The Politics of Charity Kerry O'Halloran, 2011-04-06 For the first time since 1601 a number of leading common law nations have almost simultaneously chosen to revise and place on the statute books the law relating to charity The Politics of Charity examines the reasons for this and for the varying legislative outcomes This book examines the legal framework and political significance of charity as developed within England Wales contrasts this with the experiences of other common law nations and explores the resulting implications for government sector relationships in those countries It suggests that charity law lies at the heart of the relationship between government and the non profit sector that there is an unmistakeable political agenda driving charity law reform and that the differential in legislative outcomes reflects important differences in the policies pursued by the governments concerned Looking at fundamentally different approaches of government towards the sector in the UK Ireland the US New Zealand Canada Singapore and Australia O Halloran argues the results will have implications for the present workings of parliamentary democracy The Politics of Charity will be a valuable resource for academics regulators and legal practitioners as well as advanced and postgraduate students in law politics and public policy

Health Promoting Settings in the 21st Century: New Approaches and Competencies to Address Complexity and Inequity in an Increasingly Globalized World Peter Delobelle, Nastaran Keshavarz Mohammadi, Irma Brito, 2024-05-28 The Ottawa Charter specifies that health promotion has to be facilitated in schools homes workplaces and community settings because health is created and lived by people within the settings of their everyday life where they learn work play and love COVID 19 had a profound impact on people's lives and settings based approaches have been developed in different shapes and formats COVID 19 has also highlighted social vulnerabilities and laid bare how structural drivers of health inequity interact with class race ethnicity gender and education Evidence is needed to document how these determinants can be addressed using settings based approaches and how new settings such as digital media theories and frameworks can be used to tailor context appropriate strategies Evidence is also needed to address challenges related to sustainability resilience and adaptation of complex systems in view of global health issues such as geopolitical instability climate change and migration as well as competencies needed to address them

Social Work Models, Methods and

Theories Paul Stepney, Deirdre Ford, 2000 In a climate for practice increasingly shaped by global economic and social forces the importance of a reflective discourse about the place of theory in practice is paramount This book argues how social work can be a credible and relevant factor in the lives of people who use its services Family Care of Older People in Europe Ian Philp, 2001 Developing appropriate responses to an ageing population is recognized by policy makers throughout the developed world as a top priority as is the vital contribution made by family caregivers However cultural demographic and organizational differences between countries have encouraged diverse patterns of response to this common challenge This book provides a systematic cross cultural analysis of contemporary patterns and future trends in all major countries of the European Union Additional interest is provided by including Poland emerging from the post Communist block as the country at the forefront for joining the European Union The book should be useful to European policy makers and academics involved in studying the health and social care needs of older people and the capacity contribution and needs of family caregivers who provide care to older people The book is also relevant for policy makers and researchers in other countries mostly in North America and Australia who wish to study European approaches to supporting older people and family caregivers Guide to Taxation, Public Finance, and Related Literature , 1977
