Sorcery And Shamanism Curanderos And Clients In Northern Peru:

Sorcery and Shamanism Donald Joralemon, Douglas Sharon, 1993 The curanderos of northern Peru traditional healing specialists who invoke Jesus Christ and the saints with a mescaline sacrament and a shamanic rattle are not vestigial curiosities nor are their patients rural illiterates without access to modern medicine Instead many of these shamans have thriving urban practices with clients from all levels of society Sorcery and Shamanism documents the lives and rituals of twelve curanderos offering a perspective on their curing role and shared knowledge Authors Donald Joralemon and Douglas Sharon also consider the therapeutic experiences of over one hundred patients including case histories and follow ups They offer a broad view of the shamans work in modern Peruvian society particularly in connection with gender based conflicts The significant work goes a long way toward dispelling the stereotype of shamans as enigmatic and wise showing them to be pragmatic curers confronting the health effects of everyday aggressions and betrayals

Ikehara-Tsukayama, Dawn Kriss, Joanne Pillsbury, 2023-05-05 Pottery is one of the world's most ancient and widespread technologies Containing the Divine: Ancient Peruvian Pots explores how ceramic vessels can convey meaning far beyond their practical use As this Bulletin attests before the implementation of writing as we understand it today Andean artisans used the shape and decoration of jars and bottles to communicate essential information for ritual practice and to promote the exchange of ideas The more than 40 evocative works featured in these pages represent some 2 500 years of creativity in ancient Peru with a focus on how these imaginative works served as conduits to worldly and divine power Providing a rich opportunity to reflect on devotional practices of the past and today Containing the Divine also shows how the legacy of these pots has inspired subsequent generations worldwide from nineteenth century British potters and French Post Impressionist Paul Gauguin to contemporary Peruvian artist Juan Javier Salazar

The Nature of Shamanism and the Shamanic Story Michael Berman, 2009-03-26 The book makes out a case for the introduction of a new genre of tale the shamanic story which has either been based on or inspired by a shamanic journey or contains a number of the elements that are typical of such a journey The stories featured are the Book of Jonah from the Old Testament two traditional stories from the Republic of Georgia The Earth will take its Own and David a contemporary German tale Bundles and the Korean story of Shimchong the Blindman's Daughter By making use of textual material from a number of different cultures and times the intention is to highlight the pervasive influence shamanism has had and to show how the new genre being proposed is a universal one The research questions addressed include 1 defining what shamanism is deciding whether it should be classified as a religion a methodology or a way of life 2 considering whether a case can be made out for the introduction of a new genre of tale and if so what its characteristics are It is hoped the book will be of interest not only to those involved in the study of shamanism but also to those whose interest is in the study of literary texts Since the old bearers of shamanic traditions quite often were and even today are illiterate the study of their folklore epic songs laments narratives undoubtedly provides a rich source for research

Korean Shamanism Chongho Kim,2018-01-18

Title first published in 2003 Shamanism has a contradictory position within the Korean cultural system leading to the periodical suppression of shamanism yet also paradoxically ensuring its survival throughout Korean history This book examines the place of shamans within contemporary society as a cultural practice in which people make use of shamanic ritual and disputing the prevalent view that shamanism is popular culture a women's religion or performing arts Directly confronting the prejudice against shamans and their paradoxical situation in a modern society such as Korea this book reveals the cultural discrepancy between two worlds in Korean culture the ordinary world and the shamanic world showing that these two worlds cannot be reconciled This unique study of shamanism offers a significant contribution to growing studies in indigenous anthropology and indigenous religions and provides a captivating read for a wide range of readers through retelling the stories never to be told involving shamanic ritual

Thunder Shaman Ana Mariella Bacigalupo,2016-05-17 As a wild drumming thunder shaman a warrior mounted on her spirit horse Francisca Kolipi's spirit traveled to other historical times and places gaining the power and knowledge to conduct spiritual warfare against her community's enemies including forestry companies and settlers As a civilized shaman Francisca narrated the Mapuche people's attachment to their local sacred landscapes which are themselves imbued with shamanic power and constructed nonlinear histories of intra and interethnic relations that created a moral order in which Mapuche become history's spiritual victors Thunder Shaman represents an extraordinary collaboration between Francisca Kolipi and anthropologist Ana Mariella Bacigalupo who became Kolipi's granddaughter trusted helper and agent in a mission of historical reconstruction and myth making The book describes Francisca's life death and expected rebirth and shows how she remade history through multitemporal dreams visions and spirit possession drawing on ancestral beings and forest spirits as historical agents to obliterate state ideologies and the colonialist usurpation of indigenous lands Both an academic text and a powerful ritual object intended to be an agent in shamanic history Thunder Shaman functions simultaneously as a shamanic bible embodying Francisca's power will and spirit long after her death in 1996 and an insightful study of shamanic historical consciousness in which biography spirituality politics ecology and the past present and future are inextricably linked It demonstrates how shamans are constituted by historical political and ecological events while they also actively create history itself through shamanic imaginaries and narrative forms

