Shepherd, 2013 Focusing on critical approaches to security this new textbook offers readers both an overview of the key theoretical perspectives and a variety of methodological techniques With a careful explication of core concepts in each chapter and an introduction that traces the development of critical approaches to security this textbook will encourage all those who engage with it to develop a curiosity about the study and practices of security politics Challenging the assumptions of conventional theories and approaches unsettling that which was previously taken for granted these are among the ways in which such a curiosity works Through its attention to the fact that and the ways in which security matters in global politics this work will both pioneer new ways of studying security and acknowledge the noteworthy scholarship without which it could not have been thought This textbook will be essential reading to advanced undergraduate and postgraduate students of critical security studies and highly recommended to students of traditional security studies International Relations and Politics     Handbook of Critical Approaches to Politics and Policy of Education Kenneth J. Saltman, Nicole Nguyen, 2022-04-27 The Handbook of Critical Approaches to Politics and Policy of Education provides a broad overview of educational policy and politics from critical perspectives engaging with both foundational and cutting edge topics In critical perspectives educational policy debates and programs for reform are about more than narrow questions of efficacy say to raise test scores or for simply more educational inclusion fairer school spending or even cultural responsiveness Rather policy and reform debates represent contested visions for schools and society by social groups vying for hegemony Critical approaches to educational policy and politics see schooling and education more broadly as contested terrain in which competing visions for education are imbricated with the material and symbolic interests and cultural ideologies of different classes and cultural groups Chapters in this volume are organized into five sections The first three sections provide a foundational overview to educational policy and politics covering culture and politics of education political economy of education and subjectivity and education These chapters address longstanding and current policy and political debates as well as foundational theoretical debates The last two sections are organized around two themes that address some of the most significant recent directions of educational politics and policy disaster politics and technology     Critical Approaches to Care Chrissie Rogers, Susie Weller, 2012 Care shapes people's everyday lives and relationships and caring relations and practices influence the economies of different societies This interdisciplinary book takes a nuanced and context sensitive approach to exploring caring relationships identities and practices within and across a variety of cultural familial geographical and institutional arenas

Foundations of Critical Theory Christian Fuchs, 2021-09-19 This second volume of Christian Fuchs Media Communication and Society book series outlines key concepts and contemporary debates in critical theory The book explores the foundations of a Marxist Humanist critical theory of society clarifying and updating key concepts in critical theory such as the dialectic critique alienation class capitalism ideology and racial capitalism In doing so the book engages with and further develops elements from the works of Karl Marx Friedrich Engels Rosa Luxemburg Max Horkheimer Theodor W Adorno Herbert Marcuse David Harvey Michael Hardt Antonio Negri C L R James Adolph L Reed Jr and Cornel West Written for a broad audience of students and scholars this book is an essential guide for readers who are interested in how to think critically from perspectives such as media and communication studies sociology philosophy political economy and political science

A critical approach to the social acceptance of renewable energy infrastructures Susana Batel, David Rudolph, 2021-08-25 This book provides a critical approach to research on the social acceptance of renewable energy infrastructures and on energy transitions in general by questioning prevalent principles and proposing specific research pathways and lines of inquiry that look beyond depoliticised business as usual discourses and research agendas on green growth and sustainability It brings together authors from different socio geographical and disciplinary backgrounds within the social sciences to reflect upon discuss and advance what we propose to be five cornerstones of a critical approach overcoming individualism and socio cognitivism repoliticisations recognising and articulating power relations for interdisciplinarity interventions praxis and political engagement with research and overcoming localism and spatial determinism As such this book offers academics students and practitioners alike a comprehensive perspective of what it means to be critical when inquiring into the social acceptance of renewable energy and associated infrastructures

Handbook of Marriage and the Family Suzanne K. Steinmetz, Marvin B. Sussman, 2013-11-11 The lucid straightforward Preface of this Handbook by the two editors and the comprehensive perspectives offered in the Introduction by one of them leave little for a Foreword to add It is therefore limited to two relevant but not intrinsically related points vis a vis research on marriage and the family in the interval since the first Handbook Christensen 1964 appeared namely the impact on this research of the politicization of the New Right and of the Feminist Enlightenment beginning in the mid sixties about the time of the first Handbook In the late 1930s Willard Waller noted Fifty years or more ago about 1890 most people had the greatest respect for the institution called the family and wished to learn nothing whatever about it Everything that concerned the life of men and women and their children was shrouded from the light Today much of that has been changed Gone is the concealment of the way in which life begins gone the irrational sanctity of the home The aura of sentiment which once protected the family from discussion clings to it no more We want to learn as much about it as we can and to understand it as thoroughly as possible for there is a rising recognition in America that vast numbers of its families are sick from internal frustrations and from external buffeting We are engaged in the process of reconstructing our family institutions through criticism and discussion 1938 pp 3 4      A Handbook of Critical Approaches to Literature Wilfred L. Guerin, 1992 The third edition of this highly successful survey of critical responses to literature covers the significant critical and theoretical developments of the past decade while retaining the essential clarity of definition and accessibility that distinguished the earlier editions Offering a new chapter on feminist approaches to literature and shorter sections on the new historicism narratology and dialogics and hermeneutics the new edition also features a substantial new section on structuralism post structuralism and deconstruction and a unique section on reader response The editors have also substantially revised and updated all bibliographical references both within individual chapters and in the list of supplementary readings

Introducing Sociology Kenneth Murray Knuttila, 2002 This new edition offers an alternative approach to sociology that has been adapted from the work of British sociologist Anthony Giddens and infused with the philosophy of the controversial American sociologist C Wright Mills This approach begins by examining the structure and organization of biological reproduction and material production within a society Knuttila argues that sociology must be understood as a distinct way of thinking about human social behaviour in our diverse social worlds
