Entrepreneurship Training in Rural Parts of Bihar/India Tobias Aberle, 2020-05-11 Tobias Aberle examines how an entrepreneurship training helps disadvantaged youths in rural parts of Bihar India to cope with structural conditions that enable or constrain them The present research reveals that young entrepreneurs can be divided into two groups those who developed personal initiative and thus coped with limiting structural conditions very proactively and those who solely behaved in a reactive way For many entrepreneurs the self employed activity was only a Plan B as in reality they sought for high prestige career jobs IFor entrepreneurship training to become a tool of empowerment the range of training must be significantly adjusted in accordance with young trainees social and educational backgrounds In addition a functioning ecosystem for entrepreneurship education must be in place which ensures support for individual entrepreneurs through mentorship and networks Family and Human Development Across Cultures Cigdem Kagitcibasi, 2014-03-05 The culmination of 15 years of research by a Turkish psychologist who was educated in the West this volume examines both the theoretical and practical aspects of cross cultural psychology It takes a contextual developmental functional approach linking the child family and society as they are embedded in culture A refreshingly different view the author presents a portrait of human development from the other side from the perspective of the majority world In a world seemingly dominated by American psychology she proposes the cross cultural orientation as a corrective to the culture boundedness of much of Euro American psychology Analyzing human development in context while avoiding the pitfalls of extreme relativism this work studies development with an inclusive holistic and ecological perspective focusing on the development of the self and of competence In so doing it also attempts to combine cultural contextualism with universalistic standards and psychological processes It proposes a theory of family change which challenges some commonly held modernization assumptions and links theory and application while examining the role of psychology in inducing social change Family, Self, and Human Development Across Cultures Cigdem Kagitcibasi, 2007-03-09 Reflecting author gdem Kagitasi s influential work over the last two decades this new edition examines human development the self and the family in a cultural context It challenges the existing assumptions in mainstream western psychology about the nature of individuals The author proposes a new model the Autonomous Related Self which Lithuanian Society in Transition Laima Zilinskiene, Sigita Kraniauskiene, Melanie Ilic, 2024-12-31 Lithuanian Society in Transition examines the life experiences formed during the process of post socialist transformation in Lithuania by analysing the peculiarities of the life course of the cohort of young people born between 1980 and 2000 This book considers how various different components of post Soviet system transformation and more recent events such as the COVID 19 pandemic determine youth experiences and how these experiences are reflected in the generations born between 1980 and 2000 It explores how far these generations see themselves as distinct generations with distinctive identities how far any sense of a distinctive identity is based on political criteria or on technological changes demography and lifestyle and how far recent geopolitical events have had an impact on the identities of these younger generations Drawing on detailed evidence from a corpus of specially commissioned life history interviews the individual chapters uncover self reflexive generational identities and set these in the broader context of both specific local generational identities and more global generation identifiers Offering a rich analysis on social change in a key post Soviet country following the collapse of communism this book will be useful for researchers in sociology and social policy history Russia and Former Soviet Union European studies and ethnic studies In Pursuit of the Quality of Life Avner Offer, 1996 Is wealth the same as happiness How is the quality of life to be evaluated measured and most importantly achieved The authors provide provocative and engaging answers to these questions in this new multidisciplinary and pragmatic approach to an important area of social research Taking the individual as the point of departure the authors consider both objective circumstances and their subjective impact on people s lives Prominent authors from an array of different academic disciplines discuss the quality of life as viewed from their distinctive perspectives these include the psychology of subjective well being destitution and basic needs the environment women and the family illness and health employment and work and the role of the state

Becoming Tongan Helen Morton, 1996-08-01 In this first detailed account of growing up in Tonga Helen Morton focuses on the influence of anga fakatonga the Tongan way in all facets of Tongan childhood from the antenatal period to late adolescence Childhood is a crucial period when cultural identity and notions of tradition are constructed as well as beliefs about self personhood and emotion Based on her anthropological fieldwork and her experiences in Tonga over several years Morton traces the Tongan socialization process from being vale ignorant socially incompetent to becoming potu clever socially competent in fascinating detail The socialization of emotion is also given detailed attention especially the management of anger and emphasis on emotional restraint Money, Morals, and Manners Michèle Lamont, 1992-10-15

Appendix IV Ranking of Respondents on the Cultural Moral and Socioeconomic Dimensions The Power of Student Agency Anindya Kundu, 2020-07-10 How can we promote the learning and well being of all students especially those who come from some of the most disadvantaged backgrounds Anindya Kundu argues that we can fight against deeply rooted inequalities in the American educational system by harnessing student agency each person's unique capacity for positive change To make his case Kundu draws powerful narratives from a population of individuals who beat the odds to become academically and professionally successful These strivers have overcome challenges such as broken families homelessness unexpected pregnancies forms of abuse incarceration and more to make it in the world But it wasn't simply individualism tenacity resilience or grit that helped them Rather as Kundu illustrates it was a combination of social and cultural supports that paved the path towards their dreams harnessing the inherent power of their agency Book Features A counter narrative to the popular misconception that all students need is grit A strengths based approach to education that is sensitive to students communities and cultures Rich first person quotes from individuals who have overcome immense odds Useful diagrams for educational stakeholders on the relationship between grit and agency Descriptions of dense sociological concepts presented in plain terms Inclusion of fundamental and new waves in psychology Social Europe Joe Bailey, 2014-06-03 Since the first edition of Social Europe was published in 1992 profound social changes have occurred throughout Europe as a result of conflicting pressures on the one hand to become more integrated and on the other to protect national interests and identity This second edition of Social Europe has been fully revised to provide a comprehensive and focused account of basic social issues and structures which provide the context for these changes Each chapter covers a key topic such as education crime gender health and religion and provides valuable comparisons between the key nation states of Western Europe