The Jaguar Within Rebecca R. Stone, 2012-09-21 An important new way of viewing the prehistoric art of the Americas The Jaguar Within demonstrates that understanding a work of art's connection with shamanic trance can lead to an appreciation of it as an extremely creative solution to the inherent challenge of giving material form to nonmaterial realities and states of being Shamanism the practice of entering a trance state to experience visions of a reality beyond the ordinary and to gain esoteric knowledge has been an important part of life for indigenous societies throughout the Americas from prehistoric times until the present Much has been written about shamanism in both scholarly and popular literature but few authors have linked it to another significant visual realm art In this pioneering study Rebecca R Stone considers how deep familiarity with and profound respect for the extraordinary visionary experiences of shamanism profoundly affected the artistic output of indigenous cultures in Central and South America before the European invasions of the sixteenth century Using ethnographic accounts of shamanic trance experiences Stone defines a core set of trance vision characteristics including enhanced senses ego dissolution bodily distortions flying spinning and undulating sensations synaesthesia and physical transformation from the human self into animal and other states of being Stone then traces these visionary characteristics in ancient artworks from Costa Rica and Peru She makes a convincing case that these works especially those of the Moche depict shamans in a trance state or else convey the perceptual experience of visions by creating deliberately chaotic and distorted conglomerations of partial inverted and incoherent images

Berman,2009-03-26 Stories have traditionally been classified as epics myths sagas legends folk tales fairy tales parables or fables However the definitions of the terms have a tendency to overlap making it difficult to classify and categorize material For this reason a case can be made for the introduction of a new genre termed the shamanic story a story that has either been based on or inspired by a shamanic journey a numinous experience in non ordinary reality or one that contains a number of the elements typical of such a journey Other characteristics include the way in which the stories all tend to contain embedded texts often the account of the shamanic journey itself how the number of actors is clearly limited as one would expect in subjective accounts of what can be regarded as inner journeys and how the stories tend to be used for healing purposes Within this new genre it is proposed that there exists a sub genre shamanic stories that deal specifically with divination and examples are presented and analysed to support this hypothesis By means of textual analysis it can be shown they all share certain attributes in common the identification of which forms the conclusion of the work Cave

Ecology and economics have Greek roots in oikos for household logos for study and nomics for management Thus ecology and economics should have complemented one another for a proper growth and development without destruction but unfortunately rapid industrialization lure for fast financial gains and commercialization activities have led to a widespread surge in pollution load environmental degradation habitat destruction rapid loss of biodiversity sudden rise in rate of extinction of many wildlife and wild relatives of domesticated animals and cultivated cereals and other plants global climate changes creating global rise in temperature and CO levels and increased ultraviolet B at ground 2 level Although these threats to human health have led us to look to ecology for their solutions and guidance for sustainable development without destruction the industrial and technology houses are looking for alternative methods of development and resource use methods The two global conferences of the United Nations in 1972 and 1992 and international programs of Man and the Biosphere MAB International Biological Program IBP International Geosphere Biosphere program IGBP and World Conservation Union IUCN of different commissions United Nations Environmental Program UNEP efforts Ramsar Conventions for wetlands and World Wide fund for Nature WWF for nature in general and wildlife in particular have focused attention of ecologists naturalists governments and Non governmental organizations NGOs toward better conservation Lightning in the Andes and Mesoamerica John E. Staller, Brian Stross, 2013-02-05 Lightning has evoked a numinous response as well as powerful timeless references and symbols among ancient religions throughout the world Thunder and lightning have also taken on various symbolic manifestations some representing primary deities as in the case of Zeus and Jupiter in the Greco Roman tradition and Thor in Norse myth Similarly lightning veneration played an important role to the ancient civilizations of Mesoamerica and Andean South America Lightning veneration and the religious cults and their associated rituals represent to varying degrees a worship of nature and the forces that shape the natural world The inter relatedness of the cultural and natural environment is related to what may be called a widespread cultural perception of the natural world as sacred a kind of mythic landscape Comparative analysis of the Andes and Mesoamerica has been a recurring theme recently in part because two of the areas of high civilization in the Americas have much in common despite substantial ecological differences and in part because there is some evidence of varying quality that some people had migrated from one area to the other Lightning in the Andes and Mesoamerica is the first ever study to explore the symbolic elements surrounding lightning in their associated Pre Columbian religious ideologies Moreover it extends its examination to contemporary culture to reveal how cultural perceptions of the sacred their symbolic representations and ritual practices and architectural representations in the landscape were conjoined in the ancient past Ethnographic accounts and ethnohistoric documents provide insights through first hand accounts that broaden our understanding of levels of syncretism since the European contact The interdisciplinary research presented herein also provides a basis for tracing back Pre Columbian manifestations of lightning its associated religious beliefs and ritual practices as well as its mythological symbolic iconographic and architectural representations to earlier civilizations This unique study will be of great interest to scholars of Pre Columbian South and Mesoamerica and will stimulate future comparative studies by archaeologists and anthropologists
