Patricia McLinn

Strangers A Family Romance:

Strangers Emma Tennant, 1998 Based on fact but told with the imagination of a novelist Strangers in the story of the author's family the Tennants

In the Company of Strangers Barry McCrea, 2011-06-14 In the Company of Strangers shows how a reconception of family and kinship underlies the revolutionary experiments of the modernist novel While stories of marriage and long lost relatives were a mainstay of classic Victorian fiction Barry McCrea suggests that rival countercurrents within these family plots set the stage for the formal innovations of Joyce and Proust Tracing the challenges to the family plot mounted by figures such as Fagin Sherlock Holmes Leopold Bloom and Charles Swann McCrea tells the story of how bonds generated by chance encounters between strangers come to take over the role of organizing narrative time and give shape to fictional worlds a task and power that was once the preserve of the genealogical family By investigating how the question of family is a hidden key to modernist structure and style In the Company of Strangers explores the formal narrative potential of queerness and in doing so rewrites the history of the modern novel

Keresztesi,2005-01-01 Strangers at Home reframes the way we conceive of the modernist literature that appeared in the period between the two world wars This provocative work shows that a body of texts written by ethnic writers during this period poses a challenge to conventional notions of America and American modernism By engaging with modernist literary studies from the perspectives of minority discourse postcolonial studies and postmodern theory Rita Keresztesi questions the validity of modernism s claim to the neutrality of culture She argues that literary modernism grew out of a prejudiced racially biased and often xenophobic historical context that necessitated a politically conservative and narrow definition of modernism in America With the changing racial ethnic and cultural makeup of the nation during the interwar era literary modernism also changed its form and content Contesting traditional notions of literary modernism Keresztesi examines American modernism from an ethnic perspective in the works of Harlem Renaissance immigrant and Native American writers She discusses such authors as Countee Cullen Nella Larsen Zora Neale Hurston Anzia Yezierska Henry Roth Josephina Niggli Mourning Dove D Arcy McNickle and John Joseph Mathews among others Strangers at Home makes a persuasive argument for expanding our understanding of the writers themselves as well as the concept of modernism as it is currently defined
