Sorry wrong number, 1983 LIFE, 1945-09-24 LIFE Magazine is the treasured photographic magazine that chronicled the 20th Century. It now lives on at LIFE.com, the largest most amazing collection of professional photography on the internet. Users can browse, search, and view photos of today's people and events. Catherine Russell's A to Z consideration of the iconic actress analyzes twenty-six facets of Stanwyck and the America of her times. Russell examines Stanwyck's work onscreen against the backdrop of costuming and other aspects of filmmaking. But she also views the actress's off-screen performance within the Hollywood networks that made her an industry favorite and longtime cornerstone of the entertainment community. Russell's montage approach coalesces into an engrossing portrait of a singular artist whose intelligence and savvy placed her center stage in the production of her films and in the debates around women, femininity, and motherhood that roiled mid-century America. Original and rich, The Cinema of Barbara Stanwyck is an essential and entertaining reexamination of an enduring Hollywood star. Listen in terror Richard Hand, 2015-11-01 This groundbreaking book is the first full-length study of British horror radio from the pioneering days of recording and broadcasting right through to the digital audio cultures of our own time. The book offers an historical, critical, and theoretical exploration of horror radio and audio performance, examining key areas such as writing, narrative, performance, practice, and reception throughout the history of that most unjustly neglected of popular art forms: radio drama and spoken word auditory cultures. The volume draws on extensive archival research as well as insightful interviews with significant writers, producers, and actors. The book offers detailed analysis of major radio series such as Appointment with Fear, The Man in Black, The Price of Fear, and Fear on Four, as well as one-off horror plays, comedy, horror, and experimental uses of binaural and digital technology in producing uncanny audio. Radio Reader Michele Hilmes, Jason Loviglio, 2002 First Published in 2002 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor & Francis, an informa company. Fearing the Dark Edmund G. Bansak, 2003-10-09 Cat People (1942) and I Walked with a Zombie (1943) established Val Lewton's hauntingly graceful style, where suggestion was often used in place of explicit violence. His stylish B-thrillers were imitated by a generation of filmmakers such as Richard Wallace

William Castle and even Walt Disney in his animated Adventures of Ichabod and Mr Toad 1949 Through interviews with many of Lewton's associates including his wife and son and extensive research his life and output are thoroughly examined

Stanwyck Axel Madsen, 2015-03-17 A compelling portrait of one of Hollywood's most invincible women the late Barbara Stanwyck A most unusual movie star Stanwyck was an actress of considerable and neglected talent who elevated every role she had a woman whose personal life matched the rocky road of her career Whispered to be among Hollywood's scandalous sewing circle a group of internationally famous actresses who hid their potentially career ending lesbianism and bisexuality Stanwyck kept her liaisons a secret Despite her steely resolve and her image as a take control kind of woman Stanwyck suffered from turbulent marriages and relationships including her sensational marriage to and divorce from the abusive Robert Taylor Madsen provides a fresh look at this fascinating complex screen goddess offering provocative and shocking details from one of Hollywood's most interesting lives Reports of the United States Tax Court United States.
