Changing Australian Education Alan Reid, 2020-07-28 Australian education policy for the past 40 years has been heading in the wrong direction and is entirely unsuitable for preparing young people for the 21st century Exaggeration Sadly not For a teacher there is nothing more exhilarating than encouraging young people to realise the power of learning But in our schools today teachers spend so much time preparing their students for high stakes tests gathering data and filling in forms that many of them feel like the life has been squeezed out of their role Schooling has been turned into a market and school leaders are forced to spend precious time and resources competing with other schools Their professional experience is disregarded as policy makers turn to the corporate world and self appointed commentators to determine curriculum and school funding The outcome Our schooling system is becoming more segregated children from poorer backgrounds are falling behind public schools are starved of funds and good teachers are leaving One of the most highly regarded educational leaders in Australia Alan Reid argues it s time to reconsider the purposes of education the capacities we need for the future and the strategies that will get us there He outlines a new narrative for Australian schooling that is futures focused and prizes flexibility adaptability collaboration and agility with students teachers and school communities at centre stage A provocative and persuasive argument for the necessity of a new narrative for Australian schooling so as to meet better the demonstrable demands of the twenty first century Emeritus Professor Bob Lingard The University of Queensland At the heart of the book is a penetrating critique of neoliberalism and the damaging effects it is having on education and society It should be essential reading for policy makers educators parents and anyone interested in the current state of Australian education Professor Barry Down Murdoch University

The Best of Enemies, Movie Edition Osha Gray Davidson,2018-11-12 C P Ellis grew up in the poor white section of Durham North Carolina and as a young man joined the Ku Klux Klan Ann Atwater a single mother from the poor black part of town quit her job as a household domestic to join the civil rights fight During the 1960s as the country struggled with the explosive issue of race Ellis and Atwater met on opposite sides of the public school integration issue Their encounters were charged with hatred and suspicion In an amazing set of transformations however each of them came to see how the other had been exploited by the South s rigid power structure and they forged a friendship that flourished against a backdrop of unrelenting bigotry Now a major motion picture The Best of Enemies offers a vivid portrait of a relationship that defied all odds View the movie trailer here <https://youtu.be/eKM6fSTsA0> Illinois Education

,1915 Beneath the Image of the Civil Rights Movement and Race Relations David A. Harmon,2019-05-23 This study is the story of the local Civil Rights Movement and race relations in Atlanta Georgia from 1946 to 1981 Most examinations of the Civil Rights Movement have been written from a national perspective These studies have presented local African American protest movements as part of a national campaign for civil rights that lasted approximately from 1955 the Montgomery Bus Boycott to 1968 the assassination of Dr Martin Luther King Jr In this context demonstrations in Montgomery Greensboro Albany Birmingham Selma and Memphis have been viewed as prototypical African American protest movements and milestones in this national campaign for civil rights First published in 1996 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Understanding Neoliberal Rule in K-12 Schools Mark Abendroth,Brad J.

Porfilio,2015-06-01 The word fundamentalism usually conjures up images of religions and their most zealous followers Much less often the word appears in connection with political economy The phrase free market gives the connotation that capitalism is freedom Neoliberalism is the rise of global free market fundamentalism It reaches into nearly every aspect of our daily lives as it seeks to dominate and eliminate the last vestiges of public domains through wanton privatization and deregulation It degrades all that is public The good news is that a global community of resistance continues to struggle against neoliberal oppression Formal and informal education entities contribute to these struggles offering visions and strategies for creating a better future The purpose of this volume is twofold Several contributors will highlight how the neoliberal agenda is impacting educational policy formation teaching and learning and relationships between K 12 schools and communities Other contributors will highlight how the global community has gradually become conscious of the ideological doctrine and how it is responsible for human suffering and misery The volume is needed because the growing body of educational research linked to exploring the impact of neoliberalism on schools and society fails to provide conceptual or historical understanding of this ideology It is also an important scholarly intervention because it provides insights as to why educators scholars and other global citizens have challenged the intrusion of market forces over life inside K 12 schools Teacher educators schoolteachers and anyone who yearns to understand what is behind the debilitating trend of commercial forces subverting humanizing educational projects would benefit from this volume Activists educators youth and scholars who seek strategies and visions for building democratic schools and a society would consider this volume essential reading Report of the United States Commission on Civil Rights United States Commission on Civil Rights,1961
