Song Of The Pearl:

The Gnostic Bible Willis Barnstone, Marvin W. Meyer, 2006 The most comprehensive collection of gnostic literature ever published this volume is the result of a unique collaboration between a renowned poet translator and a leading scholar of early Christian texts

Literature and the Child James Holt McGavran, James Holt McGavran, 1998-04 The Romantic myth of childhood as a transhistorical holy time of innocence and spirituality uncorrupted by the adult world has been subjected in recent years to increasingly serious interrogation Was there ever really a time when mythic ideals were simple pure and uncomplicated The contributors to this book contend although in widely differing ways and not always approvingly that our culture is indeed still pervaded in this postmodern moment of the very late twentieth century by the Romantic conception of childhood which first emerged two hundred years ago In the wake of the French Revolution and the Industrial Revolution western Europe experienced another fin de siècle characterized by overwhelming material and institutional change and instability By historicizing the specific political social and economic conflicts at work within the notion of Romantic childhood the essayists in Literature and the Child show us how little these forces have changed over time and how enriching and empowering they can still be for children and their parents In the first section Romanticism Continued and Contested Alan Richardson and Mitzi Myers question the origins and ends of Romantic childhood In Romantic Ironies Postmodern Texts Dieter Petzold Richard Flynn and James McGavran argue that postmodern texts for both children and adults perpetuate the Romantic complexities of childhood Next in The Commerce of Children's Books Anne Lundin and Paula Connolly study the production and marketing of children's classics Finally in Romantic Ideas in Cultural Confrontations William Scheick and Teya Rosenberg investigate interactions of Romantic myths with those of other cultural systems

Jung and the Lost Gospels Stephan A. Hoeller, 1989-10-01 The Lost Gospels refer to the Dead Sea Scrolls and the Nag Hammadi Library both discovered in the 1940s The Nag Hammadi Library consists of writings found by two peasants who unearthed clay jars in 1945 in upper Egypt These did not appear in English for 32 years because the right to publish was contended by scholars politicians and antique dealers The Dead Sea Scrolls discovered in clay jars in Palestine by a goat herder in 1947 weathered similar storms The first team of analysts were mostly Christian clergy who weren't anxious to share material that frightened church leaders As Dr Hoeller shows they rightly feared the documents would reveal information that might detract from unique claims of Christianity Indeed the Dead Sea Scrolls and Nag Hammadi Library both contradict and complement accepted tenets of the Old and New Testaments

Essential Gnostic Scriptures Willis Barnstone, Marvin Meyer, 2010-12-28 The people we've come to call gnostics were passionate advocates of the view that salvation comes through knowledge and personal experience and their passion shines through in the remarkable body of writings they produced over a period of more than a millennium and a half Willis Barnstone and Marvin Meyer have created a translation that brings the gnostic voices to us from across the centuries with remarkable power and beauty beginning with texts from the earliest years of Christianity including material from the Nag Hammadi library and continuing all the way up to expressions of gnostic wisdom found within Islam and in the Cathar movement of the Middle Ages The twenty one texts included here serve as a compact introduction to Gnosticism and its principal ideas and they also provide an entrance to the pleasures of gnostic literature in general representing as they do the greatest masterpieces of that tradition Studies in Manichaeism Literature and Art Manfred Heuser,H. J. Klimkeit,1997-12-31 This volume consists of two sections The first is a general analysis by Manfred Heuser of The Manichaeism Myth According to Coptic Sources The second is a collection of essays by Hans Joachim Klimkeit on various aspects of Manichaeism including Manichaeism symbolism and art The Kingman Comprehension Series Dr. Alice Kingman,2023-06-27 About the Series The Kingman Comprehension Series aims to enhance students essential reading skills and abilities to exercise critical judgment to help improve progressively their understanding of written texts A traditional and contemporary approach is used by the author with questions set in the formats of Filling in the blanks Underlining the correct answers Multiple choice questions True or false questions Matching Drawing inferences Open ended questions and Sequencing Suggested answers to the questions are provided at the back of the book The series comprises six books catering to the levels and needs of the targeted students Elementary Level Book 3 for students eight to nine years old Book 4 for students nine to ten year old Intermediate Level Book 5 for students ten to eleven year old Book 6 for students eleven to twelve year old Advanced Level Book 7 for students twelve to thirteen year old Book 8 for students thirteen to fourteen year old Song Index Minnie Earl Sears,Phyllis Crawford,1926 The 'Imagined Sound' of Australian Literature and Music Joseph Cummins,2019-09-20 Imagined Sound is a unique cartography of the artistic historical and political forces that have informed the post World War II representation of Australian landscapes It is the first book to formulate the unique methodology of imagined sound a new way to read and listen to literature and music that moves beyond the dominance of the visual the colonial mode of knowing controlling and imagining Australian space Emphasising sound and listening this approach draws out and re examines the key narratives that shape and are shaped by Australian landscapes and histories stories of first contact frontier violence the explorer journey the convict experience non Indigenous belonging Pacific identity and contemporary Indigenous Dreaming Imagined Sound offers a compelling analysis of how these narratives are reharmonised in key works of literature and music Pearl's Ocean Magic (Dolphin School #1) Catherine Hapka,2016-06-28 Going to dolphin school under the sea is a magical experience for Pearl and her friends Pearl is a magical dolphin of the Salty Sea and today is her first day of school Her classmates Echo and Splash make great new friends Together they start learning dolphin skills like magic music and jumping But another student Flip just won't stop bragging And when he accepts a dare from an older student he ends up in terrible danger from a shark Can Pearl and her friends save him It's an exciting first day at Dolphin School The Life and Times of the Knights Charmaine Hale,2023-09-15 Alfred Fredrick John Knight was born in Yeovil to his mother Amelia and father George When Alfred was three years old George his father left Amelia telling her that he was taking their son Alfred with him George took Alfred and in secret eloped with his lover to Wales Alfred was later adopted and lived with his adopted family talking to the family about emigrating to Canada He told his family that he wanted to stay in England and try and find his birth mother He left home and went back to Yeovil but there was no trace of his mother he did manage to find his grandmother Mary who was still alive While looking for a job he saw a sign which read YOUR COUNTRY NEEDS YOU Alfred then decided that he wanted to become a soldier and join the British Army After joining up with Prince Albert s light infantry the Somerset Light Infantry was sent out to India to fight the rebellion Will Alfred ever find his birth mother

Faure,2007-03-01 This book summarizes twenty years of the author s work in historical anthropology and documents his argument that in China ritual provided the social glue that law provided in the West The book offers a readable history of the special lineage institutions for which south China has been noted and argues that these institutions fostered the mechanisms that enabled south China to be absorbed into the imperial Chinese state first by introducing rituals that were acceptable to the state and second by providing mechanisms that made group ownership of property feasible and hence made it possible to pool capital for land reclamation projects important to the state Just as taxation defense and recognition came together with the emergence of powerful lineages in the sixteenth century their disintegration in the late nineteenth century signaled the beginnings of a new Chinese state Little Lorrie Lincoln Goes to James and Pearl's Shopmart (Book One) Lorrie O.
