Still Songs: Music In and Around the Poetry of Paul Celan Axel Englund, 2016-04-01 What does it mean for poetry and music to turn to each other in the shadow of the Holocaust as a means of aesthetic self-reflection How can their mutual mirroring of such paramount importance to German Romanticism be reconfigured to retain its validity after the Second World War These are the core questions of Axel Englund's book which is the first to address the topic of Paul Celan and music Celan a Jewish Holocaust

survivor who has long been recognized as one of the most important poets of the German language persistently evoked music and song in his oeuvre from the juvenilia to the posthumous collections Conversely few post war writers have inspired as large a body of contemporary music including works by Harrison Birtwistle Gyrgy Kurt g Wolfgang Rihm Peter Ruzicka and many others Through rich close readings of poems and musical compositions Englund s book engages the artistic media in a critical dialogue about the conditions of their existence In so doing it reveals their intersection as a site of profound conflict where the very possibility of musical and poetic meaning is at stake and confrontations of aesthetic transcendentality and historical remembrance are played out in the wake of twentieth century trauma The United States Catalog ,1924

Songs from an Ulster Valley Herbert Moore Pim,1920 Anthropology and the Politics of Representation Gabriela Vargas-Cetina,2013-02 This book examines the inherently problematic nature of representation and description of living people specifically in ethnography and more generally in anthropological work as a whole In this book the editor brings together a group of international scholars who through their fieldwork experiences reflect on the epistemological political and personal implications of their own work To do so they focus on such topics as ethnography anthropologists engagement in identity politics representational practices the contexts of anthropological research and work and the effects of personal choices regarding self involvement in local causes that may extend beyond purely ethnographic goals General Technical Report PSW. ,2005 Malicroix Henri Bosco,2020-04-07 Fans of the style of William Faulkner will want to read Henri Bosco four time nominee for the Nobel Prize in Literature Available in English for the first time Malicroix tells the story of a recluse living in the French countryside unraveling how he came to a life of solitude Henri Bosco like his contemporary Jean Giono is one of the regional masters of modern French literature a writer who dwells above all on the grandeur beauty and ferocious unpredictability of the natural world Malicroix set in the early nineteenth century is widely considered to be Bosco s greatest book Here he invests a classic coming of age story with a wild mythic glamour A nice young man of stolidly unimaginative good bourgeois stock is surprised to inherit a house on an island in the Rh ne in the famously desolate and untamed region of the Camargue The terms of his great uncle s will are even more surprising the young man must take up solitary residence in the house for a full three months before he will be permitted to take possession of it With only a taciturn shepherd and his dog for occasional company he finds himself surrounded by the huge and turbulent river always threatening to flood the island and surrounding countryside and the wind battering at his all too fragile house shrieking from on high And there is another condition of the will a challenging task he must perform even as others scheme to make his house their own Only under threat can the young man come to terms with both his strange inheritance and himself
