Maul Tricia Sullivan,2013-10-31 The gun straps to the inside of my leg with Velcro It s not the absolute zenith of fashion to do this anymore but girls who wear theirs with leather straps and buckles aren t serious with Velcro you can get at the thing when you need it I also have a pink ammo belt It s heavy but who said fashion was easy In a mall like any other a gang of teenage girls are suddenly caught up in a maelstrom of shopping and violence But as the designer bullets fly it is not only their own lives they are fighting for Unknown to them they are battling for the life of a man trapped in another place in a different world and with very different enemies He is a man they have never met but who represents the future of the human race or could destroy it Iain Sinclair Brian Baker,2013-01-18 A clearly written comprehensive critical introduction to one of the most original contemporary British writers providing an overview of all of Sinclair s major works and an analysis of his vision of modern London This book places Sinclair in a range of contexts including the late 1960s counter culture and the British Poetry Revival London s underground histories the rise and fall of Thatcherism and Sinclair s writing about Britain under New Labour Sinclair s connection to other writers and artists such as J G Ballard Michael Moorcock and Marc Atkins This book makes a significant contribution to the growing scholarship surrounding Sinclair s work offering the first critical text that covers in detail all of Sinclair s work his poetry fiction non fiction including his book on John Clare Edge of the Orison and his film work City Visions Jenny Bavidge,Robert Bond,2021-03-04 City Visions The Work of Iain Sinclair collects fourteen pathbreaking essays treating the panoramic oeuvre of novelist poet filmmaker and essayist Iain Sinclair This book aims to reflect and develop the current strong interest in the work of Sinclair who is widely recognized as one of the most significant figures in contemporary British literature and culture The essays herein cover the key genres and periods of Sinclair s output discussing his poetry prose and filmmaking and are developed from the proceedings of the first academic conference on Sinclair which was held at the University of Greenwich in 2004 Following the introductory chapter which includes a brief survey of Sinclair s career up until now the collection is arranged thematically in four sections The first part Contexts features essays which comment on the critical categorization and definition of Sinclair s work The second part Culture and Critique includes essays which explore the political import and contexts of Sinclair s oeuvre The articles in the third part Connections look at the links between Sinclair and other writers addressing the often noted intertextuality of his writing and the final section Spaces contains three considerations of Sinclair s treatment of London s urban spaces This collection provides access to the latest research by the leading scholars working in this area and will be a key point of reference for anyone interested in Sinclair s production To some the field of London writing may increasingly look like an indifferent over populated wasteland Iain Sinclair however remains pre eminent by virtue not only of the amplitude of his knowledge of the city but of the intensity and complexity of his thought about it He is the redemptive memorialist of a host of disregarded London cultures that lie quite beyond the reach of contemporary pieties In that respect he is less our Blake as he sometimes seems to believe than our Pepys or our Defoe At the same time he is an audacious experimenter with prose forms in the modernist tradition from Joyce to Burroughs and beyond Like the Sinclair phenomenon itself this valuable collection of essays is multifaceted illuminating its subject from a variety of different angles whilst very well aware that it is part of a work in progress It offers important testimony to the scope and power of a writer engaged in an original serious and necessary project Andrew Gibson Research Professor of Modern Literature and Theory Royal Holloway University of London This is an important and timely collection about arguably the most significant living London writer who is increasingly being recognised as an important contemporary English author in every sense Lawrence Phillips Principal Lecturer in English University of Northampton At last Iain Sinclair has the readers he deserves at least on the ample often provocative and always fascinating evidence of City Visions a collection of essays marked equally by panache and verve awareness of alternative cultural history and theoretical sophistication Over fourteen chapters critics with wide ranging interests gather their restless energies and obsessions in response to the scatter gun agitprop and guerilla intellectualism of Sinclair to produce a necessary and necessarily edgy volume In this admirably relentless collection Jenny Bavidge and Robert Bond offer an unnerving and inventive critical topography that uncovers the dark heart of a writer who is simultaneously the enfant terrible and minence grise of English letters Belles lettrists and other dilettantes be warned this is not a volume for the faint hearted these essays manifest an evangelical zeal equal to their subject's own in doing so they take us on an exhilarating intellectual adventure so refreshing in the world of lit crit where the polite formulas of sensible reading make one want to faint from ennui Professor Julian Wolfreys Loughborough University

