peripheral underclass The Pastoral Continuum examines the richness and resilience of their cultures and illuminates the role of indigenous practices and institutions in adaptation and survival The pastoralists systems of age organization in particular are notable for their resilience it is demonstrated that these are bound up with problems of growth and succession in family enterprises and that marriage is a critical link in the web of alliance that governs the problematic relations between old and young Spencer s exploration of the development of the pastoralist phenomenon yields a unique view of its place in the modern world and its prospects for the future This landmark work by a leading authority will be of lasting value to any reader interested in traditional social systems of this kind Ethnic Groups of South Asia and the Pacific James B.

Asian Studies ,1993      Emotional Worlds Andrew Beatty,2019-02-07 Are emotions human universals Is the concept of emotion an invention of Western tradition If people in other cultures live radically different emotional lives how can we ever understand them Using vivid often dramatic examples from around the world and in dialogue with current work in psychology and philosophy Andrew Beatty develops an anthropological perspective on the affective life showing how emotions colour experience and transform situations how in turn they are shaped by culture and history In stark contrast with accounts that depend on lab simulations interviews and documentary reconstruction he takes the reader into unfamiliar cultural worlds through a narrative approach to emotions in naturalistic settings showing how emotions tell a story and belong to larger stories Combining richly detailed reporting with a careful critique of alternative approaches he argues for an intimate grasp of local realities that restores the heartbeat to ethnography
