Social Services For Older Persons:

Social Services for Older Persons Albert J. E. Wilson, 1984      Social Work with Older People Ann

McDonald, 2010-03-08 Social Work with Older People provides an authoritative and practical guide to working with older people in a range of settings. It addresses the complexities of individual work with older people as well as work with families, groups and the wider community and is not afraid to tackle the challenges as well as opportunities of practice in this area. The book begins by explaining the demographic changes that have led to a greying of the general population. It goes on to discuss the diversity in experiences of ageing across society and the range of issues which confront older people and those who wish to work proactively with them. Clear attention is paid to the processes of assessment, care planning and review with readers encouraged to reflect on developing good practice through case studies and exercises. Although it has a strong practical emphasis, the book also stresses the value of theoretical perspectives with insights from fields such as sociology and psychology woven throughout the book. Clear links are also made to policy guidelines and organizational standards without losing sight of the deeper, often more complex issues that arise when working with older people. Social Work with Older People will be essential reading for social work students and practitioners but also for others who are interested in the development of practice with older people as citizens and service users.

Social Work With Older People: Approaches To Person-Centred Practice Hall, Barbara, Scragg, Terry, 2012-03-01 This text fills a gap for an accessible textbook which takes a person-centred approach to working with older people by providing readers with a basic knowledge of policy, legislation, theory and research.

Handbook of International Social Work Lynne M. Healy, Rosemary J. Link, 2012 Global knowledge is increasingly essential for all aspects of social work. Today's professionals respond to concerns including permeable borders, the upheavals of war, displaced workers, natural disasters, international adoption and human trafficking. Everywhere social workers work with service users and colleagues from diverse cultures and countries. Globally relevant concepts such as human rights, development and inclusion offer new perspectives to enhance policy and practice and facilitate the international exchange of ideas. This handbook is the first major reference text to provide a solid foundation of knowledge for students and researchers alike. The extensive collection of 73 chapters confirms the integral and necessary nature of international social work knowledge to all areas of practice, policy and research. Chapters systematically map the key issues, organizations, competencies, training and research needs and ethical guidelines central to international social work practice today, emphasizing the linkages among social work, development and human rights practice. In-depth country case studies and policy examples encourage readers to understand how their practice in social work touches on international issues regardless of whether the work is done at home or abroad. Representing all regions of the world, a wide range of contributors that are leaders in their fields have put together an exhaustive collection that represents the state of play of international social work today.

Social Work Practice with Older People Rory Lynch, 2013-11-13 Older people are the biggest service user group for social workers and an increasing proportion of the population In this refreshingly positive and practical textbook Rory Lynch draws on years of practice and teaching experience to show how to achieve best social work practice with older adults He takes a person centred approach which fosters respect by valuing the fact that elderly people have more lived experience than others Exploring the key theoretical approaches and methods of intervention this book helps social workers to identify understand and facilitate their service users wishes for well being and a fulfilling older age Chapters are practice driven containing case studies drawn from a range of care settings reflective questions and exercises Mapping directly onto the key modules on the social work degree this is essential reading for all student social workers especially as they prepare to go on their practice placement It is also valuable reading for qualified social workers Rory Lynch is Lecturer in Social Work at Robert Gordon University

Handbook of Human Services for Older Persons Monica Bychowski Holmes,Douglas Holmes,1979

Social Work and Social Welfare Katherine S. Van Wormer,Rosemary J. Link,2018 Infused with relevant personal narratives and photographs Social Work and Social Welfare provides a global human rights perspective on social welfare policies that are at the forefront of controversy in today s world e g immigration policies environmental sustainability health care housing food insecurity and income wealth inequality

Administration on Aging, Modernising social work John Harris,Vicky White,2009-03-31 New Labour s modernisation agenda has produced an avalanche of change that has posed formidable challenges for everyone involved in social work whether as service users practitioners or managers Modernising Social Work provides a radical appraisal of the far reaching changes in their theoretical historical and policy contexts The book is organised into three sections that consider the inter relationship of modernisation and managerialism modernisation s impact on service users and the ways in which social workers and front line managers seek to exercise professional discretion for the benefit of service users within a workplace culture of intensified scrutiny and control Analysis of a range of key developments in all three areas reveals the modernisation agenda as complex and contested The book s three sections cover the main issues of the modernisation agenda making it ideal for teaching Locating the issues in their theoretical historical and policy contexts meets the needs of student readers and experienced social workers will appreciate the emphasis on empirical research as well as practice experience Departments of Labor and Health, Education, and Welfare Appropriations for 1966 United States. Congress. House. Appropriations,1965 Departments of Labor and Health, Education and Welfare Appropriations for 1966 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on Departments of Labor and Health, Education, and Welfare, and Related Agencies Appropriations,1965 Departments of Labor and Health, Education and Welfare Appropriations for 1966 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations,1965 Family Care of Older People in Europe Ian Philp,2001 Developing appropriate responses to an ageing population is recognized by policy makers throughout the developed world as a top priority as is the vital contribution made by family caregivers However cultural demographic and organizational differences between countries have encouraged diverse patterns of response to this common challenge This book provides a systematic cross cultural analysis of contemporary patterns and future trends in all major countries of the European Union Additional interest is provided by including Poland emerging from the post Communist block as the country at the forefront for joining the European Union The book should be useful to European policy makers and academics involved in studying the health and social care needs of older people and the capacity contribution and needs of family caregivers who provide care to older people The book is also relevant for policy makers and researchers in other countries mostly in North America and Australia who wish to study European approaches to supporting older people and family caregivers Innovations in Older Adult Care and Health Service Management: A Focus on China Madhan Balasubramanian, Angie Shafei, Zhanming Liang, 2024-06-19 Population aging is a consistent global demographic trend. The growth in both the size and proportion of older adults has threatened the sustainability of health systems in meeting healthcare needs of the population. Countries in the Asia Pacific Region may face even more complex health system challenges due to the diversity in culture, management and leadership styles, composition of health service provision, investment in research infrastructure and innovation, data availability and gaps in information technology.