British Fiction of the 1990s Nick Bentley, 2007-05-07 The 1990s proved to be a particularly rich and fascinating period for British fiction This book presents a fresh perspective on the diverse writings that appeared over the decade bringing together leading academics in the field British Fiction of the 1990s traces the concerns that emerged as central to 1990s fiction in sections on millennial anxieties identity politics the relationship between the contemporary and the historical and representations of contemporary space offers distinctive new readings of the most important novelists of the period including Martin Amis Beryl Bainbridge Pat Barker Julian Barnes A S Byatt Hanif Kureishi Ian McEwan Iain Sinclair Zadie Smith and Jeanette Winterson shows how British fiction engages with major cultural debates of the time such as the concern with representing various identities and cultural groups or theories of the end of history discusses 1990s fiction in relation to broader literary and critical theories including postmodernism post feminism and postcolonialism Together the essays highlight the ways in which the writing of the 1990s represents a development of the themes and styles of the post war novel generally yet displays a range of characteristics distinct to the decade

The Swarming Streets, 2004-01-01 Ranging from the turn of the nineteenth century to the last few years of the twentieth century The Swarming Streets explores the representation of London in the last century through some of the major writers who have made it the foundation of their work The natural companion to recent major histories and biographies of the metropolis students and researchers alike will find major new essays on Virginia Woolf Dorothy Richardson Storm Jameson E Nesbit Julian Barnes Iain Sinclair Graham Swift B S Johnson and Andrea Levy and others Drawing on a rich variety of critical approaches each essay is distinct as well as contributing to an overall analysis of literary representations of twentieth century London Iain Sinclair: Noise, Neoliberalism and the Matter of London Niall Martin, 2015-09-24 For much of the 20th century the modernist city was articulated in terms of narratives of progress and development Today the neoliberal city confronts us with all the cultural noise of disorder and excess meaning As this book demonstrates for more than 40 years London based writer film maker and psychogeographer Iain Sinclair has proved to be one of the most incisive commentators on the contemporary city tracing the emerging contours of a metropolis where the meeting of global and local is never without incident Iain Sinclair Noise Neoliberalism and the Matter of London explores Sinclair's investigations into the nature of conflicting urban realities through an examination of the ways in which the noise of neoliberal excess intersects with the noise of literary experiment In this way the book casts new light on theorisations of the city in the contemporary era Iain Sinclair Robert Sheppard, 2007 This study covers Iain Sinclair's major works but also seeks to trace the connections between his writings and earlier books of poetry After-Images of the City Joan Ramon Resina, Dieter Ingenschay, 2018-08-06 Criticism on the textual and iconographic construction of the city is extensive yet the problem of historical change in representations of the urban has received little attention Believing traditional accounts are limited by their reflection of a specific historical moment Joan Ramon Resina and Dieter Ingenschay focus by contrast on transition In essays written for this volume scholars of literary and visual studies the history of architecture cultural theory and urban geography explore the ways perceptual or conceptual paradigms of the city supersede or replace others while at the same time retaining the after image of what went before The writers touch on a wide variety of issues related to contemporary urban cultures as they journey through cities including New York Barcelona Madrid Paris Tijuana Berlin and London Drawing on the work of Roland Barthes Walter Benjamin Camilo Jos Cela Honor de Balzac and Alfred Stieglitz their approach is broadly cultural rather than technical After Images of the City takes into account the intrinsic instability of the image and reveals that representations of the modern metropolis cannot be fixed in time and history Python beyond Python Paul N. Reinsch, B. Lynn Whitfield, Robert G. Weiner, 2017-07-14 This collection of original interdisciplinary essays addresses the work of Monty Python members beyond the comedy show films and live performances These men are prolific creators in a variety of artistic realms beyond the confines of the comedy troupe Their work as individuals before and after coming together as Monty Python demonstrates a restless curiosity about culture that embraces absurdity but seldom becomes cynical Python members collectively and individually create unique approaches to theatre film video games comic books business training videos and more Python Beyond Python increases our understanding of this often neglected work and the meanings of Monty Python London Peculiar and Other Nonfiction Michael Moorcock, 2012-01-25 Voted by the London Times as one of the best writers since 1945 Michael Moorcock was shortlisted for the Whitbread Prize and won the Guardian Fiction Prize He has won almost all the major Science Fiction Fantasy and lifetime achievement awards including the Howie the Prix Utopiales and the Stoker Best known for his rule breaking SF and Fantasy including the classic Elric and Hawkmoon series he is also the author of several graphic novels Now in London Peculiar and Other Nonfiction Michael Moorcock personally selects the best of his published