

My Dad, My Hero: A Father's Day Story from Benny's Heart

I'm Benny, and let me tell you, my Dad is the most super-duper, funny, mustachioed hero in the whole wide world. His mustache is like a fuzzy caterpillar, sitting right above his grin that's as wide as the summer sky.

When Father's Day comes, I always think about why I admire Dad so much. He is like a magic box filled with adventures, laughter, and surprises.

Dad's the King of Baseball in our backyard. With his lucky cap on, he pitches the ball, and I hit it far, far away! "Home run!" he'd cheer, and his caterpillar mustache would dance.

But the best part? Storytime! Dad transforms into an incredible storyteller. He makes dragons roar, fairies twinkle, and pirates sing right in our little park near the house. Sitting on our favorite bench, my big sister, Jenny, and I would giggle under the shade of the old oak tree, hanging on to every word.

Father's Day is a celebration of all the fantastic things Dad does. But to me, every day is Father's Day, filled with baseball games, magical stories, and, most importantly, that dad-special kind of love.

Story Of My Father:

Driving My Father Susan Wicks, 1995 By turning personal loss into a story of universal themes Susan Wicks poignantly speaks of the changes and concerns that children face as their parents grow older With a poetic touch and unflinching honesty her approach here is as unconventional as it is heartfelt When people asked me which of my parents I preferred I always said my father Yet after an anguished call about her mother's death the author knew that her childhood days with her father behind the wheel of the car were gone With her father widowed and inconsolable their relationship becomes increasingly unsettled Driving My Father is a closer look at those changes a chronicle made up of glimpses brief episodes and a candid meditation on how father and daughter adapted to their new lifestyles BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved

The Story of My Father Sue Miller, 2003 In the fall of 1988 Sue Miller found herself caring for her father as he slipped into the grasp of Alzheimer's disease She was she claims perhaps the least constitutionally suited of all her siblings to be in the role in which she suddenly found herself and in The Story of My Father she grapples with the haunting memories of those final months and the larger narrative of her father's life With compassion self scrutiny and an urgency born of her own yearning to rescue her father's memory from the disorder and oblivion that marked his dying and death Sue Miller takes us on an intensely personal journey that becomes by virtue of her enormous gifts of observation perception and literary precision a universal story of fathers and daughters James Nichols was a fourth generation minister a retired professor from Princeton Theological Seminary Sue Miller brings her father brilliantly to life in these pages his religious faith his endless patience with his children his gaiety and willingness to delight in the ridiculous his singular gifts as a listener and the rituals of church life that stayed with him through his final days She recalls the bitter irony of watching him a church historian wrestle with a disease that inexorably lays waste to notions of time history and meaning She recounts her struggle with doctors her deep ambivalence about many of her own choices and the difficulty of finding continually the humane and moral response to a disease whose special cruelty it is to dissolve particularities and to diminish in so many ways the humanity of those it strikes She reflects unforgettably on the variable nature of memory the paradox of trying to weave a truthful narrative from the threads of a dissolving life And she offers stunning insight into her own life as both a daughter and a writer two roles that swell together here in a poignant meditation on the consolations of storytelling With the care restraint and consummate skill that define her beloved and best selling fiction Sue Miller now gives us a rigorous compassionate inventory of two lives in a memoir destined to offer comfort to all sons and daughters struggling as we all eventually must to make peace with their fathers and with themselves

Jewish Stories from Heaven and Earth Rabbi Dov Peretz Elkins, 2011-10-20 The Glory and Grief Humor and Pride of the Human Experience Inspiration from a Jewish Perspective From exile to rebirth from degradation to renaissance the Jewish People has undergone every human experience and emotion that God created In this inspiring collection of stories award winning anthologist Dov Peretz Elkins captures the best and worst of Jewish experience in these spine tingling tales of courage devotion passion and extraordinary achievement Elkins taps the famous and the not so famous world renowned figures and the little known person next door for stories that illustrate the wonder meaning and purpose of life as viewed through the lens of Judaism's core values Though drawn from the Jewish tradition these universal stories of kindness hope faith and discovery will intrigue the minds and warm the hearts of people from all walks of life The Stories of Mary Gordon Mary Gordon,2008-11-26 The stories of Mary Gordon return us to the pleasure of this writer's craft and to her monumental talent as an observer of character and of the ever fading American Dream These pieces encompass the pre and postwar Irish American family life she circles in the early Temporary Shelter series as well as a wealth of new fiction that brings her contemporary characters into middle age it is their turn to face bodily decline mortality and the more complex anxieties of modern life With their powerful insights into how we make do both socially and privately these stories are a treasure of American fiction Potlatch as Pedagogy Sara Florence Davidson,Robert Davidson,2018-10-19 In 1884 the Canadian government enacted a ban on the potlatch the foundational ceremony of the Haida people The tradition which determined social structure transmitted cultural knowledge and redistributed wealth was seen as a cultural impediment to the government's aim of assimilation The tradition did not die however the knowledge of the ceremony was kept alive by the Elders through other events until the ban was lifted In 1969 a potlatch was held The occasion the raising of a totem pole carved by Robert Davidson the first the community had seen in close to 80 years From then on the community publicly reclaimed from the Elders who remained to share it the knowledge that has almost been lost Sara Florence Davidson Robert's daughter would become an educator Over the course of her own education she came to see how the traditions of the Haida practiced by her father holistic built on relationships practical and continuous could be integrated into contemporary educational practices From this realization came the roots for this book

