It addresses the contextual conditions which promote or hinder democratic development, reveals that democracy may not be the best institutional arrangement given a country's unique set of historical, economic, social, cultural, and international circumstances, and applies theories and principles relating to the promotion of the development of democracy to the contemporary case studies.

Europe Hans-Georg Ziebertz, Ulrich Riegel, 2008 Religion is back on the agenda. Western societies are searching for an adequate understanding of religion. Media move religion into focus as a resource of significance in modern societies but also as a source of tension and conflict. Politics is testing how to manage religious pluralism. Education is developing concepts of interreligious dialogue in order to promote a better intercultural understanding. The book discusses if the concept post-secularity allows a suitable understanding of the public presence of religion.