unpublished and uncensored essays articles reviews and opinions covering a wide range of subjects books films politics reminiscences of old friends and attacks on new foes Drawn from over fifty years of writing including his most recent work from the pages of the Los Angeles Times and the Guardian along with obscure and now unobtainable sources the pieces in London Peculiar and Other Nonfiction showcase Moorcock at his acerbic best They include London Peculiar an impassioned statement of Moorcock's memories of wartime London The architectural improvements wrought by the rebuilding of the city after World War Two brought cultural changes as well many to the detriment of the city's inhabitants Review of R Crumb's Genesis previously unavailable in English this lengthy review of the underground comic artist's retelling of the first book of the Bible leads Moorcock to address nostalgia for the sixties A Child's Christmas in the Blitz An autobiographical recounting of Moorcock's childhood in wartime London with memories of the freedom and hardships he encountered during the bombings and the happy times he spent with his parents These along with dozens more make this a collection Moorcock fans won't want to miss and the perfect introduction for new readers who will soon discover why Alan Moore Watchmen says Moorcock seizes the 21st century bull by its horns and wrestles it into submission with a Texan rodeo confidence

Englishness Simon Featherstone, 2009-01-15 This book examines the conflicts dilemmas and contradictions that marked Englishness as the nation changed from an imperial power to a postcolonial state The chapters deal with travel writing popular song music hall and variety theatre dances elocution lessons cricket and football and national festivals as well as literature and film High and popular cultures are brought together in dialogue and the diversity as well as the problematic nature of English identity is emphasised The case studies are linked by their interests in different kinds of performances of being English and by a particular focus upon the voice and the body as key sites for the struggles of modern England The book is a lively contribution to current interdisciplinary debates about Englishness national cultures and postcolonial identities It is relevant to undergraduate students of literature drama film politics and sociology and will also appeal to a general readership

Writing London J. Wolfreys, 2004-08-11 Following on from Julian Wolfrey's successful Writing London 1998 this second volume extends Wolfrey's original argument that a new urban sensibility in the nineteenth century had been developed which established new ways of writing about and responding to the city Writing London Volume 2 explores through a range of readings of twentieth century films and texts the complex relationship between the experience of the city the pleasures of the urban text and the solitary nature of these pleasures The book has a broad focus in part dictated not only by the transformation of literary production in the twentieth century but also by the need to respond to the changes in both urban representation and London itself Writers discussed include Virginia Woolf Elizabeth Bowen Maureen Duffy Peter Ackroyd Iain Sinclair and Michael Moorcock The volume covers texts from the late nineteenth century to the end of the twentieth in a critical reading that incorporates the theoretical insights of Walter Benjamin Guy Debord and Jacques Derrida London Narratives Lawrence Phillips, 2006-09-25 The post war redevelopment of London has been the most extensive in its history and has been accompanied by a dramatic social and cultural upheaval This book explores the literary re imagining of the city in post war fiction and argues that the image history and narrative of the city has been transformed alongside the physical rebuilding and repositioning of the capital Drawing on the ideas of Michel de Certeau Henri Lefebvre Anthony Vigler and others as well as the latest work on urban representation this book is an important contribution to the study of the intersection between place lived experience and the literary imagination Texts covered include novels by some of the most significant and lesser known authors of the period including Graham Greene George Orwell J G Ballard Stella Gibbons David Lodge Doris Lessing B S Johnson Sam Selvon V S Naipaul Peter Ackroyd and Iain Sinclair Landscape and Subjectivity in the Work of Patrick Keiller, W.G. Sebald, and Iain Sinclair David Anderson, 2020-08-27 This book situates the film maker Patrick Keiller alongside the writers W G Sebald and Iain Sinclair as the three leading voices in English psychogeography offering new insights to key works including London The Rings of Saturn and Lights Out for the Territory Excavating social and political contexts while also providing plentiful close analysis it examines the cultivation of a distinctive affective mode or sensibility especially attuned to the cultural anxieties of the twentieth century s closing decades Landscape and Subjectivity explores motifs including essayism the reconciliation of creativity with market forces and the foregrounding of an often agonised or melancholic It asks whether the work can collectively be seen to constitute a critical theory of contemporary space and suggests that Keiller Sebald and Sinclair s contributions represent a highly significant moment in English culture s engagement with landscape environment and itself The book s analyses are fuelled by archival and topographical research and are responsive to various interdisciplinary contexts including the tradition of the English Journey