Story Of Selvinos Children Journey To The Promised Land:

The Story of the Selvino Children Aharon Megged, 2002 Fundamentally a documentary Selvino s Children describes the story of the rehabilitation of 800 Jewish children Holocaust survivors in the first few years after the Second Word War in a small town near Milano Selvino There Jewish Palestinian soldiers with the help of committed and well wishing Italians built an educational establishment that rehabilitated these children and prepared them for life in Israel The book gives a very interesting account of the children s elaborate journey before during and after Selvino The Story of the Selvino Children Aharon Megged, 2002 Fundamentally a documentary Selvino s Children describes the story of the rehabilitation of 800 Jewish children Holocaust survivors in the first few years after the Second Word War in a small town near Milano Selvino There Jewish Palestinian soldiers with the help of committed and well wishing Italians built an educational establishment that rehabilitated these children and prepared them for life in Israel The book gives a very interesting account of the children s elaborate journey before during and after Selvino Immigration to Palestine during the British Mandate (1922-1948) Yaacov Nir, 2021-10-19 This book explores the nature of the severe conflict over immigration in Palestine during the British Mandate 1922 1948 It considers the perspectives of the British authorities the Palestinian Jewish community and the Palestinian Arabs in their permanent opposition to Jewish immigration expressed through strikes demonstrations and revolt towards the Jewish community in Palestine as well as the British authorities It serves to contribute to a debate in the history of Palestine whilst seeping into other disciplines such as economics sociology law and maritime history The People on the Beach Rosie Whitehouse, 2020-12-15 Vividly traces the paths of Holocaust survivors who risked everything again to make a new life in Palestine Outcasts Susan M. Papp, 2009-03-23 In this story of love and loss Tibor Schroeder a Christian and reservist in the Hungarian forces allied with Nazi Germany and Hedy Weisz a young Jewish woman meet and fall in love during the Second World War a time when romantic liaisons and marriage between Christians and Jews were not only frowned upon but against the law Not knowing of the dangers that await them Tibor and Hedy pledge their lives to each other only to be torn apart when Hedy and her family are herded into one Nagyszollos ghettos Twenty five years pass before the lovers are finally reunited in Canada Based on true events this sprawling love story of hope courage and redemption will stay with readers long after finishing the book A documentary based on this story from Postmodern Productions is scheduled for release in March 2009 Child Migration and Biopolitics Beatrice Scutaru, Simone Paoli, 2020-07-28 This book provides a fresh interdisciplinary analysis into the lives of migrant children and youth over the course of the twentieth century and up to the present day Adopting biopolitics as a theoretical framework the authors examine the complex interplay of structures contexts and relations of power which influence the evolution of child migration across national borders The volume also investigates children s experiences views priorities and expectations and their roles as active agents in their own migration Using a great variety of methodologies archival research ethnographic observation interviews and sources drawings documents produced by governments and experts films and press the authors provide richly documented case studies which cover a wide geographical area within Europe both West Belgium France Germany and East Romania Russia Ukraine South Italy Portugal Turkey and North Sweden enabling a deep understanding of the diversity of migrant childhoods in the European context

The Cyprus Detention Camps Yitzhak Teutsch, 2019-07-23 Beginning in August 1946 stateless and visaless Jews most of them survivors of the Nazi death camps who sought to immigrate to the Land of Israel were intercepted by the Royal Navy and deported to the nearby island of Cyprus where they were detained in camps surrounded by barbed wire Despite occupying a dramatic and fateful position in modern history this saga has remained largely inaccessible due to the widespread dispersal of the primary sources and the linguistic difficulties presented by them To address these problems this book scrutinizes the scholarly literature consulting hundreds of primary sources many of them previously unknown on three continents bringing together interviews with scores of eyewitnesses and translating foreign language terms into English The result is a comprehensive meticulously footnoted guide that uses such tools as maps a detailed timeline and biographical entries to make this riveting saga accessible to a broad audience of scholars and general readers

The Melting Pot in Israel Zvi Zameret, Tsevi Tsameret, 2002-03-21 Covers early Israeli education policy regarding immigrant populations

Holocaust Literature: Lerner to Zychlinsky, index S. Lillian Kremer, 2003 Review This encyclopedia offers an authoritative and comprehensive survey of the important writers and works that form the literature about the Holocaust and its consequences The collection is alphabetically arranged and consists of high quality biocritical essays on 309 writers who are first second and third generation survivors or important thinkers and spokespersons on the Holocaust An essential literary reference work this publication is an important addition to the genre and a solid value for public and academic libraries The Top 20 Reference Titles of the Year American Libraries May 2004

#MeToo and Modernism Robin E. Field, Jerrica Jordan, 2023-01-16 MeToo and Modernism offers a blend of cultural historical literary and pedagogical responses applied to the themes behind today's ongoing MeToo Movement This volume is organized into four sections a three part chronological response in which scholars analyze literary understandings of how ripples of the MeToo Movement began to emerge in Modernist literature followed by a pedagogical section on how to incorporate such teachings in university classrooms Editors Robin E Field and Jerrica Jordan foreword the collection with an introduction answering the question of why such a volume is necessary in today's educational landscape The introduction summarizes the current scholarship regarding MeToo and Modernism while also uncovering the omissions particularly in approaching nonbinary or queer writers as well as writers of color that still exist as a response many of these essays attempt to approach these gaps Furthermore the introduction shows how more traditional Modernist writers including Woolf Forster Wells and Joyce served as forerunners of early glimmers of the MeToo Movement in Modernist Literature
