Social Partnerships For Training:

Social Partnerships for Training Andrew Sharpe, Rodney S. Haddow, 1997 Considers obstacles and opportunities associated with active labour market policies in Canada Social Partnership and Economic Performance Bernard Casey, Michael Gold, 2000-01-01 There has been a marked trend towards decentralisation of labour market regulation in many European countries This book assesses the impact of social partnership and social protection on the macroeconomic performance of member states of the EU Social Partnerships in Vocational Education Terri Seddon, Stephen Billett, 2004 The aim of this project was to examine the nature of social partnerships and how they may be relevant to the vocational education and training VET sector Vocational education and training which supports industry individuals and communities is increasingly identified as an important means of strengthening local communities This relatively recent role for the VET sector complements its long standing role in the development of skills and attitudes necessary for work This sector also offers second chance opportunities to those who had been unsuccessful at school or university p 4 Getting Skills Right Enhancing Training Opportunities in SMEs in Korea OECD, 2020-06-16 This report assesses whether training workers in small and medium sized enterprises SMEs in Korea is adequate relevant and aligned to skills needs

Education and Training Policy Promoting Adult Learning OECD, 2005-09-01 The OECD Report Promoting Adult Learning brings together key lessons from 17 OECD countries providing evidence on the strategies in place to improve adults participation in learning Social Dialogue in the Process of Structural Adjustment and Private Sector

Participation in Ports Peter J. Turnbull, 2006 Social dialogue describes a cooperative approach to labour relations that includes features such as information exchange consultation and negotiation This manual provides guidance on managing and facilitating these processes in the world's ports targeting particularly those who are involved in or are currently planning major programs of structural adjustment and private sector participation It is divided into two parts Part 1 focuses on the importance of social dialogue during periods of structural adjustment and the fact that it is an ongoing process Part 2 examines the different phases planning initiating implementing monitoring and evaluation and the activities associated with each phase Policy Concertation and Social Partnership in Western Europe Stefan Berger, Hugh Compston, 2002-02 Policy concertation the determination of public policy by means of agreements struck between governments employers and trade unions continues to thrive in Western Europe despite the impact of liberalizing trends that were expected to lead to its demise This volume brings together a team of 23 experts with the aim to undertake paired historical and political studies of policy concertation in ten West European countries which were then subjected to systematic comparative analysis It shows that overall the incidence of broad policy concertation in Western Europe can be explained by the changing configurations of just three variables Trade Unions and Workplace Training Richard Cooney, Mark Stuart, 2013-05-07 Trade Unions and Workplace Training examines the changing role of trade unions in the provision of vocational education workplace training and skill development It reflects upon the role that unions have played in the reform of vocational education and training systems the nature of union involvement in consultative mechanisms at a national and industry level the nature of union involvement in skill formation at the workplace and the development of mechanisms for the articulation of employee voice in the design delivery and assessment of vocational training The book provides a collection of studies of Canada Australia United States United Kingdom France Germany and Norway by leading researchers in the field Distinctive accessible and original all the chapters are written in a style that illustrates the relevance of academic debates and research data to practice and the book includes a number of the chapters written by trade union practitioners

European Labour Law and Social Policy Cases and Materials Volume 1 Social Dialogue Industrial Relations and Labour Law A.C. Neal,2002-08-01 This is the most comprehensive collection of primary source materials in the labour law and social policy of the European Community ever brought together With documents and decisions reflecting the state of play at 1st June 2002 it includes key legislative instruments in EC labour law and social policy significant associated policy documents produced by the Commission and important relevant decisions of the European Court of Justice Since the first edition of this work in 1999 the pace of social policy change and innovation at the level of the European Community has increased dramatically Indeed developments during the past three years are little short of remarkable with particularly important advances in relation to the promotion of information consultation and participation for workers along with growing concern for several much broader social policy issues Recognition of the changes in emphasis and scale for European social policy and the presence of substantially more material to be included have caused this edition of the work to be divided into two volumes Volume I covers social dialogue industrial relations and labour law while Volume II is concerned with a wide range of material touching dignity at work in the European Community The arrangement of the material in two self contained volumes also reflects a division of convenience Thus those whose main focus is upon the labour law aspects of European social policy may choose to utilise primarily the material contained in the first volume while those who wish to concentrate more particularly upon fundamental social rights equal opportunities anti discrimination and dignity at work might wish to take advantage of the framework presented in the second volume Advocates judges policy makers scholars and students will all appreciate this essential sourcebook in EC labour law and social policy Employment, Vocational Guidance and Training in the European Social Charter Council of Europe, European Committee of Social Rights, 1999-01-01 A No major gaps Social Partners and Gender Equality Anna Elomäki, Johanna Kantola, Paula Koskinen Sandberg, 2021-12-01 This book breaks new ground in gender and politics research by studying the multiple ways in which gender and intersectional equalities shape and are shaped by social partners representing employers and employees in Europe as well as the relationships between those social partners Little critical attention has been paid to these organizations yet as this volume illustrates social partners are important actors in relation to gender and other inequalities at the level of both individual European countries and the European Union The chapters in this volume explore the impact of social partners on in equalities in a variety of 21st century political contexts taking into account phenomena such as neoliberalisation austerity and the COVID 19 crisis This volume adds a crucial dimension to studies on gender inequalities in the labour market contributing to research on issues such as domestic work the gender pay gap and the persistent undervaluation of women s labour and feminized reproductive labour in particular care work It also represents a significant contribution to the literature on gender equality policy The book s focus on social partners provides important insights that help to explain the persistence of gender inequalities and the difficulties of adopting and implementing policies to combat them This volume should appeal to students and researchers of gender studies politics European politics employment relations and international relations as well as to policymakers engaged in addressing gender inequalities in the labour market PISA Vocational Education and Training (VET) Assessment and Analytical Framework OECD, 2024-03-19 This report presents the conceptual foundations of the OECD Programme for International Student Assessment PISA Vocational Education and Training VET currently in the Development Phase of implementation which aims to provide a comprehensive and rigorous international survey of student knowledge and skills that are essential for success in selected occupational areas
