Social Protection In Asia The Pacific:

Enhancing Social Protection in Asia and the Pacific Sri Wening Handayani, 2011-02-01 On 21-22 April 2010 the Asian Development Bank ADB organized a social protection conference in Manila. Interest in social protection has been growing since the global financial crisis heightened awareness of the many millions of people in Asia and the Pacific who live in poverty or vulnerable situations. Thus policy makers are now keen to develop social protection systems that can assist people to both leave and stay out of poverty. The conference brought together people from ADB, its developing member countries, partner agencies, research institutes and civil society organizations to exchange valuable experience and information and discuss ideas on how to develop social protection and expand it for the well-being of people in Asia and the Pacific. This book features selected papers from the conference that respond to the need for integrated and inclusive social protection to improve the quality of people's lives and livelihoods. Specific areas emphasized are health insurance, pensions, the informal sector, measures targeting children and measuring and monitoring social protection.

The Promise of Protection United Nations. Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific, 2011. This Report aims to contribute to the policy discourse on the direction and impact of social protection in Asia and the Pacific. While many countries of the region have some form of social protection in place, only a fraction of those who need assistance actually benefit. Still, these programmes can act as the building blocks for more comprehensive social protection systems which can meet the needs of so many more. It then promotes universal coverage as a way to most effectively and proactively impact on people's lives and especially the most vulnerable groups in society. This Report also presents the political and economic case for social protection and the need to bring social protection into the mainstream of development policy formulation.

The Social Protection Index Asian Development Bank, 2013-06-01. Investments in social protection help to reduce poverty and vulnerability and promote inclusive growth. This report analyzes comprehensive data on government social protection programs in 35 countries in Asia and the Pacific. The Social Protection Index developed by the Asian Development Bank helps to assess the nature and the effectiveness of these programs and to facilitate cross-country comparisons. It provides governments with policy-relevant data and analysis to inform decisions concerning the reform and expansion of social protection programs.

Social Protection in Asia and the Pacific Isabel Ortiz, 2011. The publication is a practical and comprehensive manual for policy makers and professionals in the field of labour markets, social insurance, social assistance, micro and area-based schemes for the informal sector and child protection. The volume presents a menu of social protection interventions in each area and the way to prioritize them, assessing for each topic theoretical approaches and project design and implementation issues. The appendixes provide a thorough matrix summarizing social protection and labour policies.
