Souls In Stone European Graveyard Sculpture:

Souls in Stone Anne de Brunhoff, 1978-01-01 The Revival Styles in American Memorial Art Peggy McDowell, Richard E. Meyer, 1994 From the late eighteenth through the early twentieth centuries a sweeping movement in architectural and decorative taste dominated Western cultures Known collectively by the descriptive term Revival Styles this phenomenon which left a rich visual legacy upon the cultural landscapes of many nations exhibited three primary manifestations Classical chiefly Greek and Roman Gothic or Medieval and Egyptian or Near Eastern In America for a variety of reasons a significantly large amount of the creative energy inherent in the Revival movement was directed towards the conception and erection of spectacular monuments and memorials to prominent Americans Frequently designed and executed by the leading architects and sculptors of the day the great majority of these strikingly beautiful artifacts and structures were placed in the large rural cemeteries of American cities developed in the middle decades of the nineteenth century where they remain for future generations to analyze and admire In this richly illustrated volume art historian Peggy McDowell and folklorist Richard E Meyer blend their respective disciplinary perspectives along with their shared long standing fascination with cemeteries and funerary material culture to provide a thoroughgoing descriptive analysis of this dramatic chapter in the history of American memorial art BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved

Vance, 1983 Bennington Review ,1978 Cemeteries Gravemarkers Richard Meyer, 1992-11 Cemeteries house the dead but gravemarkers are fashioned by the living who record on them not only their pleasures sorrows and hopes for an afterlife but also more than they realize of their history ethnicity and culture Richard Meyer has gathered twelve original essays examining burial grounds through the centuries and across the land to give a broad understanding of the history and cultural values of communities regions and American society at large The Cemetery Book Tom Weil, 1993 Clasped Hands Leonard Victor Huber, 1982 Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress, 1980 Subject Catalog, 1978 Library of Congress, 1978 Art Books ,1979 Including an international directory of museum permanent collection catalogs Historic Gravestone Art of Charleston, South Carolina, 1695-1802 David R. Mould, Missy Loewe, 2015-02-18 Here lyes Buried the Body of MARTHA PERONNEAU Departed This Life December Ye 14th 1746 Aged 13 Years Such an inscription was typical of 18th century grave markers in Charleston South Carolina Many epitaphs went on to reveal much more about the deceased personality religious beliefs career accomplishments and social position Attention to social matters was a natural part of life in Charleston where descendants of the city's 17th century British founders sought to recreate the class conscious culture of aristocratic England. The merging of this culture with influences from French Huguenots, German Lutherans, Scottish Presbyterians and Spanish Jews led to funeral practices unique in the American colonies. Focusing on pieces created between 1695 and 1802, this volume offers a detailed examination of the tombstones and grave markers from 18th century Charleston. It discusses not only the general trends and the symbolism of the period's gravestone art such as skulls, portraits, ascending souls and stylized vegetation, but also examines specific instances of these popular motifs. Tombstones from Charleston's oldest and most significant churches, including the Circular Congregational Church, St. Philip's Anglican Church, the French Huguenot Church and the First Scots Presbyterian Church, are explored in detail. The work looks at how Charleston gravestones differed from funerary art elsewhere in the American colonies and reveals them to be some of the earliest examples of American sculpture. A guide to colonial gravestone symbols and a glossary of relevant Latin terms are also included. Mortal Remains Chris Brooks, 1989

Monumental Polovtsian Statues in Eastern Europe Aneta Golebiowska-Tobiasz, 2014-01-01. Stone statues indigenous to the early Turks appeared in the vast territory of the Asian steppes from Southern Siberia to Central Asia and across the foothills of the Ural Mountains. The custom originated among Cumans in Eastern Europe. The skill of erecting anthropomorphic stelae required proficiency in processing different kinds of stone and wood and was characterized by artistic value of representations as well as by the timeless aesthetics of the canon. The author presents the results of her formative studies into the collection of the Cuman sculptures of the Veliko Anadol Forest Museum, Ukraine. The book delves into the history of research on Cuman stone stelae, resulting in great reading for all archaeologists and historians alike.

Copyright Office, 1978. Subject Catalog Library of Congress, Prehistoric Art in Europe Nancy K. Sandars, 1995-01-01. Until around 10,000 BC, art in Europe appears to have been in advance of the rest of the world and throws light on the total history of early man. The great masterpieces of cave painting at Lascaux are well known, and one tradition of early sculpture is from the first surprisingly classical. With the shelter paintings of the Spanish Levant and the clay modelling and painted pottery of eastern Europe in the fourth and third millennia BC, fresh artistic problems were tackled. Later still evolved the high technical accomplishment of the metal workers, and this study concludes with an account of the new departures of Celtic La Tène art of the last four centuries BC.
