Revised Edition Albert Galloway Keller,1947      The Science of Society William Graham Sumner,Albert Galloway Keller,Maurice Rea Davie,1927 Vols 1 3 pagged continuously Vol 4 by W G Sumner A G Keller and M R Davie Published under the auspices of the Sumner Club on the foundation established in memory of Philip Hamilton McMillan of the class of 1894 Yale College Bibliographical note v 4 p 1193 1268      Theory of Society, Volume 1 Niklas Luhmann,2012-10-10 This first volume of Niklas Luhmann s two part final work was initially published in German in 1997 The culmination of his thirty year theoretical project to reconceptualize sociology it offers a comprehensive description of modern society on a scale not attempted since Talcott Parsons Beginning with an account of the fluidity of meaning and the accordingly high improbability of successful communication Luhmann analyzes a range of communicative media including language writing the printing press and electronic media as well as success media such as money power truth and love all of which structure this fluidity and make communication possible An investigation into the ways in which social systems produce and reproduce themselves the book asks what gives rise to functionally differentiated social systems how they evolve and how social movements organizations and patterns of interaction emerge The advent of the computer and its networks which trigger potentially far reaching processes of restructuring receive particular attention A concluding chapter on the semantics of modern society s self description bids farewell to the outdated theoretical approaches of old Europe that is to ontological holistic ethical and critical interpretations of society and argues that concepts such as the nation the subject and postmodernity are vastly overrated In their stead society long considered a suspicious term by sociologists one open to all kinds of reification is defined in purely operational terms It is the always uncertain answer to the question of what comes next in all areas of communication
