by country and region. Each essay begins with a timeline and then explores the historical background, evolution, efforts to manage and significance of the conflict. Suggestions for follow up research and appendices of relevant primary source materials are also included.

Social Capital David Halpern, 2005. This work presents an introduction to the concept of social capital, a term which refers to the social networks, informal structures and norms that facilitate individual and collective action.

The Persuasion Industries Steven McKevitt, 2018-08-09. At the end of the twentieth century Britain was a consumer society. Commerce, intoxicating and addictive, had almost entirely colonized modern life. People were immersed in and ultimately defined by promotional culture. The things they consumed had overtaken class, religion, geography or occupation as the primary form of self identity and self expression. For much of the twentieth century all forms of brand communication, from political campaigning to product advertising, were based on the theory of rational appeals to rational consumers. There was only one problem with this theory: it was wrong. The Persuasion Industries: The Making of Modern Britain examines developments in marketing, advertising, public relations and branding. It explores the role they played in the emergence of the consumer society. New ideas from fields of behavioural psychology and economics, together with internal developments such as planning, positioning and corporate branding, allowed persuasion to become the driving force within many commercial enterprises. Together these changes led to the emergence of an alternative emotional model of brand communication. A simple idea that proved so compelling it changed the world we live in.

Topographies of Suffering Jessica Rapson, 2015-08-01. Commentary on memorials to the Holocaust has been plagued with a sense of monument fatigue, a feeling that landscape settings and national spaces provide little opportunity for meaningful engagement between present visitors and past victims. This book examines the Holocaust via three sites of murder by the Nazis: the former concentration camp at Buchenwald, Germany; the mass grave at Babi Yar, Ukraine; and the razed village of Lidice, Czech Republic. Bringing together recent scholarship from cultural memory and cultural geography, the author focuses on the way these violent histories are remembered, allowing these sites to emerge as dynamic transcultural landscapes of encounter in which difficult pasts can be represented and comprehended in the present. This leads to an examination of the role of the environment, or more particularly the ways in which the natural environment co-opted in the process of killing becomes a medium for remembrance.

The Past is a Future Country Edward Dutton, J.O.A. Rayner-Hilles, 2022-06-30. Since the 1960s the West has moved ever leftwards. Equality and feelings are central to the New Religion that rejects all traditional values. Yet beneath the institutionally dominant Left stews a growing and restless Right. How has this fractured situation come about? What will the future hold? In The Past is a Future Country the authors trace it back to the Industrial Revolution. Darwinian selection massively weakened meaning, that for the first time in history the selfish sick and stupid could survive and reproduce undermining our religious group oriented culture Now the West is scourged by an epidemic of narcissists competing to signal their individuality and moral superiority But their fight for equality is really a fight for self promotion Reflecting this runaway individualism Westerners increasingly don't have children save for those who are genetically resistant to this onslaught the staunchly conservative and religious the eventual inheritors of the earth But there is a dark storm brewing in the demographic data that the authors have analysed There is a burgeoning growth in the population of exceptionally unintelligent and antisocial people that social welfare systems cannot sustain for much longer The developed world will pass away and the global population that depends on it will crash in the greatest Malthusian Collapse of all time Yet all is not lost The authors show how a resistant class of intelligent religious conservatives will band together to preserve enclaves of civilization that may survive most of the coming apocalypse and from its ashes rebuild a new world A Neo Byzantium Forthcoming Books Rose Army,2003-04 Between Policy and Performance

Terrence Collier Casey,2000 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2009 Newsletter ,1999

Foundations of Economic Change Andreas Pyka,Uwe Cantner,2017-11-15 The book illustrates the considerable advances in modern evolutionary economics and addresses core questions of economic behaviour interaction of heterogeneous actors in uncertain environments and the possibility of aggregating observations on a macro economic level It presents the foundations of economic change as the major building blocks of an economic approach that focusses on complex processes driven by endogenous innovation as well as crisis The theoretical considerations are complemented by econometric studies to demonstrate the relevance of evolutionary economic thinking to improve our understanding of the most challenging issues related to economic growth and development Spatial Planning Systems of Britain and France

Philip Booth,Michelle Breuillard,Charles Fraser,Didier Paris,2007-03-12 Exploring the similarities and differences between the spatial planning in Great Britain and France this book draws on the outcomes of the Franco British Planning Study Group It features detailed analysis and case studies Advances in Health Economics Anthony Scott,Alan Maynard,Robert Elliott,2005-12-13 It would be difficult to overstate the standing of the authors Many HERU alumni are among the most highly esteemed health economists in the world Steve Morgan University of British Columbia This is a series of essays to mark the 25 anniversary of HERU Existing and former HERU staff write about their special interests and work records This book addresses many current policy issues which exist in the Scottish and English National Health System HERU is one of the leading health economic institutes in the UK Contributors are all distinguished members of the health economics community Covers a wide range of issues that are relevant to the application of health economics now and into the future
