The Collected Novels Volume One Mary Wesley, 2018-11-27 Three touching contemporary British novels of love loss and humor from the international bestselling virtuoso The Times London

Jumping the Queue This masterpiece of wit humor and psychological suspense tells the story of a middle aged widow who has had it with life She puts her papers in order gives away her pet goose packs a picnic lunch and heads to the beach to drown herself only to meet a criminal on the run who has the same idea Together they set out on adventure in this novel about the hidden costs of love and death

The Camomile Lawn In this international bestseller several cousins reunite after forty years to lay one of their own to rest Together they recall their last carefree summer and one hot August night in 1939 before the war began They also reflect on the chaos that followed and how it changed their lives forever Harnessing Peacocks Single mother Hebe juggles numerous lovers while working as a manor house chef to pay for her son's schooling When her two worlds collide a secret from the past leads to a final showdown with a man who's in search for his lost love in this captivating and sensual novel

The Real South Scott Romine, 2008-06 In this stimulating study Scott Romine explores the impact of globalization on contemporary southern culture and the South's persistence in an age of media and what he terms cultural reproduction Rather than being compromised Romine asserts southern cultures are both complicated and reconfigured as they increasingly detach from tradition in its conventional sense In considering Souths that might appear fake the Souths of the theme restaurant commercial television and popular regional magazines for example Romine contends that authenticity and reality emerge as central concepts that allow groups and individuals to imagine and navigate social worlds Romine addresses a major critical problem authenticity in a fundamentally new manner Less concerned with what actually constitutes an authentic or real South than in how these concepts are used today The Real South explores a wide range of southern narratives that describe and travel through virtual simulated and commodified Souths Where earlier critics have tended to assume a real or authentic South Romine questions such assumptions and whether the authentic South ever truly existed From Gone with the Wind Civil War reenactments and a tennis community outside Atlanta called Tara to the work of Josephine Humphreys the travel narrative of V S Naipaul and the historical fiction of Lewis Nordan Romine examines how narratives and spaces are used to fashion social solidarity and cultural continuity in a time of fragmentation and change Far from deteriorating or disappearing in a global economy Romine shows the South continues to be reproduced and used by diverse groups engaged in diverse cultural projects
