Social Transition In China:

Land Use Transitions and Rural Restructuring in China Hualou Long, 2020-05-27 Intended as a comprehensive guide to the study of land use and rural development this book offers detailed descriptions of land use transitions and rural restructuring To do so it chiefly focuses on three main aspects the first of which is the application of geographical perspectives in order to understand rural issues in connection with urbanization industrialization globalization and rural vitalization strategies in contemporary China Secondly it presents a rich blend of regional and national analyses detailed explorations of local cases and critical and theoretically informed discussions that address historical paths and future projections Lastly it adapts concepts derived from western literature to situations and experiences in rural China and provides empirical evidence from an insider perspective Given its scope the book offers a valuable resource for researchers and for graduate students courses in geography and sociology

China's Transition from Communism - New Perspectives Guoguang Wu, Helen Lansdowne, 2015-11-06 As China moved from a planned to a market economy many people expected that China's political system would similarly move from authoritarianism to democracy It is now clear however that political liberalisation does not necessarily follow economic liberalisation This book explores this apparent contradiction presenting many new perspectives and new thinking on the subject It considers the path of transition in China historically makes comparisons with other countries and examines how political culture and the political outlook in China are developing at present A key feature of the book is the fact that most of the contributors are China born Western trained scholars who bring deep knowledge and well informed views to the study

NGOs in China and Europe Yuwen Li, 2016-05-06 This volume presents a comparison of the experiences of NGOs in China and Europe The chapters on China contain the most comprehensive and up to date analysis of various types of NGOs currently active in the country The contributions on foreign NGOs in China non governmental think tanks public interest legal organizations labour related NGOs and charity organizations are the first in English to discuss successful experiences as well as the difficulties they face in the post Mao era The European studies draw examples from countries where the experiences of NGOs are at various stages of development The section on NGOs in Central and Eastern Europe examines the rapid expansion of civil society and their pivotal role in promoting political change and building democracy in a transitional society as well as the challenges they confront in advancing a strong civil society Those chapters on NGOs experiences in Western European countries especially in the Netherlands and the UK provide insightful information and examination of the most contentious issues concerning NGOs accountability governance and relationship with the government

Medical Transitions in Twentieth-Century China Bridie Andrews, Mary Brown Bullock, 2014-08-14 Rich insights into how one country has dealt with perhaps the most central issue for any human society the health and wellbeing of its citizens The Lancet This volume examines important aspects of China's century long search to provide appropriate and effective health care for its people Four subjects disease and healing encounters and accommodations institutions and professions and people's health organize discussions across case studies of schistosomiasis tuberculosis mental health and tobacco and health Among the book's significant conclusions are the importance of barefoot doctors in disseminating western medicine the improvements in medical health and services during the long Sino-Japanese war and the important role of the Chinese consumer This is a thought provoking read for health practitioners historians and others interested in the history of medicine and health in China Social Transition in China

Zhang Jie,1998-07-30 Social Transition in China brings together the views of eleven Chinese scholars as presented at the International Symposium on Socio-Economic Transition and Cultural Reconstruction in China These contributors combine first-hand knowledge of China with study in the United States to provide qualified assessments of the social changes brought about in China by the economic reform begun by Deng Xiaoping They examine the change to a free market a more democratic government and the modernization of China through the details of political change the rural atmosphere and the attitudes held by the people of contemporary China The Expanding Roles of Chinese Americans in U.S.-China Relations Peter Koehn,Xiao-Huang Yin,Xiao-huang Yin,2015-02-12 This book addresses the historical and contemporary involvement of Chinese Americans from diverse walks of life in U.S.-China relations The contributors present new evidence and fresh perspectives on familiar and unfamiliar national and transnational networks including families businesspersons community newspapers students lobbyists philanthropists and scientists and consider the likely future impact of such contacts on the most important bilateral relationship at the start of the new millennium The volume makes a multidisciplinary contribution to understanding the extensive and vital roles and promise of Chinese Americans at this critical juncture in U.S.-China relations and to revealing the importance of migrants as actors in contemporary global politics The assessments shared by the contributors suggest that the nature and scope of the Chinese American involvement particularly in global civil society networks increasingly will determine the outcome of state-to-state relations between the United States and the PRC

Societal Development in Rural China Wenrong Qian,2019-07-19 This book provides a broad survey of Chinese rural households examining ongoing changes in Chinese society and economy through the lens of the situation of rural families in China Based on data from Zhejiang University's China Rural Household Panel Survey CRHPS in 2015 on rural households which analyses all aspects of grass roots rural households in China this volume offers a scientific analysis of social development in rural China exploring notably the basic structure employment situation income and expenditure social security and education situation of Chinese rural households as well as the governance and public services of rural communities A Sociological Analysis of Depression in China I-Hsin Hsiao,2020-09-10 This book explores the relationship between macro social structure social construction and micro healthcare behaviors It constructs a two-layered and two-faceted sociological analytical framework to analyze the causes of depression in China and account for the comparatively low rate of depression in the country and provides a sociological interpretation of depression in China from a global perspective that has rarely been adopted in previous sociological studies in China Presenting first hand data and case studies it describes and analyzes patients subjective experience and actions as well as physicians viewpoints It also includes interviews with 34 patients 4 family members 3 psychological consultants and 5 psychiatrists Offering an integrated interpretation of depression in China from the perspectives of sociology medical science and psychology this book is intended primarily but not exclusively for the growing body of researchers and students who are looking for ways of analyzing depression especially in China It is also a valuable resource for practitioners working in the field