the set of ideas associated with the spatial turn critical theory the so called heritage debate and more recent theorisation of the anthropocene Thinking History 4-14 Dr Grant Bage, Grant Bage, 2014-01-21 In this book the author looks at the past present and the future of history teaching in primary schools in an attempt to provide a practical framework for teachers Section one reviews relevant literature with an aim to clarify the dilemmas and advance present thinking and practice in history teaching in primary schools Section two offers case studies curriculum materials and designs teaching ideas and methods teacher development and curriculum development materials at the same time as tying it in to the existing knowledge base Section three considers the perennial dilemmas for school history in the 21st century including how can history survive in an increasingly over crowded and competitive school curriculum How can history be harnessed to improvements in literacy and numeracy What should the primary history curriculum contain How can IT secure easier access to historical information and evidence Texts Peter Childs, 2006-09-27 Being able to analyse different types of text is an essential skill for students of literature Texts is a new kind of book which shows students how to use literary theory to approach a wide range of literary cultural and media texts of the kind studied on today's courses These texts range from short stories autobiographies political speeches websites and lyrics to films such as The Matrix and Harry Potter and from television's Big Brother to shopping malls celebrities and rock videos Each chapter combines an introduction to the text and aspects of its critical reception with an analysis using one of sixteen key approaches from established angles like feminism postcolonial studies and deconstruction to newer areas such as ecocriticism trauma theory and ethical criticism Each chapter also indicates alternative ways of reading the text by drawing on other critical approaches Design and Creativity Guy Julier, Liz Moor, 2009-08-01 Design and other creative industries not only shape our lives in numerous ways providing cultural goods such as films music and magazines but also shape the look and feel of everyday objects and spaces The creative industries are also important economically governments and businesses now make considerable efforts to manage creativity for a range of political and economic ends Does the management of design conflict with traditional ideas of creative freedom and autonomy How do government policies and business priorities influence the day to day practices of designers And how far have the processes and purpose of creative work been changed by its new centrality to business and government Bringing together case studies and material from a range of industries and contexts as well as a series of interviews with practitioners Design and Creativity provides a cutting edge account of key trends in the creative industries at the start of the twenty first century Peter Gabriel Paul Hegarty, 2018-08-15 Peter Gabriel is one of contemporary music's great experimenters From his work in the progressive group Genesis through his pioneering solo albums to his enthusiastic embrace of world music and new technologies Gabriel has remained steadfast in his commitment to redefining music's boundaries and influence geographical virtual and thematic Peter Gabriel offers nuanced and trenchant insight into this enigmatic questing musician and his works into an artist whose constant traveling through identities influences and media defines him as one of modern culture's truly global citizens At the heart of Paul Hegarty's analysis is the idea of locatedness what it means to be in a specific place at a given time and to reflect on that time and the changes which inevitably occur Gabriel's work Hegarty argues can be understood as a series of reflections on the where of being a facet of existence that spans everything from politics to psychology philosophy psychogeography and inward reflection Vanishing Streets J. M. Tyree, 2016-10-05 Vanishing Streets reveals an American writer's twenty year love affair with London Beguiling and idiosyncratic obsessive and wry it offers an illustrated travelogue of the peripheries retracing some of London's most curious locations As J M Tyree wanders deliriously in the world's most visited city he rediscovers and reinvents places that have changed drastically since he was a student at Cambridge in the 1990s Tyree stumbles into the ghosts of Alfred Hitchcock Graham Greene and the pioneers of the British Free Cinema Movement He offers a new way of seeing familiar landmarks through the lens of film history and reveals strange nooks and tiny oddities in out of the way places from a lost film by John Ford supposedly shot in Wapping to the beehives hidden in Tower Hamlets Cemetery an area haunted by a translation error in W G Sebald's Austerlitz This book blends deeply personal writing with a foreigner's observations on a world capital experiencing an unsettling moment of transition Vanishing Streets builds into an astonishing and innovative multi layered project combining autobiography movie madness and postcard like annotations on the magical properties of a great city Tyree argues passionately for London as a cinematic dream city of perpetual fascinations and eccentricities bridging the past and the present as well as the real and the imaginary Urban Ethic Eamonn Canniffe, 2006 Looks at the development of urban design focusing on four elements the physical dimension of monuments and spaces and the humanist dimension of patterns and narrative in cities
