

SONG OF THE PADDLE

The background of the cover is a photograph of a person in a canoe on a calm body of water. The person is seen from behind, wearing a hat and outdoor gear. A large, dark, fallen tree branch hangs over the water from the right side. The water is still, reflecting the person and the branch. The overall atmosphere is misty and serene.

practice This timely book calls into question some of the underlying assumptions and truths about outdoor education putting forward alternatives to current practice that are responsive to local conditions and cultural traditions In this renewal of outdoor education philosophy and practice the emphasis is upon responding to and empathising with the outdoors as particular places rich in local meaning and significance Current outdoor education theory and practice is influenced by cultural ideas about risk and adventure and by psychological theories of personal and social development However in recent decades the professional discourse of outdoor education has made a noticeable shift to include education for the environment and nature This has resulted in a mismatch between theory and practice traditional notions of proving oneself against the challenges of the outdoors are antithetical to the development of an empathetic relationship with outdoor places which growing concern with today s environment demands This book is the first of its kind to articulate a renewal of philosophy and practice for outdoor education that is in keeping with the educational needs of today s young people as they grapple with considerable social and ecological changes in a rapidly changing world The authors draw extensively on international national and local literature and provide compelling case studies drawn from the Australian and New Zealand contexts

Voices for the Watershed Bruce M. Litteljohn, Gregor Gilpin Beck, 2000 Voices for the Watershed is a unique look at the singular and ecologically inter connected region of the Great Lakes St Lawrence watershed including the headwater and upland regions With contributions from experts from the United States Quebec and Ontario this book offers an accessible introduction to the issues affecting the quality of our most essential and precious of natural resources clean fresh water from headwater regions downstream to the Great lakes the St Lawrence river and ultimately the watershed s outflow to the sea With thoughtful words and evocative photography Voices for the Watershed promotes understanding and examines ecological problems describing positive environmental actions and projects as well as ongoing concerns over the effects of pollution on wildlife and human health The underlying themes throughout are that the drainage basins and ecosystems are under siege from reckless land use decisions soil erosion acid rain and massive habitat destruction but that the situation is not hopeless The authors feel strongly that education about the environmental threats in the classroom and public forums is essential to effecting positive change and that conservation actions by citizen groups and individuals can be a driving force in effecting substantial reforms regarding environmental legislation and practices Voices for the Watershed is an eye opening look at not only the problems but possible solutions to help protect and preserve this resilient natural resource on which so many depend Contributors include Gregor Beck Anne Bell Canadian Parks and Wilderness Society J Douglas Blakey Upper Canada College Serge Bourdon Chateauguay Watershed Management Agency Robert Brander retired U S Forest Service and National Park Service Dominique Brief Alliance for Environmental Management Louise Champoux Environment Canada Bruce Conn Berry College Kevin Coyle National Environmental Education and Training Foundation Brad Cundiff Wildlands League Jerry DeMarco Sierra Legal Defence Fund Jean Luc DesGranges Canadian Wildlife Service Thomas A Edsall Western