My Dad Niki Daly,1995 A father's drinking causes pain and embarrassment to his family until he begins to attend Alcoholics Anonymous meetings Chicano Sketches Mario Suñez,2004-10 Mario Suñez will tell you Garza's Barber Shop is more than razors scissors and hair It is where men disgruntled at the vice of the rest of the world come to get things off their chests The lawbreakers come in to rub elbows with the sheriff's deputies And when zoot suiters come in for a trim Garza puts on a bit of zoot talk and hep cats with the zootiest of them A key figure in the foundation of Chicano literature Mario Suñez 1923 1998 was among the first writers to focus not only on Chicano characters but also on the multicultural space in which they live whether a Tucson barbershop or a Manhattan boxing ring Many of his stories have received wide acclaim through publication in periodicals and anthologies this book presents those eleven previously published stories along with eight others from the archive of his unpublished work It also includes a biographical introduction and a critical analysis of the stories that will broaden readers appreciation for his place in Chicano literature In most of his stories Suñez sought to portray people he knew from Tucson's El Hoyo barrio a place usually thought of as urban wasteland when it is thought of at all Su rez set out to fictionalize this place of ignored men and women because he believed their human stories were worth telling and he hoped that through his depictions American literature would recognize their existence By seeking to record the so called underside of America Su rez was inspired to pay close attention to people s mannerisms language and aspirations And by focusing on these barrio characters he also crafted a unique mild mannered realism overflowing with humor and pathos Along with Fray Ang lico Ch vez Su rez stands as arguably the mid twentieth century s most important short story writer of Mexican descent Chicano Sketches reclaims Su rez as a major figure of the genre and offers lovers of fine fiction a chance to rediscover this major talent Boys' Stories of Their Time in a Residential School Mark Smith,2022-09-09 This book provides rich insights into the pre and post care experiences of boys who were pupils in a residential school where the author worked over the course of the 1980s It describes the boys trajectories through life as well as detailing the rhythms rituals routines and relationships that existed in the school While the focus is on the former boys experiences these are augmented by interview material from staff members including religious Brothers who worked in the school Together these different perspectives provide unique insights into an area of social work history that is ill served by existing accounts making the book required reading for all scholars and students of social work social and oral history narrative sociology criminology and desistance and social policy Father's Motto, Or, The Cloud with a Silver Lining, and Other Stories. A Book for Boys and Their Sisters. [With Illustrations.] Father,1883 American Jewish Loss after the Holocaust Laura Levitt,2007-11-01 Many of us belong to communities that have been scarred by terrible calamities And many of us come from families that have suffered grievous losses How we reflect on these legacies of loss and the ways they inform each other are the questions Laura Levitt takes up in this provocative and passionate book An American Jew whose family was not directly affected by the Holocaust Levitt grapples with the challenges of contending with ordinary Jewish loss She suggests that although the memory of the Holocaust may seem to overshadow all other kinds of loss for American Jews it can also open up possibilities for engaging these more personal and everyday legacies Weaving in discussions of her own family stories and writing in a manner that is both deeply personal and erudite Levitt shows what happens when public and private losses are seen next to each other and what happens when difficult works of art or commemoration such as museum exhibits or films are seen alongside ordinary family stories about more intimate losses In so doing she illuminates how through these ordinary stories we may create an alternative model for confronting Holocaust memory in Jewish culture power electronics for renewable energy systems - Mar 30 2022

web may 30 2014 about this book compiles current research into the analysis and design of power electronic converters for industrial applications and renewable energy systems presenting modern and future applications of power electronics systems in the field of electrical vehicles power electronics for renewable energy systems ieeexplore - Jul 02 2022 web feb 27 2014 power electronics for renewable energy systems status and trends abstract in the past few decades the energy paradigms in many countries are experiencing significant change from fossil based resources to cleaner renewables it is expected that the scenario of highly penetrated renewables is going to be further power electronics for renewable and distributed energy - Sep 16 2023

web an overview of power electronic technologies is followed by the introduction of various renewable and distributed energy resources that includes photovoltaics wind small hydroelectric fuel cells microturbines and variable speed generation power electronics the enabling technology for renewable - Aug 03 2022

web sep 10 2021 among various renewables wind energy and photovoltaic pv are the most widely used and accordingly these are explored in this paper to demonstrate the role of power electronics the development of renewable energies and the demands of power electronics are reviewed first
