Simut,2019-10-01 Richard Hooker and his Early Doctrine of Justification explores the doctrine of justification the doctrine of faith and grace and the doctrine of Scripture and use of reason in the early theology of Richard Hooker In order to prove that Hooker was a Protestant Reformed theologian Simu concentrates on Hooker s doctrine of justification as reflected in his Learned Discourse of Justification which is the most important work of his early theology Unlike previous books on Hooker which use primarily the theology of Luther and Calvin to draw conclusions this book brings together quotations and ideas from the works of Luther Melancthon Zwingli Bucer Calvin and Beza to show that Hooker was a Protestant Reformed theologian Simu also discusses the theological context of Hooker s career by offering an analysis of the doctrine of justification in the theology of John Jewel John Whitgift Hooker s patrons and Thomas Cartwright and Walter Travers Hooker s Puritan opponents

Religious and Ethical Perspectives on Global Migration Elizabeth W. Collier, Charles R. Strain, 2014-06-05 Religious and Ethical Perspectives on Global Migration examines the complicated social ethics of migration in today s world Editors Elizabeth W Collier and Charles R Strain bring the perspectives of an international group of scholars toward a theory of justice and ethical understanding for the nearly two hundred million migrants who have left their homes seeking asylum from political persecution greater freedom and safety economic opportunity or reunion with family members Migrants move out of fear desperation hope love for their families or a myriad of other complex motivations Faced with both the needs and flows of people and the walls that impede them what actions ought we both individually and collectively take What is the moral responsibility of those of us in particular who reside comfortably in our native lands There is no univocal response to these questions Instead multiple perspectives on migration must be examined This book begins by looking at different geographic regions around the world and highlighting particular issues within each Finding that religious traditions represent the strongest countervailing sources of values to the homogenizing tendencies of economic globalization the study then offers a plurality of religious perspectives The final chapters examine the salient issues and the proposed solutions that have emerged specifically within the U S context These studies range from militarization of the U S border with Mexico to the impact of migrants on native born low skilled workers Encompassing a wide range of cultural and scholarly voices Religious and Ethical Perspectives on Global Migration provides insight for ethics moral philosophy social and political philosophy religious studies social justice globalization and identity formation

Theology of Participation Daniel G. Oprean, 2019-05-31 Baptists in Romania have developed a practice of suspicion when it comes to religious dialogue especially with the Romanian Orthodox tradition due to a history that is characterized by oppression In this detailed study Dr Daniel Oprean paves the way for positive dialogue between the two traditions highlighting that much can be gained and learned by acknowledging similarities and differences in key aspects of theology Dr Oprean explores how existing theological resources can be used to enhance theological discourse between Baptist and Orthodox traditions in Romania through in depth analysis of the thought of British Baptist theologian Professor Paul Fiddes and Romanian Orthodox theologian Father Dumitru St niloae Oprean in particular looks at their understanding of trinitarian and human participation through perichoresis the Eucharist Christian spirituality and baptism and chrismation Presented as a conversation between the two traditions this study is a model for how theological and religious dialogue can facilitate reconciliation not just in the church but also in wider society Subject Index of the Modern Works Added to the Library of the British Museum in the Years ...
